defeated in the American League yesterday. New York now leads Boston
.607 to .603.

TO-DAYS MATCHES.

Neptunes vs. All-St. John.

From the present outlook the game of foot ball on the Shamrock grounds this afternoon should prove a good commencement of the season, when at 2.30 o'clock the Neptunes will play the all St. John team. The Neptune line up is:—
Fullback, Kenney; Halves, Barnaby, Mooney, Ellis (captain), Simmons; quarters, Ledingham and March; forwards, Agar, Masters, MacMichael, Finley, Setchell, Outram, Gerow, Sipprell.
The all-St. John team will be chosen from Merritt, Emerson, Fairweather (captain), Thomson, Paisley, Coll, Robinson, Marshall, J. Malcolm, Scovill, Day, Titus, Curren, Law, Watters, Harrison.

CARLETON VS. FAIRVILLE.

The Carleton foot ball team will try conclusions with the Fairville team this afternoon on the Shamrock grounds.

HIGH SCHOOL VS. ROTHESAY.

The St. John High School team will play a match with the Rother-say team this afternoon. The game will be played at Rothersay and is one of the matches for the Moore Cup. The line up of the teams are:—

High School	Rothersay
Full Back,	Phillips.
Marry,	Half Backs.
Bonnell,	Wooster,
Powers,	Carson,
Malcolm (Capt.),	Bernasconi (Capt.),
Stalling,	Learment,
Quarter Backs,
Estey,	Patterson,
Morgan,	Porter,
Forwards,
W. Brown,	M. McAvity,
Bennett,	Adams,
Milligan,	Shives,
Briggs,	MacLean,
Duke,	Freeze,
McCafferty,	Gaskill,
Titus,	Spicer,
C. Brown,	Fitzgerald.

THE RING.

McCoy and Sullivan Again.
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 30.—Kid McCoy and Twin Sullivan agreed today to a return match in this city during the first week of the Ascot race, which will begin Nov. 24. Mc-Coy paid full tribute to Sullivan's courage and generalship, but asserted that he believed that in another bout he could win more decisively.
"I did not think I could go twenty rounds. I have not done it before in seven years," said McCoy. "But I picked up a lot about the game that I had almost forgotten."

HORSE NOTES.

Sadie Mac beat Louise M. and Prince of Orange to wagon in the free for all trot, at the matinee races held in Pittsburg, Pa., in 2.08½, 2.09½. She will be a hard mare to beat in the 2.12 trots next year.
The racing in the grand circuit meeting at Columbus, O., on September 22d was very sensational.
Sweet Marie won the 2.07 trot in 2.09½, 2.06½. George G. won the first heat in 2.06½. Red Lace won the 2.15 trot in 2.11½, 2.08½, 2.10½.
Major Delmar went a mile in 2.02½.
Dan Patch has been very sick and at one time it was thought he would not live. At last accounts he was rounding to, but it is extremely doubtful if he ever goes another fast mile.
At the Cleveland matinee Lou Dillon went a half mile without a wind shield and only a runner at her side in '58, the fastest half ever trotted.
It does not look as though she was all in. At Memphis next month, Saunders expects to beat two minutes the old way. On the same afternoon Hantas Crook and Prince Direct paced a half double in 1.00½ and Charlie Mac went a mile to saddle in 2.13½. These horses are all owned by Mr. Billings and all the performances are world records.

La Bono, by Allerton, the black mare that J. M. Johnson raced at Calais lowered her record to 2.23½ over Clinton, Mass., track, Sept.
14th, in the fastest heat of the race.
FITZ WANTS ANOTHER TRY.

Bob Fitzsimmons wants to fight Jeffries again. At least that is what he told a newspaper man in Newark a few nights ago. Bob had a whole lot of things to say, among other remarks being the following:
"I never barred Jeffries in any challenge since he rocked me to sleep in our last fight at Frisco. I was drugged in our last fight at Coney island, when I lost the championship, and after the second round I could not see my man. I fought only by instinct, but my efforts were wasted, and before the round was over I did not even remember whom I was fighting with. At any rate it was almost child's play to hand me a knockout blow."

JOHN L'S GLASS BROKEN.

