

FAIRVILLE AND TRINITY PLAY AN EXCITING GAME.

Todd, the Stallion, Shows Wonderful Speed--Twin Sullivan Back From the West--English Fighter After a Match.

The game between Fairville and Trinity, on Saturday afternoon, proved to be much more exciting than anticipated by the spectators. Although it could hardly be called a good display of football, Fairville put much the strongest team in the field, they have had so far to represent them this season, an additional two or three heavier forwards, helping them towards making a draw of the game. Much praise must be given to the Trinity forwards in making the stand they did against much heavier opponents, although their best forward of last week's game, Harrison, was nothing like up to his form of the previous Saturday, he being far too fond of striking the hard work in the "scrum" to enable himself to show up more in the open, a great mistake for any forward to attempt, especially as his side required all the weight they had to hold their heavier opponents.

There was very little to choose between the quarters, and halves on either side, the forwards so seldom heeling out the ball, that neither side had a chance to test the capabilities of their outside men. The first half of the game was spoiled by both teams, being far too fond of disregarding the off side rule, the quarters in particular being the principal offenders. They should remember to keep behind the ball all the time it is in the scrimmage. They have no right to tackle their opposing quarter till the ball has passed out from the feet of the forwards. Another point both teams would do well to remember is that when one of their side has kicked the ball, all those in front of the kicker are offside, till a player of the other side has run five yards with the ball, or unless the kicker put his side, on side; this latter is the way it is always done by teams who are well versed in the up-to-date rules. Another point on this side question from a kick up field, is that offside players must not approach within five yards of the player on the other side, having the ball till he has run five yards with the ball; then they have the right to tackle him, and only then.

The score sheet at the end of the game reading Nil, about represents the relative merits of the two teams.

All St. John were to have had a practice match with Carleton, but owing to both sides turning up with only about half their teams, a practice had to be arranged by getting some of the players of the previous game to turn out a second time.

A good game was the result. The referee being very lenient, enabling both sides to do some good hard running and tackling. Malcolm was in fine fettle, and with a little more practice and knowledge of the rules, should be one of the mainstays of the All St. John team this season.

The commencement of the management's promise, of putting the field into something like shape, by having already raked off the ground, was much appreciated by all in attendance at the Shamrock grounds on Saturday, that they will continue the good work by marking off the field of play for the next match, in the sincere desire of all football enthusiasts.

Other Games.

Mt Allison vs St. Josephs.
J. A. Barry, captain of the St. Joseph's University football team has received word from J. C. Laundry, manager of the college team this year, that Mt. Allison's team defeated them on Saturday afternoon on Mt. Allison's grounds. Score 3-0. It was a well contested game, Mount Allison crossing St. Joseph's line but once. At one time St. Joseph's speedy half, crossed Mt. Allison's line, but Referee Rodes claimed that the ball had been thrown ahead and the boys in blue and gold were doomed to disappointment. The two old rivals will battle again on St. Joseph's campus in the very near future.

Cambridge, Mass. Oct 15.—Although outweighed nearly fifteen pounds at every position, the Harvard freshmen eleven held the Phillips-Exeter team down to two touch downs on Soldiers field today the score being 41 to 0 in favor of the visitors. Exeter scored one touch down in each half. In the first half Harvard got the ball on the kickoff but lost it on downs at the 35 yard line. Exeter then pushed over for a touch down. The second touch down was made in practically the same manner.

Twin Sullivan Home.

Fresh from a successful invasion of the West, Jack (Twin) Sullivan, accompanied by his brother Mike, arrived in town today. Although they were rather tired out after their long journey from Frisco, the Sullivan brothers looked to be in perfect health. Both have been recently in some gruelling contests, but neither bore any mark.

"It's a long trip from Frisco," said Mike, but we didn't mind it very much, as we had each other's company, which in a great measure made the trip seem pleasanter and shorter. We are going back in two weeks, so we are well trained for the next train stunt."

Jack (Twin) has been gone from Boston exactly nine months, and since then has been in nine contests, seven of which have resulted in his favor. His two defeats were administered by Jack O'Brien and Kid McCoy, both of whom he hopes to whip good and plenty when he encounters them again.

Since their departure from the Hub hundreds of Bostonians have been following every move made by the "Sullies." There has been just as much local interest centred in their doings as has been displayed when Jim Jeffries or Bob Fitzsimmons has been doing stunts in the squared circle.—(Boston American, Oct. 13.)

Wants a Fight.

New York, Oct. 15.—Charlie Mitchell, who is still in this country, has received a letter from Jabez White, the English lightweight champion, authorizing Mitchell to arrange a match for him with Jimmy Britt or Young Corbett. White is not averse to having the mill decided here, but prefers England.

White, according to Mitchell, is a fine pugilist, clever and strong. In fact, Mitchell has such an exalted opinion of White's ability that, he says he will back the Englishman for $2,500 any time Britt or Corbett sees fit to take him on. Mitchell will post a forfeit on the acceptance of White's challenge. The English champion suggests that the weight be 133 pounds at the ringside.

What O'Neil's Team Got.

Simultaneous with the winning of the premier honors in the American League by the Bostonians in New York, the Washington team was rewarded with a pennant, emblematic of the cellar championship, for again having carried off the booby honors. George Edward Waddell did the Andrew Carnegie act in generously and graciously presenting to Manager Patsy Donovan, upon his last turn at bat in the first game, a slight memento to the remembrance of the valient, heroic and unremittent efforts of the Washington Baseball Club to retain the bottom position in the American League race, at all hazards.

