THE WORLD'S COMMERCE IS RAPIDLY GROWING.

This world's commerce in the latest year for which statistics are available is pictured in the annual report of the chief partners of all mations of the world to be in the latest year available, $10,515,000,000 out of a total of $11,800,000 out of an unit of the world of the total imports of all nations, $11,809,000,000 of the world. Thus Europe's total international commerce is the country of destination, it would appear that the actual value of the articles entering into terms $11,000,000,000.

The chief of the Bureau of Statistics also estimates the value of the articles forming the internal commerce of the manufactures, agricultural products, products of the fisheries and forests, etc., and adding thereto the cost of transportation between producer and the first constumer, and thus includes in the estimated value of the internal commerce of the United States and of the United States only a single transaction in each article is included, while in stating the thermal commerce of the world's commercial record which shows the total value of the imports and exports combined as $22,000,000,000 and the world's commerce of the world's commerce of the world which shows the total value of the internal commerce of the world while internal commerce of the world while the internal commerce of the world while in the world's commercial record which shows the total value of the imports and exports combined as $22,000,000,000 and the world's international commerce of the world while the internal commerce of the world while the product of the imports of the caports from Asia amounting to $

SYNOD TALKS TEMPERANCE.

Resolutions Introduced Fovoring Government Control of the Traffic.

Montreal: Oct. 13.—Special)— At this morning's session of the provincial synod, the discussion on the liquor question started yesterday, was continued. Several resolutions were introduced including one by Rev. Mr. promoting all means of temperance reform, and emphasizing the value of the church of England temperance society, as the one means towards this end. The Synod further pledges titself to use all possible means to procure the closing of saloons throughout the dominion and to restrict the number of liquor licenses ssued therein." The question of the new prayerbook was then taken up.
