London, Nov. 2.—London has passed through a day of sensational rumors for which there seems to have the formula of the formula been no basis in fact. The Russian Ambassador was received in audience by King Edward, who expressed his satisfaction with the course events have taken and confidence that the outcome will be satisfactory to both Great Britain and Russia. Admiral is one of the two representatives of especially St. John, has become classic ground to the student of the Cambrian system. The collection breaching of the walls by underground mines, but above all the fact that the Japanese government after weeks of silence regarding the operation of the besiegers, has given out these reports before actual success has crowned their efforts, convinces the military authorities that after long preparation General Nogi is not only making a supreme effort to carriche fortress, but feels confident of success. They believe the assault was timed for the announcement of the fall of the fortress to be made upon the birthday of the Mikado tomorrow, which by a strange coincidence is the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas and a great is the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas and a great Russian holiday. Tomorrow, therefore, is expected to be marked by fate for a day of rejoicing, either for Russia or Japan according as the assault succeeds or fails. The war of sault succeeds or fails. The war of the Russian the Rus fice is trying to buoy up the Russian hopes with references to the long and Salem, N. C.
