WEDDINGS

Dunlop-Guptill. Saturday, Sept. 16. A member of The Daily Telegraph's reporter staff, John J. Dunlop, B.C.L., left the city yesterday on an important mission. He was passing on the steamer Grand Manan for Grand Harbor, where he was united in marriage last evening to Miss Mildred Guptaill, a popular young woman of that place, who is well known in St. John. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and friends, at a hotel in Grand Manan, Rev. D. Jenkins. Today Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop are to leave on an extended trip which will include Toronto and other cities in Ontario, and which province Mr. Dunlop is a native. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop were the recipients of numerous gifts, including a substantial testimonial from the staff of The Telegraph and The Evening Times.

White-Edwards. On Thursday evening at St. Mary's church a quiet wedding was solemnized, when Rev. R. Taylor McKim united in marriage Miss Winnifred E. Edwards, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards and Stanley D. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. White. Morrison-Earle. At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Isaac Brindley, on Monday, August 21, Miss Frances Hazelwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Earle, was united in marriage to Donald Robert A. Morrison, son of Mr. Alexander Morrison. The groom is a popular member of the general office staff of the C. P. R. They will reside at 327 Princess street.

Mills-Seely. John W. Mills, of Winnipeg, and Miss Frances Olive Seely, daughter of E. H. Seely, of Lower Norton, were united in marriage yesterday at St. Luke's church, Fort William (Ont.). Mills-Comeau. Harry Mills, of England, who is now residing in St. John, was united in marriage last evening to Miss Mildred Comeau, of Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed at the rectory of St. George's church by the Rev. W. H. Sampson. They will reside in St. John.

Bourque-Friel. Moncton, N. B., Sept. 20—At noon today in St. Bernard's church, Miss Helen Marjorie Friel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Friel, became the bride of Major Alfred L. Bourque, M.C., son of Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Bourque. Rev. Father Savage officiated. Bride and groom are residents of Moncton and have a large circle of friends. The bridegroom is a nephew of Mrs. Louis Comeau, of St. John.

MacMasters-Brittain. A very interesting wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, West Side, when Rev. J. A. Morrison, D.D., of Harold B. Gault, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gault, of New Brunswick, was united in marriage to Miss Marie Britain, 137 Duke street, West End, to Fred M. MacMasters of Fairville. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming suit of brown broadcloth with a seal scarf and mode hat and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses.

Schechter-Gordon. The Carleton street synagogue was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., when Rabi S. Salsberg united in marriage Miss Sarah Gordon, daughter of Myer Gordon, and Leon Schechter of Montreal. The bride, who was given away by her parents, was costumed in white Canton crepe with gorgonette panels and wore a wreath and veil with pearl trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Her cousin, Miss Mary Gordon, of Halifax, acted as maid of honor. She wore a costume of turquoise blue taffeta trimmed with Spanish lace with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink Ophelia roses.

McLaughlin-Morrissey. A very pretty wedding was solemnized with nuptial mass Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Assumption, West Side, when Rev. H. Ramage united in marriage Miss Kathleen Morrissey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Morrissey, 28 Albert street, West Side, to J. Raymond McLaughlin, Quebec street, West End. The bride wore a charming gown of sand-colored Canton crepe with a large black picture hat and seal scarf and carried a bouquet of Exeter roses. She was supported by Miss Regina McNeely, attired in blue satin with overspray of radium lace and squirrel scarf and carrying a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Charles McLaughlin. The bride's going-away costume was a traveling suit of brown duvetyne with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin left on the Montreal train for Montreal, Toronto and Buffalo. On their return they will reside in the city.

Fisher-Fairbrother. At the home of the bride, 116 St. James street, on Sept. 13, Rev. S. P. Poole united in marriage Ella Scribner Fairbrother and Duncan Fisher, of Edinburgh, Scotland. The bride was given away by her father, Geo. Scribner, in the presence of relatives and near friends and was unattended. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Scribner, of Hatfield's Point; father and mother of the bride, Hatfield's Point. The bride was attired in navy blue crepe de chine with hand embroidery and moonlight.

Hicks-Robson. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Robson, Sackville, on Saturday, their daughter, Emma Maud, and Norman Gardner Hicks, of Fall River (Mass.), were married by Rev. C. F. Higgins. The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully gowned in white Canton crepe and shadow lace, bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Gertrude Hicks, sister of the groom, who wore a lovely gown of mulberry chintilly lace, black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Percy T. Palmer, Moncton, supported the groom.
