MILLIONS INVOLVED IN THE CHADWICK CASE.

This Canadian Woman's Affairs Have Furnished a Series of Sensations Almost Unparalleled—She Has a Private Car Engaged For Her Journey.

New York, Dec. 2.—While it has been officially announced that the claim of one of her largest creditors, the one whose suit brought about all the publicity about her affairs, would be settled, there was no diminution of interest to-day in the case of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, the Cleveland woman whose financial affairs have furnished a series of sensations almost unparalleled.

That all the just debts will be met they still maintain, and at the same time make the announcement that Mrs. Chadwick is still in her suite of rooms at the Holland House, but she has notified the management that she will give up her rooms in a day or two. It is believed that she will quit the city when she will go to her home in Cleveland to be present at the hearing on an application for a receiver for her property, or else she will travel south. It is said that she has engaged a private car for her journey. Much of the popular interest in the case to-day was based upon anticipation.

A DAY AND NIGHT BANK.

New York Financiers Engage in New Project For Convenience Sake.

New York, Dec. 2.—Impressed by the need of an institution where money may be obtained at any hour, prominent New York financiers and commercial men have, it is announced by the Herald, organized the First Night and Day Bank and Safe Deposit company. The names of men prominent in the business and social world appear in the organization committee and the capital stock of $250,000 already has been described. The concern also will have a working surplus of $250,000. The plight in which many travellers of wealth often find themselves because they are unable to draw cash in cases of emergency suggested the organization of the bank. Troubles experienced by a well known man who recently required $2,200 before 11.30 p. m., started the work of organization. The man in question has $27,000 deposited in one downtown bank but only succeeded in raising the sum he needed by the assistance of cashiers in two large uptown hotels.

NEWS FROM ANNAPOLIS.

The Scott Act Regarded as a Failure—A New Industry—Personals.

Annapolis, Dec. 1.—Last Sunday was Temperance Sunday, in the churches here and the traffic in intoxicants was strongly denounced. It may lead to practical efforts to stop its sale. The manner in which the Scott Act is carried out is regarded as a huge failure, and many are averse to any efforts being made to carry out the law, as they claim it cannot be done effectually. What is to be done is a problem not easily solved.

Madrid, Dec. 1.—The heaviest snow storm experienced in Spain in many years lasting nearly thirty hours, has compelled a partial cessation of business. In Madrid street traffic has been stopped, the stores are closed, the markets are without supplies and 20,000 workmen are out of employment. The railways and telegraph lines are utterly disorganized and have sustained much damage. There have been numerous accidents. King Alfonso has ordered that barracks be kept open for the temporary accommodation of sufferers. The Queen Mother, Maria Christina and the mayor of Madrid, have arranged for the release of all winter clothing of the poorer classes in the hands of pawnbrokers. The authorities are taking all possible measures.

The Japanese finding sailors among the Russians dead, believed that if the men from the fleet are employed in making sorties, the complement of the force must be falling short. The fact that the Russians are fortifying the positions available between Liatoff and Mantal mountains increases the belief that they will make their last stand there.

The details of the attack of swordsmen at Port Arthur is unknown here and a difference of opinion exists as to whether any of the attacking parties were armed exclusively with swords. On being questioned, he admitted that perhaps he had a conversation with Lott first. He did not remember Reilly's name. He had never thought Frontenac or West Hastings could be carried by the liberals, but saw nothing suspicious in the statements of Lott and Reilly, that they would go liberal. The entire conversation regarding corruption was of a general character. He condemned corrupt methods and employment of outsiders.
