(Bangor News.)

Since a few free traders in Massachusetts have started an agitation n favor of reciprocity with Canada t is reported that English statesmen are worried somewhat lest Canada, finding the trade wth the United States so much more agreeable to the wants of the Canadian people, may want to sever her connections with the mother country and annex herself to her Uncle Samuel. Apprehensions on this score are idle, because when Canada is fitted to be annexed to the United States, she will tumble into our arms in spite of all England can lo. Perhaps if we could make some arrangements with Cgnada to have her raw material in exchange for our manufactured goods, we could patch up a scheme for reciprocity that might be able to satisfy our people.
