THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other natural and eminently safe cathartics.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some cases a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

HE COULD ROW

(From the New York Tribune.)

While on a trip through the sparsely settled districts of Georgia a Northern hired a colored native to guide him across country to his destination. Reaching the banks of a swift-flowing stream, the Northern man spotted a boat moored at the edge, and asked the Negro if he could row.

"Ro, boss? No, suh, Ah kain't ro' nohow."

"Well, how can I get across, then? There isn't any bridge."

"No, suh, Ah kain't ro," answered Sambo, rolling his eyes in ludicrous astonishment; "but Ah kin git yo' across de ribber all right, suh."

"The Northerner with some trepidation and considerable curiosity stepped into the boat, and the Negro rowed him swiftly and surely over the turbulent stream to the other side, proving himself an experienced oarsman.

"Why, Sambo, what did you mean by lying to me?" asked the perplexed traveller. "I thought you said you couldn't row a boat?"

"Sambo opened his mouth in a grin so wide that he appeared to whisper in his own ear as he replied: "W'y, boss, Ah suah thought you meant ro'—ro' like a lion!"
