

FOR ANNUAL EXHIBITIONS.

Many Directors of St. John Association Favor it.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS.

Can Only be Accomplished by the Hearty Cooperation of Manufacturers—Praise For Messrs Hubbard and Scanders.

Replying to an enquiry from the Merchant, Mr. R. B. Emerson, President of the Exhibition Association, said that on the question of annual or biennial exhibitions, there was a feeling on the part of many of the directors that it would be well to hold annual fairs. They felt that it was hard to carry along the threads of organization over a period of two years. He personally favored an annual exhibition. But that could only be accomplished by the manufacturers of the city and province supporting it more heartily than they have done in the past.

On the whole, this year's exhibition was the finest ever held here, and there was a better arrangement of exhibits. "But," said President Emerson, who has devoted a great deal of time and energy to the work, "many things can be improved to make the next exhibition easier on the management. We are not systematized enough—from the business standpoint. We held a meeting of the executive last week, and went all over the buildings and made a memo of all the changes and improvements that could be effected in the interim, whether one year or two, before the next exhibition. If made they will redound to the benefit of the exhibition in all respects."

ELECTION WAS VALID.

Diocesan Committee Says New Bishop of Nova Scotia Was Properly Chosen.

Halifax, Oct. 8.—At a meeting of the Diocesan Executive held recently the report of the sub-committee on the validity of the election of Archdeacon Worrell as Bishop of Nova Scotia was received. The committee reported that through correspondence with different members who did not vote it was ascertained that the full 116 were present during the time the ballot was open and therefore the election was unquestionably legal and valid.

Rev. Mr. Ancient received a letter from the Bishop elect on Wednesday last in which he stated that he would not be able to get here much before the end of November. The consecration ceremonies will take place in Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal on November 18th. Bishop Courtney will preach the consecration sermon and he and the Bishop of Ontario will be the presenting Bishops.

Was Shot by His Stepson.

Auburn, M. E. Oct. 8.—James Hiltse, aged about 50 years, was shot tonight by his stepson, Harris Tobin, a boy 16 years old. A bullet from a 22-calibre revolver pierced his left lung and his condition is critical. Tobin disappeared after the shooting, but later surrendered to the police, who had instituted a search for him in this city and Lewiston. The boy gave no explanation of the shooting.

To Break Up a Cold

Right quickly nothing works so nicely as Nerviline taken real hot. It sends a glowing warmth all through the body, and when rubbed on the throat and chest loosens up the cough and relieves tightness and soreness in the chest. Nerviline is used as a preventive and cure for colds and coughs and winter ills in thousands of homes because it goes right to work and brings relief quickly. There is no remedy in the world with half the power and merit of Nerviline; it is invaluable in every house. In large bottles, price 25c.

Mr. Welch In Trouble

St. John Man In the Toils in Bangor—Well Known to the Police Here.

(Bangor News.) Mr. James Welch, hobo, of St. John, N. B., and several prisons and jails, was released from the Penobscot county jail Wednesday morning, after having served a 30 days sentence for drunkenness. Being in a morose mood, and also, unhappily, possessed of several coins, he proceeded to take on a cargo of jig juice that was entirely beyond his ability to handle.

He remained in a state of great internal moisture all day, and towards evening, having evaporated a little, he started out to the residence of Miss Nellie Duffy in Pine street to get something to eat.

Miss Duffy sent him downstairs for some supper and after he had finished the meal suggested that the outside world was calling to him. Welch would not have it so. He asserted that Miss Duffy was the only call that he could hear, and that he was hearing it good and loud. He protested his affection in unmistakable terms.

Waxing more eloquent as the moments sped on, Bro. Welch finally endeavored to embrace the young lady. She struggled to get away, but her suitor held fast in a sort of double clinch. The harder Miss Duffy struggled the rougher did Welch become.

Finally the woman's screams for help frightened her assailant and he looked it for the stilly night. Her face was covered with blood and she was bruised on the body. Her rings were gone and she was very humiliated. She called the police and a warrant was issued.

The night men hunted everywhere for the man, but couldn't find him, and yesterday morning Inspector Knaide took a warrant, boarded an electric car and started for Old Town where he had been told that Welch went Wednesday night on the 11-15 train.

But before he had reached Exchange street he was stopped and told that Welch was being brought to Bangor to do a 30 days sentence in Bangor jail for drunkenness, he having been sentenced by the Old Town municipal court yesterday morning.

Inspector Knaide holds the warrant for his arrest on the charge of assault on Miss Duffy, and he will be arraigned before Judge Bailey in the municipal court as soon as his present sentence is served.

Welch is well known to the police, and has served a sentence of eight years in Dorchester prison.

ANARCHY RULES IN MORROCCO.

Ill-paid, Lawless Soldiers, and Tribes Ripe for Rebellion.

