London, Ont., Dec. 1:-The Grand ed to Exhibit at Opera House was the scene of a historical gathering Tuesday night. Portland, Oregon. Twenty-six years ago, in this city, Portland, Ogn. Dec. 2.—Following Dr. Oronhyatekha was made a member of the I. O. F. It was here that ada will not only be represented here by an adequate exhibit, but will erect a pavilion, thus taking the leadership among the exhibitors.

To-night Dr. Oronhyatekha's coming back was a veritable triumph. The opera house was jammed to the doors, which had to be fastened at It, is believed that Canada's exhibit will be made up mostly of features tending to show the opportunities for the eartheanest of the eartheanest the settlement of the vast homestead lands of Canada, and plans will be taken at Ottawa to head a good percentage of emigration into their commonwealth.

front. Sir John Carling, Mayor Beck, M. P. P., and the leading citizens of the city, together with prominent members of the Order, were upon the platform.

The class to be initiated numbered 987, and they were all present, com ture English Novelist.

Tangiers, Dec. 2.—The Beni-M-Suar tribesmen made a determined attack on the residence of Walter B. Harris, the English writer, last night with the avowed intention of securing him. The mountaineers surrounded the house, stabbed a guard who started to raise an alarm and secured some to 1987, and they were all present, coming from the City of London and surrounding points. The Supreme Chief Ranger was presented with a very kindly address of welcome to his old home, and he replied in an able speech of some length, being heartily applauded at every point.

Speeches were also delivered by Hon. E. G. Stevenson, of Detroit; Hon, W. Montague and Mr. R. D.
