SIR F. W. BORDEN ENTERTAINED.

Cambridge, Mass. Dec. 19.—Sir Frederick, W. Borden, minister of militia and defence of the Dominion of Canada, was the guest of the Canadian Club of Harvard University at a dinner and reception Saturday night. Although the Canadian Club was the entertaining organization all members of the university who are British subjects were invited and a large gathering was present. The dinner was held at the Colonial Club. No set speeches were made, and Sir Frederick's remarks were entirely informal. After the hosts and their guest went to the Harvard Union where an informal reception and a "smoker" were held.

Despite the inclement weather there was a large tongregation present at both services. Prof. Magill congratulated the congregation on the fact of the church being re-opened and that it was now an edifice with an interior more beautiful than ever. He had never had the privilege of being in the church before, but could readily appreciate its many advantages. It was very commodious and he believed that a speaker would experience in every part of the building.

God did not love shabby, poor places on worship. In former days it was thought that extreme simplicity in this respect was pleasing to the Almighty, but there was an oreason why the congregation of St. David's could not continue to worship.