The emblem bestowed upon the Washington team was the remnants of an American flag, in shreds and tatters, which Rube Waddell says his great-grandfather carried in the Revolutionary War. A quarter section of the flag, which equals the proportion of games won by the Senators out of the total number played during the season. In the first game O'Neil, out of five times at bat, had one run and a hit, nothing else, and in the second game, when Washington won 4 to 3, had one run and no hits.

Todd, a Wonder.

The royally bred young Stallion Todd, owned by Geo. W. Leavitt, of Readville, was started against time at Lexington Ky., recently. Though right out of the stud, and not in condition to carry his wonderful speed, he trotted the mile to a record of 2:14, the last half in 1:06. Todd is one of the best bred and most promising young stallions living. His sire is Bengon (2:06). His dam, Fanella, (2:13), is by Arion (2:07), and produced Sadie Mac (3:21.1) (4) matinee 2:08) to wagon. His second dam is Directress (2:19) by Director 2:17. His third dam is the great brood mare Aloha by A. W. Richmond. He was born at Calais, Me., in the stables of Mayor J. M. Johnson, formerly of this city.

John L's Latest.

John L. Sullivan is now the man behind the bar. Here is a leaf torn from a history of his life in St. Louis:

"What's your pleasure, gents?" "O, anything that's loose," answers gent No. 1, nonchalantly, for he's indeed at that stage. "Suds," says the ex-champion, making a free translation, and then nodding enquiringly in the direction of gent No. 2, he elicits the following reply: "A mint julep."

"A what?" asks the ex-champion, suddenly regaining consciousness. "A mint julep," repeats gent No. 2.

"Naw," says John L., reprovingly. "You don't want no mint julep. You want a mint beer, and that's what you're going to get."

Whereupon gent No. 2 submits to the inevitable.—Boston Herald.

LORD ROBERTS AT PAARDEBERG

He Revisited the Scene of Cronje's Surrender and Found Relics of the Battle.

Cape Town, Oct. 15.—Lord Roberts relighted the Battle of Paardeberg last week, but his advance upon Cronje's laager was made in a motor car instead of with three divisions of infantry. The Commander-in-chief was keenly interested in the famous battleground, although greatly surprised at its altered appearance. There was even some trouble, at first, in locating several well-remembered incidents. Herds of springbok have invaded the Paardeberg drift, and its battle scars are well hidden.

Lord Roberts found, after some difficulty, the site of his headquarters on that eventful February morning when Gen. Cronje surrendered himself after stubborn resistance. He related the incidents of the surrender to the members of his party. Lord Roberts also traced the advance made by Gen. Smith-Dorrien's division on Feb. 26, and the subsequent night attack in which the Canadians lost heavily. Half buried in the veldt Lord Roberts discovered a number of rusty meat tins, souvenirs of the "alarm signals" devised by the Boers. These tins had been strung on wire some distance in front of the trenches, and the enemy were thus warned of night attacks.

Many other relics of the battle were discovered—fragments of shells, human bones, and cartridges; while in one of the trenches a Boer boy unearthed and proudly brought to Lord Roberts a rust-covered bayonet. Lord Roberts spent two hours on the battlefield, and eventually walked around the inner trenches. His visit created great curiosity among the Boers. Some of Cronje's old men who had fought the British in Paardeberg followed the party at a respectful distance.

On the journey to and from Kimberley there were many expressions of good-will on the part of the residents. Several of the Boer farmers displayed Union Jacks, and in visit the Commander-in-Chief to visit them.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

A council of the Knights of Columbus has been organized in St. John, and a meeting of the charter members was held yesterday afternoon in the hall of Branch 134, C. M. B. A., Union street.

The following officers were elected: W. J. Mahoney, Grand Knight; Dr. T. H. Lunney, Deputy Grand Knight; John F. Gleeson, Fin. Secy.; D. J. Doherty, Treasurer; Geo. V. McInerney, Chancellor; Harry O'Neill, Recorder; Harry O. McInerney, Lecturer; Edmund S. Ritchie, Advocate; Geo. Lundy, Warden; John M. Elmore, Inside Guard; Frank Curran, Outside Guard; J. J. McGaffigan, W. E. Scully, and John Kelly, board of trustees.

J. J. McGaffigan had charge of the preliminary arrangements, acting for J. D. Anderson, Eastport. Mr. Anderson arrived in the city Saturday night and completed arrangements at yesterday's meeting. There are a number of charter members in the province, but the majority are St. John men.

Mr. Anderson stated that from present indications there would be five or six hundred visiting Knights here at the time of the initiation; many of whom will come from various parts at the United States.

A committee has been appointed to provide entertainment for the visitors.

A vote of thanks was tendered to J. D. Anderson and J. J. McGaffigan at yesterday's meeting. Mr. Anderson will probably return to the city for a couple of weeks to make further arrangements for the institution of the new council.

The show provided at the York Theatre for this week is up to the high standard of the past three weeks and there are novelties in abundance. Valding Bros. gymnasts, have an excellent act and perform with an ease and grace that is charming. Ferguson and Murphy, the Irish comedians, are sure to score a hit. Billy Hines, is a high class wooden shoe dancer, with a great reputation.
