Changes in Rules.

R. T. MacLreith of Halifax, N. S., has received the enclosed communication from G. Rowland Hill, President of the Rugby Football Union of England, and he would be glad to receive any suggestions from those identified with football in the Maritime Provinces in reference to the alteration in the scoring laws referred to therein.

The following proposal was on the notice paper for the annual general meeting held on Sept. 29th.

Proposed (Rockcliffe), seconded (North Durham), that law 4 be altered to read:

A Try equals 3 points.
A Penalty Goal equals 2 points.
A Goal from a Try, in which case

the Try shall not count equals 5 points.

Any other Goal equals 3 points.

At the request of our committee the proposal was withdrawn, but a vote was taken as to the advisability of some changes in the scoring laws being made.

There was a decided majority in favor of a change and our committee promised to carefully consider the subject, and they have decided to ask the opinions of all our clubs.

Will you kindly at your earliest convenience consult your committee and ask them to reply to the following questions:

1. Do they consider that an alteration is desirable, if so,
2. What alteration do they approve of.

THE RING.

Dress Reform in The Ring.

Dress reform has struck the prize ring with a vengeance. It first began in England and bids fair to find encouragement here. The costume of a pugilist heretofore has never been the source of much concern as long as the fighter was capable of putting up a good bout. In former days boxers wore knee trunks and sleeveless shirts. Then ordinary tights were used, and finally the shirt was discarded altogether. It was doffed as superfluous. However, many pugilists are vain, and more than anything else like to display their manly forms to an admiring crowd. With the shirt discarded the fighter may fold his arms, throw out his chest and pose. But he takes more pains now to show his legs than his torso. Consequently trunks and tights have shown a shrinkage.

If ring apparel is too decollete, the fact may be laid to the door of the fight promoters. Wrestlers are more decorously dressed when they go on the mat. Their legs are not bare. There is no reason why a fighter's under pinnings should not be covered.—New York Sun.

A New Idea.

At last something original has found its way in the stereotyped articles of agreement which pugilists sign when they arrange a match.

Young Corbett and "Batling" Nelson, who are to meet this month at San Francisco, have the credit of introducing the novelty in their compact. In their papers there is a restorative clause which debars either pugilist from leaving his camp during the final three weeks of his training. For doing so each fighter will be penalized $500, this money reverting to the club. This is a capital idea and should be imitated by other clubs all over the country.

Professor Tom Sharkey.

Tom Sharkey's business cards in the future will have "professor" annexed to his name. The famous ex-sailor-pugilist has taken charge of the physical culture class of St. Anne's Church, Twelfth street, near Fourth avenue. He assumed his new position last week. Since Sharkey took charge of the boxing end of the class it has grown to such proportions that the retired pugilist has been forced to have an assistant. Prior to Sharkey's advent boxing was not a part of the curriculum. It was at his suggestion that the art was taken up, and the Rev. Fathers Riley and Sullivan of the church agreed with him. Sharkey has been a member of the church for some time, as also has been his wife.

St. Anne's has a fine gymnasium and the boys are delighted at the idea of learning how to box. They practice all the blows known to the art, and some of them have already become very clever. Sharkey says he has some excellent material in his class, and expects to develop a champion some day.

"The church and the ring are being drawn closer together each day," said Sharkey recently. "It is a capital idea, and boxing should be encouraged in every church in the country. Besides making a boy manly, it also makes him strong." Fathers Riley and Sullivan are enthusiastic over the new class, and can see no harm in the innovation. The class is one of the most popular in the city, apparently.—New York Sun.

GAVE FINE CONCERT.

Choristers of Mission Church Prove Excellent Entertainers.

One of the prettiest and most novel musical entertainments that has been seen for a long time, was given by the choristers of the Mission church of St. John Baptist, last evening. The room was well filled, and the audience showed marked enthusiasm, nearly all the performers being obliged to respond to encores. The programme was as follows:—

Chorus—Nutting Song. Francis Robinson
Song—.....My Little Chimpanzee.
Song—.....Victor Lee and chorus.
Song—You're as Welcome as the Flowers in May.
Walter Nixon.
Song—.....Selected.
Song—.....Spring Has Come.
Song—.....E. Alban Sturdee.
Song—.....Gillert Bros.
Song—.....Selected.
Song—.....Ronald McAvity.
Song—.....I Can't Do The Sum.
Rev. Father Owen-Jones and chorus.
Whistling.
Walter Nixon.
Song—.....My Gondolier.
Song—.....E. Alban Sturdee and chorus.
Finale—Scena Japanese.
God Save the King.

The boys wore Japanese costume, which added greatly to the effect. The choruses were strong, and the entertainment throughout reflected much credit on the organist, Professor George Collins. The solo encores were as follows: Allan Sturdee "Sailing, Sailing, Sailing," Victor Lee, Zanzibar, Ronald McAvity, Adoration, "I Can't Do The Sum," is well worthy of special mention and was enthusiastically encored. Rev. Father Owen-Jones was excellent in the role of the school-master and elicited a good deal of laughter. The Gilbert Bros. were also obliged to respond to an encore. For such youthful performers, their work was excellent, the time and expression being almost perfect. The stage direction was in the capable hands of Herbert B. Tolim. The entertainment was a pronounced success.

RAILWAYS OF THE TRANSVAAL

Sir Percy Girouard's Successor Does Good Work.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 17.—(Special)—A special London cable says:—The St. James Gazette, referring to Lord Kilner's congratulations to the Transvaal on the rapid strides made towards an adequate railway system, says:—

"Sir Percy Girouard, that admirable expert, is not to be blamed for the comparative failure up to the present, running on an ordinary line in time of peace did not fall into his particular province, and his successor doubtless a more practical though more prosaic business man, will work effectually upon the foundation already laid to bring the railway to the pitch of perfection necessary to the proper opening up of the country."

A FATAL TRAIN WRECK.

Two Killed and Nine or More Injured in Collision.

Detroit, Nov. 16.—Two passengers were killed and nine or more passengers and trainmen were injured in a rear end passenger train collision tonight, at Elm Dale, on the Pere Marquette R. R. The dead, M. Simons, New York; J. T. Strelitzky, Chicago; Among the injured is a man named Charles of Cuba, N. Y.

The collision occurred at Elm Dale, Quincy, 22 miles east of Grand Rapids. Both trains were east bound. No. 6 for Detroit, and No. 34 for Saginaw. The Saginaw train had preceded the Detroit train out of Grand Rapids, by a few minutes and was standing on a "Y" at Elm Dale, where the Saginaw division branches off from the Detroit division. Through some mistake the switch was not turned behind the Saginaw train and the Detroit train also ran upon the "Y", the engine of the Detroit train crashing into the rear of the parlor car of the Saginaw train.

The passengers killed and injured were in the parlor car of the Saginaw train and the trainmen who were hurt were on the Detroit train.