St. Louis, Me., Sept. 29, 1904.
"See? Just my rotten luck. All my good intentions result in disaster for me. I tried to referee an impromptu bout here early this morning, and as a consequence I have to pay for a new plate glass door." John L. Sullivan, today, pointed dramatically to the front door of his saloon, which was innocent of glass. When John L. heard excited voices on his place last night he inquired in stentorian tones what was "doing." Daniel Frazier and John Andrews were engaged in an altercation. Frazier drew a revolver from his hip pocket.
While Andrews took out a long knife.
"None of that goes in my house," thundered John L. "Put up those weapons and fight like gentlemen or I'll throw you both out." The doors were closed and Frazier, becoming frightened, jumped through the glass and began running in the direction of Duluth, Minn.

EXTRA INNING GAMES.

The season has been prolific in extra inning games. In the American league there have been 12 11-inning contests, 10 12-inning, three 13-inning conflicts, one of 14 innings, four of 15 innings and one 16-inning battle. The National league has had four 11-inning games, four 12-inning games, four 13-inning tilts, one 15-inning set-to and two of 17 innings.
Both leagues have had 10-inning games too numerous to mention.

THEY WANT O'NEIL.

The Washington owners are very anxious to secure John O'Neil of St.
John for next season, but Tip has not yet fully decided where he will play.

The Times telegraphic service will commend itself to the reader who wants the cream of the news of the day.

Storekeeper. I'm afraid that was a bad quarter you gave me yesterday.
Mrs. Shopper. Possibly; but I know nearly half of those eggs were bad.
"Yes, sir," Charley says Miss DeWitt made a perfect monkey out of him.
"Has he thanked her yet for the improvement she brought about?"

WALCOTT IS OUTFOUGHT BY JOE GANS

Rugged Ring Battle and Spectators Did Not Like It When Referee Decided a Draw -- Fritz Would Try Jeffries Again --- Washington Wants O'Neil for Next Season.

Woodward's Pavilion, San Francisco, Oct. 1.—Joe Gans and Joe Walcott, holders respectively of the lightweight and welterweight championships, fought 20 rounds to a draw last night. The decision was not well received by many of the spectators who thought Gans should have been favored. The fight was furious. Gans started the round with enjoying a decided advantage in the first two rounds. After the second round, however, and until the middle of the contest Walcott employed his right almost exclusively to Gans' body and kidneys, gaining a decided lead.
Walcott put tremendous power behind his blows and several times greatly weakened Gans, who was unable to stop the terrific onslaught of Walcott's right.

After the 10th, Gans succeeded in evading most of Walcott's vicious swings and forced Walcott to change his tactics. He met Walcott's lead with straight, clean rights and lefts to the face and several times had Walcott dazed and the latter twice experienced difficulty locating his corner.

From the 11th to the 16th it was nip and tuck, first one and then the other taking the lead, but the tide turned in Gans' favor in the 17th when he met all Walcott's rushes with straight rights from the shoulder and forced him to fight back wildly.
The 19th nearly saw Walcott's an-ish. Gans started the round with a tremendous smash to Walcott's jaw and soon had him in apparent distress.

Gans outfought his opponent who failed to land a blow in this round.
Several times Gans sent his right and left to the face with terrific force, cleverly blocking any attempted counter.

The last round was a repetition of the preceding. Gans employed his right and left principally on the face and Walcott led right and left, but failed to find a resting place on his shifty opponent. In the infighting Gans was clearly Walcott's master.
The decision of the referee was greeted with tremendous hooting and hissing and cries of "Gans," "Gans."

After the fight, it was developed that Walcott had broken his right arm.
An examination disclosed that the arm was broken at the elbow, the accident occurring in the fourth round. A doctor in attendance verified the statement as to his injury.
Gans said: "I think it was a bad decision, but do not care to offer any criticism." Then to show that no ill-feeling existed, he walked across the ring and shook hands with Walcott.

Walcott's manager stated his willingness to give Gans a return match for $1,000, the same weights to govern, namely 141 pounds at the ringside.

YORK THEATRE.

A Great Programme of Entertainment by Fresh Vaudeville Artists Next Week.

Hyde's gift edged entertainers will hold the boards of the York week of Oct. 3rd, and will present a bill of unusual strength.

