CORBETT AND "BATTLING NELSON" FIGHT TONIGHT.

They Will Go Twenty Rounds at San Francisco --- Corbett Favored in the Betting---The Fasig Tipton Horse Sale ---Basket Ball and Other Sports.

THE RING.

Newfoundland Boxers.

The St. John's, Nfld., Telegram says:— Mike Shallow, the famous Newfoundland pugilist, is "keeping busy on the other side of the Atlantic. Only the other day he defeated a well known boxer in a round and his trainer would not let him go up against the "smaller fry" who would like to become famous. The next pitted against Shallow was heavy-weight Sgt. Harris, who for years past has been champion of the British Army and Navy. The fight came off last week and Shallow finished up his opponent in the third round. "Jeff" may yet find a worthy opponent in a son of Terra Nova, and ere long there may be no further need of scouring the west to look for a burly farmer's son to fight him.

Jordan & Palmer, Matched.

Now that Ben Jordan and Pedlar Palmer have signed articles for a fifteen round contest at St. 12 lbs., followers of the "noble art" have something to look forward to. They will strive for supremacy and £500 at the National Sporting club on December 12th. Palmer has certainly benefited by his trip to South Africa and has lost none of the cleverness that earned him the name "The Box of Tricks," yet the writer must own to a leaning towards Jordan's chances.

The Dave Barry vs. J. Costello bout, at the National Sporting club, on Monday, was disappointing, the former, hailing from the United States, winning an uninteresting bout.

Corbett a Favorite.

Young Corbett and Battling Nelson will meet tonight at San Francisco in a 20 round go.

Young Corbett is a popular favorite here, by reason of his interesting personality as well as his demonstrated willingness to fight anybody at any time, and all down the line it's safe betting that the "real ones" want the little Denverite to beat this battling Dane.

Not from any animosity to the hard hitting, game newcomer, but principally from a desire to have Young Corbett put himself in a position where one James Britt cannot popular. About the second game I pitched at the club I made a long hit myself and got just the same measure of applause as a player on the other team did when he took my measure. I soon learned that was something peculiar to Boston and to no other city. There visiting and home players are treated exactly alike. I wish it might be that way in every city in both the American and National leagues. Home players like appreciation, but no more than the members of the visiting team. Applause is as much a stimulant for one as the other and should be accorded without regard to a man's uniform."

WHIST.

Whist Tournament.

The Thistle Curling Club and the Neptune Rowing Club concluded their whist tournament last night. The "Knights of the Stave" came out ahead by the small margin of two points. When both sides sat down to play, last night, the Neptunes had a lead of ten points, but the Thistle succeeded in winning by making twelve.

The scores of the respective teams were as follows:

Thistles	Won.	Lost
Olive and Chesley	20	0
Palmer and Myles	10	0
Sharp and Patterson	9	7
McClelland and Burpee	4	19
Stevens and Bishop	0	25

Neptunes. Won. Lost.
Merrill and Hanington 13 0
Day and Campbell 17 5
E. Everett and C. Everett 16 20
Robinson and Macrae 4 13
Hogan and Foster 1 15
51 53

CARDS.

Cribbage Defi.

William Gillespie and Robert Read, dispute the statement that R. Callahan and Patrick Long of the Ship Laborer's Union Club and the champion Cribbage players of the Union and hereby challenge them for a series of games for fun or money.

BILLIARDS.

Crack Billiardists.

The doings of Dawson, Stevenson and Roberts are being watched with much interest just now. Dawson was badly beaten in his match with Reece receiving 2,750, who reached his points, 9,000, when the scratchman's total was 7,608. Roberts did even worse against T. Aiken, at Edinburgh, the Scotch champion, in receipt of 3,000, scoring 6,000 while Roberts made 6,644 Roberts is trying to concede Reece 2,750 points start in 9,000 this week, and it will

BASEBALL.

Charley Nichols Talks.

"In the first game I pitched for Boston Nationals," says Charley Nichols, "the thing that impressed me most was the cheering for the visiting players when they hit me for a double or a triple or a home run. That isn't the way in the West, unless the home team happens to be un-be interesting to note if he proves successful where Dawson failed. The last-named is playing well against Inman, while Stevenson is showing to advantage against Heiss, at the time of writing.

CRICKET.

Famous Cricketer Dead.

The sudden death of J. T. Brown, the famous Yorkshire bat, in London on Saturday, came as a shock to the sporting world. The deceased was a very steady batsman, a brilliant field and above the average as a bowler. As a matter of fact his first engagement with a Scottish club, was as a trundler. Brown will perhaps be best known as the joint holder, with J. Tunncliffe, of the record for the first wicket. This is 554, against Derbyshire in 1898.

HOCKEY.

Moncton Getting Ready.

E. W. Ferguson has been elected secretary of the Moncton local hockey league.

Twelve games will be played, two every Thursday night until the series is ended. Some good games are expected this season at the smoky town.

BASKET BALL.

Blues 25, Reds 4.

At the Y. M. C. A. building last night two teams of the senior basketball league, played a very interesting game before a large number of spectators. The score at the end of the game stood 23 for the Blues, Reds 4.

Forwards.

Blues	Reds.
F. Gilmore	H. Stone
H. Heans	F. McGaw

Defence.