London, Oct. 8.—The Times Tanager correspondent, in a despatch published today describes the growth of anarchy in Morocco. The tribes, the correspondent says, only refrain from open rebellion because there is nobody against whom to rebel, as the Sultan's authority is non-existent except inside the towns. All attempts to collect tribal levies and to secure recruits have failed. The Sultan's empire, with only a few hundred ill-paid, lawless soldiers, Moorish officials everywhere, the despatch adds, are taking advantage of the situation to amass money while the sun shines and the Governor of Tangier is already seriously compromised in affairs with several of the legations.

THE FLAG SAUED CAPT. MANHA.

Pursued by Mexican Authorities he took Refuge on a British Steamer.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 8.—Pursued by the Mexican authorities after being released from the Ensenada jail on bail, Captain Manha, of the schooner May, took refuge on the British steamer St. Denis, where the Captain locked him in and nailed the American flag on the door. The attempt to retake him was abandoned. Manha arrived here on the St. Denis today. He was arrested September 15 and thrown into jail on the charge of poaching guano from Mexican territory. His efforts to get a speedy trial were unavailing and his wife went to Ensenada and secured his release. It was then that the jail authorities demanded money of Manha for alleged service during his incarceration. He refused and was pursued to the steamer. Captain Manha's schooner has disappeared.

Killed by Molten Slag.

Wharton, N. J. Oct. 8.—One man is dead and three others are probably fatally burned as the result of the overturning of a ladle of molten slag on a train at Wharton furnace today. Harvey Morris, Edward Bartlett and William George of Wharton, and John Smith of Oxford were riding in the cab of the engine when the ladle hit an obstruction and upset, dashing the fiery contents of the ladle over the four men. Morris died shortly after. The recovery of the others is unlikely.

WOULD FORCE WORLD PEACE.

Andrew Carnegie Wants Britain, Germany, France and U. S. in Anti-War Coalition.

A coalition of great world Powers—Britain, France, Germany, and America, perhaps—which shall say to the nations of the earth that there shall be no more war, and which shall be prepared to enforce that edict by a combination of strength that shall compel acquiescence from any country not willing to submit its differences with a neighbor to arbitration by The Hague Tribunal, is Andrew Carnegie's suggestion to the thirtieth International Peace Congress now in session in Boston.

The idea has been suggested before by others, but rarely with the boldness with which Mr. Carnegie advances it. He suggests that Great Britain, France, Germany and the United States might form a combination whose edict would be respected. Should it be defied, he believes that swift, sharp discipline of the first offending country would insure against a second necessity for action. To abolish all war at one blow he says is a great object, for he believes the peoples of the four nations named would risk much, but he argues that, given a coalition of such strength, the real risk would be small. He further declares that the time is opportune and that President Roosevelt and Secretary Hay are just the men to lead such a movement. His letter, which will command a wide reading and much thought, whether or not it has any tangible results, is as follows:

Skibo Castle, Dornoch, Sutherland Sept. 27, 1904.

Dear Mr. President: I much regret missing the meeting of the International Peace Conference. Since we have at last by The Hague Tribunal permanent High Court for the settlement of international disputes, more and more my thoughts turn upon the next possible and necessary step forward to an agreement by certain Powers to prevent appeals to war by civilized nations.

Suppose, for instance, that Britain, France, Germany and America, with such other minor States as would certainly join them, were to form a coalition, prepared if defied, to enforce peaceful settlement, the first offender (if there ever were one) being rigorously dealt with, and war would be as good as banished from the earth. For such a result, surely the people of these four countries would be willing to risk much. The risk, however, would be trifling. A strong combination would efface it altogether. I think this one simple plan most likely to commend itself to the intelligent masses. A committee might be formed to consider this. If a body of prominent men of each nation agreed to unite in urging the co-operation of their respective countries in the movement I think the idea would soon spread.

One cannot imagine for our republic a prouder position than that of pioneer in such a cause, who has been so long in urging arbitration, first also to urge five important Powers to submit their differences to the Court of Peace. Nor can I imagine more fitting agencies to urge this upon the Powers than our present Secretary of State, who is to honor our part at the coming meeting in Boston, and our present President, who recently led the Powers to The Hague. Having secured a permanent court for the settlement of international disputes, the time seems ripe for the same agencies to consider the one step further needed to complete the work.

Very truly yours, always for peace, Andrew Carnegie.

WERE IN HURRY TO GET AWAY.

Williams and Howard Lost No Time In Leaving Fredericton End of the Trial.

Williams and Howard the alleged Fredericton pickpockets lost no time in leaving Fredericton after their release from custody. The Gleaner referring to their departure says:

They immediately picked up their grips and accompanied by Mrs. Williams proceeded by Brunswick street and out York where they boarded the 5.30 p. m. train, it is presumed for Boston. It is intimated that they might be down this way on a hunting trip at some future time. If they do, however, they would select their own guides. Both Williams and Howard and more especially Mrs. Williams, looked as happy as a newly married couple when they stepped aboard the train last evening.