Bunth and Rudd & Co. of European fame will present an eccentric Act, entitled Radium Revelations, introducing their highly educated Dog, "Jack," the Giant Elephant, The Durbar, Doctor Schwindler, and many very funny and costly mechanical effects.

Castellat and Hall, of Mr. Keith's Boston Theatre, in an up to the minute comedy sketch will present Mr.
Castellat's marvellous Bar performances. These artists are a rare treat.

The champion fancy bag Punchers Sullagley Bros. are unexcelled in their beautiful display of science; the clever little singing and dancing soubrettes, the Hurley sisters, will offer pleasing singing, artistic dancing, and elaborate wardrobe for their portion.

F. Allan Coogan, the clever little artist will make his initial bow with artistically executed dancing, in wooden shoes, rapid changes of war-robe, and clever singing. Those funny knock-about comedians, Alexander and Finn, will present their screaming comedy creation. The Rivals, an act that is full of life and funny situations.

Signor Monte and the Clown is a very novel combination of mirth and mimicry.
This bill should draw a large and enthusiastic audience at each performance, and will go down in the history of the York, as one of the greatest bills ever presented in this new play-house.

The special children's matinee, Tuesday, Oct. 4th, at 4 p. m. is given for the benefit of the scholars of the several schools who can make this a grand success, by attending in a body. Ten cents is the price of admission to all school children.

Mrs. Hogan—"Thwat does yez ould mon do, Mrs. Casey?" Mrs. Casey—"Shure, he's a doimond cutter."
Mrs. Hogan—"Yez don't mane ut!" Mrs. Casey—"Yis, he cuts th' grass off the baseball grounds."

HIGHLAND DANCES

Will Be a Feature at the Opera House on Tuesday.

The famous band of the Black Watch Highlanders, the regiment with the grandest record of any Scottish regiment in the army, will arrive on Tuesday. At 3 o'clock a grand matinee for the school children and the public will take place at the Opera house, and at 8 p. m. the grand concert under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and the militia. These concerts will be brilliant and delightful events.

As a special reward for many years of war service this magnificent band has been permitted to make a holiday visit to Canada. The Black Watch was here before, but not for pleasure. In one battle alone, when fighting for Canada, at Ticconderoga, this famous regiment lost 647 officers and privates, killed and wounded.

The brass band, the largest that has ever visited Canada, the Royal Pipers, the finest in the world, and the Highland dances, the reels, the Highland flings, the Argyleshire sword dances and other feats are such attractive additions as no concert ever had here before.

A Dead Tired Feeling

And utter weariness are due to the blood being weakened through faulty action of the kidneys and liver. It's a surplus of energy, lots of red vitalizing blood you need, and it can be acquired quickly by using Ferro-zone, the greatest strengthening tonic made. "No tonic equals Ferro-zone," writes H. E. Jennings of Westport. "Last spring I was tired and depressed, had backache and lacked strength. Ferrozone soon brought me to good health and made me well." Price 50c, at druggists.

Mrs. Jones—"I met Mrs. Brown yesterday. She says she has been as hungry as she can be ever, since she came away from your house." Mrs. Nipper—"Yes, the air down at our place gives people great appetites."

Mrs. Jones—"Yes, but as Mrs.
Brown says, 'Air isn't very filling.'" Ward—"Say, you ain't going to vote for Bender, are you? He's crooked, you know."
Street—"Yes, but he is on the straight ticket."

Here's A Puzzle For Somebody

AND ALL ON ACCOUNT OF

"ROYAL HOUSEHOLD"

"The hold upon the people of Annapolis county which this 'Royal Household' flour has secured of late is one of the most remarkable things I have seen in my eighteen years business experience," said an Annapolis county merchant who attended the Halifax Exhibition. I find that the majority of my customers absolutely refuse to take anything but 'Royal Household' and I tell you it is almost a serious problem with some of us as to how we are going to sell the stocks we have of other fairly good flours.

RED ROSE TEA "IS GOOD TEA."

Do you like tea with a rich tasty taste? A taste you won't forget? "It is good tea" is a common expression, used by people who have been drinking RED ROSE TEA. They mean it is the kind of tea that just suits them. I think it will suit you. Will you ask your grocer to send you a package?