F. Horseman	T. Smith
C. Brown	H. Smith

The scoring was done by Gilmour: 14 points; Heans, 5 points; Dobson, 4 points; Emery, 2 points; McGaw, 2 points.

THE TURF.

Fasig Tipton Sale.

At the New York horse sale Tuesday, John M., 2,024, best campaigning pacer of the year was bought by Mrs. E. D. Rice, Boston, for $4,400; Betty Green, 2,094, to W. J. Berry, Boston, for $550; Paul D. Kelly, the young yearling pacer with a record of 2:20 1/2 went to W. J. Berry, New York, for $700; Wentworth, 2,08, was bought by Thos. Devlin, Jr. New York, for $2,500; Nathan Straus bought the matinee winner, Ida Highwoods, 2,08 1/2, at $2,000. Queen Wilkie, for many years the queen of the Speedway, went to Brooklyn for $1,050. Sphinx S., 2,05 1/2, was struck off at $1,000, but George Speer, Mr. Smother's trainer, gave the buyer a small advance and kept the Speedway champion.

Treated by Three Doctors

FOR A

Severe Attack

of Dyspepsia.

Got No Relief from Medicines, But Found it at Last in Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. Frank Hutt, Morrisburg, Ont., was one of those troubled with this most common of stomach troubles. She writes:—"After being treated by three doctors, and using many advertised medicines for a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and receiving no benefit, I gave up all hope of ever being cured. Hearing Burdock Blood Bitters so highly spoken of, I decided to get a bottle and give it a trial. Before I had taken it I began to feel better, and by the time I had taken the second one I was completely cured. I cannot recommend Burdock Blood Bitters too highly, and would advise all sufferers from dyspepsia to give it a trial."

The evening sale was replete with sensations. Nora McKinney, 2,124, the well known Speedway and matinee trotter, sold for the big price of $11,000. William Simpson, owner of her sire, was the buyer. Monte Carlo, 2,074, her stable mate, brought only $4,500. Alexander, 2,094, went to C. K. G. Billings, at $5,000. Admiral Dewey, 2,144 brought $6,000; Dan T., 2,074, went to Geo. Levy, Philadelphia, for $810; and Effie Powers, 2,084, the famous half mile track mare went to M. W. Savage, Minneapolis, for $875; Blue Hill, trotter, b. c., 1904, Bingen—Iva Dee, by Onward, was bought by J. M. Johnson, Calais, Me., for $950.

On Saturday, W. J. Furbush's Satan, 2,134, was sold to J. McGwire, the New York horse dealer, for $500. The best price of the evening sale was $1,200, paid by J. G. Allen of New York, for the nine-year-old pacer Brown Heels, 2,094.

While the sale was in progress a topic of much interest to horsemen was furnished by the private sale of the three-year-old filly Alta Axworthy, second only to Grace Bond on the list of winning three-year-old fillies, for 1904. The sale was made to Louis W. Winans of Brighton, England, and the price paid was $13,000. Alta Axworthy later will be taken to the Continental race courses of Austria and France, where she will be campaigned.

Horse Notes.

Most horsemen were surprised that Grace Bond brought less at auction than did Sadie Mac.

Lou Dillon (2:01) is through for the season. Will she reach the two-minute mark next year?

A 2-year-old colt, by Chimes, out of Kentucky Union (2:07 1/2) is now owned by J. J. Scannell.

A year ago Sidney Dillon would have brought three times the $9000 paid for him at auction last week.

Elyria (2:25 1/2) now has $1 performers to his credit. He is the leading son of Mambrino King in this respect.

The dam of Tiverton (2:04 1/2) is to be bred to McKinney (2:11 1/2), sire of his great rival, Sweet Marie (2:04 1/2).

Now that Mr. Billings owns Major Delmar, perhaps that controversy over Lou Dillon's record of 2:01 will die out.

It has been announced that Fanella (2:13) will be sent to Patchen Wilkes farm and bred back to Sadie Mac's sire, Peter the Great (2:07 1/2).

The unbeaten 4-year-old trotter, Tom Axworthy, looks to be a bargain at $4100. Jack Axworthy (2-year-old record 2:15 1/2) also looks cheap at $3300.

CYCLING.

Michael's Funeral.

New York, Nov. 28.—The body of Jimmy Michael, the Welsh bicycle rider who died suddenly a week ago on board the steamship LaSavoie, will be buried in Green wood cemetery tomorrow afternoon. In accordance with the cable request of the mother of the deceased, P. T. Powers today made arrangements for the burial of the body in this country. The funeral services will be held at the undertaking rooms and all the foreign riders who are now here to take part in the six day race in Madison Square garden next week, will attend the obsequies.

A Bloated Stomach

Distension and pains from indigestion are cured quickly by Nerviline. When you get an attack of stomach trouble take a stiff dose of Nerviline, which is perfectly harmless but marvellously quick in effecting a lasting cure. "I was once taken ill with stomach" writes Edward Rowell of Rochester. "I was in great pain and distress but half a teaspoonful of Nerviline fixed me up in a few minutes. I can recommend Nerviline for sick headache and cramps and consider it an invaluable household remedy." Try it yourself. Price 25c.

Six Englishmen who have been living in the northwest for the past four years arrived in the city today and are on their way home to England to spend Christmas. They all say that they have been prosperous in the west. In two or three cases the returning immigrants will be accompanied to Canada by their families.