Referring to the scenes at the close of the trial the Gleaner also says:

"When the jury returned to the court room yesterday afternoon at 3.50 o'clock there was a large number of spectators awaiting their finding. All eyes were turned on Howard and Williams. The announcement did not appear to come as a surprise for when the foreman announced the verdict, not Guilty, Williams did not show the slightest signs of the effect. Howard, however, who had borne quite an anxious expression, immediately appeared relieved and smiled. Mrs. Williams, who had meanwhile surveyed the proceedings from an ante-room, on the announcing of the sentence broke down and wept. The strain had ended and relief came in tears. Upon being discharged Williams immediately joined his wife. Later on both men seated themselves at the table and conversed with their council, Messrs. McKeown and McLeod. Thus ended a trial which has been looked forward to with more than ordinary interest for some time.

IMMIGRATION TO CANADA.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—(Special)—The arrival of immigrants for Canada, at the ocean ports in July, was 8,852, compared with 8,123, in July, 1903, or 729 of an increase.

The returns from the United States show 2,549, as against 2,940, in July of the previous year.

CLEVER.

"Talk about your clever chauffeurs," remarked the Brooklyn man. "You should see Peckham."

"Why, he hasn't an automobile, has he?" "Oh, no; but you should see how he can guide his baby carriage through a crowd."

GONE TO BRAZIL TO JOIN HER SON.

Lockport Lady's Long Journey—The South Shore Railway—Yarmouth Breathes More Freely.

Track-laying has been completed on the Halifax and Southwestern Railway across Medway River, twenty-two miles from Bridgewater and eight miles from Liverpool. Work on the station grounds at Bristol has been begun by the contractors, McDonald and Clarke with a crew of workmen.

The first dogfish reduction works to be erected by the government will be at Canso. Mr. Whitman, of Canso, will have charge of the establishment. Professor Prince goes to New York in a few days to inspect the machinery for the establishment before it is shipped.

Mrs. Enos, of Lockport left Halifax yesterday for Rimouski, where she will take the Allan line steamer for England. The latter part of the month she will sail from London for Brazil to join her son, Robert T. Locke, with whom she will spend her remaining days. Mrs. Locke holds a very important civil engineering position in Brazil and as it was impossible for him to leave he sent an assistant, Adolphe Hecht, to accompany his mother to that country.

A Yarmouth letter says—The trouble in the administration of the United States immigration rules is probably a thing of the past, as Mr. Hogan has been transferred to Quebec. He has been succeeded by R. M. Turner of the St. John office, who was very popular in that city because of his courtesy. The repeated complaints of travellers and the efforts of the D. A. R. to have the offensive practices lessened have both had a part in bringing about this desired result."

Joy Succeeds Despair

IN THE HOME OF MR. JOSEPH HILTON, TORONTO, ONT.

His Daughter, Florence, Was All But Dead From Dropsy—Her Doctor Had Given Her Up—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Were Then Used and To-day She Is Well and Strong.

From the Post, Thorold, Ont.

Everybody believes in a dreamy sort of way of the efficacy of a well and widely advertised medicine, when the recorded cases of restored health are at a distance; but when a case comes up in the home town, when the patient is known to everyone, and when the cure is not only positive but marvellous, the efficacy of the medicine becomes a fact—a decided thing. For many years the Post has advertised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People; large quantities of them have been sold by the local drug stores, and many remarkable cures have been effected. One of these attracted the attention of our reporter and he investigated. Miss Florence Hilton, the eighteen year old daughter of Joseph and Mrs. Hilton, living in the west part of the town, was taken ill early last summer with dropsy, coupled with heart trouble. She was compelled to give up any duty after another, and finally became unable to walk or to lie down. Her suffering was intense and medical skill did all that could be done. Florence, however, grew worse, sitting in her chair day and night for five long months to get her breath, and the parents despaired. At last, the doctor gave her up and said further visits were futile. The poor girl's limbs were pitifully swollen and finally burst below the knees. She sat helpless and weak, gasping for breath and at times could breathe at all only with the greatest difficulty. One night the neighbors came in and said she could not live till morning. But to-day she is alive and well, moving about among her young companions a remarkable and miraculous contrast to what she then was. The reporter called one evening at the Hilton home, but Miss Florence, was out visiting. The father and mother were in, however, and freely told him of the cure, which they attribute entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The first box was brought to her by her grandmother, who urged their use. Then Mrs. Hilton herself remembered that she had the previous winter been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills of a slight attack of dropsy, and also remembered the many cures advertised in the Post. She bought two boxes and Florence took them. She felt a slight decrease in the pain in her limbs, and more pills were procured. For five months—five long pain-laden months—the weary girl had sat day and night in her chair, but now she began to feel the pain leaving her and to see her limbs resume their natural size. Fourteen boxes of the pills were taken and at last her person was restored. She rose from her chair; her former strength gradually came back; one by one her household duties were taken up again, and when The Post representative called he was met by beaming faces and thankful hearts and a grateful readiness to give to the world the facts that had saved the bright young life and had brought joy instead of grief to a Thorold home.

In thousands of other homes, scattered over the length and breadth of Canada, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have brought health and joy and gladness and in every home in the land where sickness and suffering enters new health and strength can be had through a fair use of this medicine. Remember that substitutes can't cure—they make the patient worse and when you ask for this medicine see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around the box—then you are sure you have the genuine pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
