A COMING WEDDING.

An interesting event will take place at Halifax on next Thursday when A. H. Lindsay, of the I. C. R. advertising department will be wedded to Miss Emily C. Vail, daughter of the late Dr. E. A. Vail, of Sussex. Miss Vail is a sister of Mrs. J. G. Rainnie of Halifax, and has been a professional nurse at Boston. Mr. Lindsay is well and favorably known in St. John as a former member of the Globe staff, and his many friends extend to him their best wishes.

FELL TO DEATH
UNDER WHEELS.

C. P. R. Brakeman Lost His Life at Brownville Junction, Saturday.

An exceptionally sad fatality occurred at Brownville Jct., on Saturday night, when John Morrison, a brakeman on the C. P. R. lost his life. As the train was running into Brownville Jct., the unfortunate man left the van and after passing over a flat car started to climb a box car. In so doing he missed his footing and fell down between the wheels. His right leg arm and side were crushed terribly and when found he was dead. Morrison was a man of about 26 years old and was unmarried. He had been on the road for about a year and was highly esteemed by all. Conductor McCann was in charge of the train.

A MEAN THIEF.

Stole Money From the Salvation Army Barracks.

A report is circulated to the effect that the Salvation Army barracks at Carleton was broken into on Saturday night and $30 in money stolen. Entrance was effected through the rear, the burglars breaking in a window. The money stolen was principally in silver and the thieves ignored a silver watch and chain, no doubt presuming that it might lead to their detection. The Carleton officers are working on the case.

OBITUARY.

Abner Smith.

The death of Abner Smith took place suddenly Monday morning, at his home Middle Sackville. Death was due to heart failure. He was engaged in the boot and shoe business for a long time, but sold out to his son James. He was seventy-five years old and leaves four daughters and two sons.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of William J. Ramage, took place yesterday afternoon, from his mother's residence, Princess street to the cathedral, where Rev. Father Carleton conducted the services. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery. A number of employees from Macaulay Bros., with which firm deceased was employed, attended the funeral and the staff of Vassie & Co. was also represented.

The funeral of Mrs. Albert A. Jones took place at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon, from her late residence, Main street. Burial was at Fernhill cemetery. Rev. R. P. McKim officiated. The body of Mrs. Jas. Clarke, who died in Boston, arrived in Fairville today on the noon train. It was taken from the station to Greenwood cemetery for burial. Rev. W. H. Sampson officiated.

POLICE COURT.

A sleepy looking quartette occupied the prisoner's bench at the police court this morning. They had drained the cup of joyfulness to its dregs, and as a natural consequence were somewhat "under the weather."

Felix Holland, drunk on St. John Street was fined $8 or thirty days hard labor.

John McGinty who backed his capacity against his thirst became weary of his load and sought repose on Erin street. He was discovered by officer Bowes who thought that the weather was too severe for air treatment, and had his man driven in state to more comfortable and secluded quarters. He was fined $8 or thirty days hard labor.

James Sheehan who had been taking spirits down to keep his spirits up, was arrested on Erin street by Sgt. Campbell and officer Bowes, and added $8 to the public treasury.

Edward Byron had also been indulging too freely in the "Barley Bree" and was fined $8 or thirty days.

George Mases a native of Syria got drunk and thought he owned Brussels street. He was also impressed with the idea that he could do what he liked as long as he was in company with others. Officer Bowes, however failed to agree with George and after considerable difficulty placed him under arrest. He was charged with drunkenness and was fined $8 for each charge.

CHRISTMAS DAY PASSED PLEASANTLY IN ST. JOHN.

The Weather Was Good, Attractions Were Plentiful and Everyone Had a Good Time—Many Presentations Expressed the Spirit of the Season.

Christmas has come and gone and is now as far away as ever. The holiday was marked by the usual number of presentations, and expressions of goodwill. In all the charitable institutions, a good time was indulged in, and the theatres and rinks were also well patronized by those seeking enjoyment.

In the opera house the Dailey company presented "Our New Minister" to very large audiences, both afternoon and evening.

The York theatre had the S. R. O. sign out at both performances, when they presented a varied vaudeville programme.

In the Queens and Victoria rinks a large crowd was present and enjoyed the good skating and band music. The Curling rink also had a good attendance of enthusiasts.

There was a very enjoyable entertainment in the Seamen's Institute last evening. The men from the various steamers in port being there in large numbers. The hall was tastefully decorated and songs and recitations contributed by seamen. Coffee and cake was provided.

The children of the Protestant Orphan Asylum enjoyed a Christmas dinner Sunday, and yesterday two Christmas trees were provided for the little ones.

The Boys' Industrial School at Silver Falls, was visited by the members of the Father Mathew Association, accompanied by Rev. Fr. Conaghan, yesterday, and on enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent. The 103 boys of the institution all received gifts.

A very enjoyable time was indulged in at the Alms House yesterday, full particulars of which will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Yesterday the Christmas dinner was served to the inmates of the hospital for Nervous Diseases, and turkey, vegetables of all kinds, and plum pudding formed the time honored and substantial fare provided. In the evening a dance was given and all the staff and about 200 patients were present.

A Christmas tree was provided for the inmates of the School for the deaf, at Lancaster, which was much enjoyed.

In the Salvation Army shelter, yesterday, about thirty men were given a Christmas feast. In the afternoon Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Sharp tendered the city officers and their children a turkey dinner and Christmas tree in the headquarters residence. There were presents for everyone and the little ones and adults were made happy. Among the many presentations, expressive of good fellowship were the following:

Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond, rector of St. Mary's church, was on Christmas eve, presented with a handsome fur coat, as a token of the respect and good will of his congregation.

Bart Murphy, wine clerk, at the Park hotel was yesterday the recipient of a gold watch and chain from a number of friends.

The waiters in the Royal hotel, presented to F. A. Wright, head waiter, on Saturday night, a pair of fur-lined gloves. The bell boys of the Royal also gave T. B. Reynolds, the clerk a pair of fur-lined gloves.

W. Allan Black, proprietor of the Clifton House, was presented on Christmas eve with a beautiful bronze clock. Frank Peters made the presentation.

C. J. Milligan, manager of the Victoria hotel, remembered each of his assistants in tangible style.

The staff of Neal Seely, the German street tailor, presented him with a pair of gold cuff links.

Geo. D. Frost, was presented by some of his brother travellers with a well filled purse.

The borders in the Newport House Germain street, presented to the proprietors, the Misses McManus, a beautiful silver pitcher.

Chas. H. Hutchings was presented with a handsome piece of furniture by his employees. Each of the employees received a cash Christmas gift as usual from the firm.

The members of No. 1 company, Boy's Brigade, presented Rev. T. P. Fotheringham with a fountain pen. Mrs. Fotheringham was also remembered. At the same time the boys presented to Capt. Smith, of the company, a writing stand. Capt. Smith in his turn made 1st Lieutenant.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

One of the happiest Christmas reunions in this city was at the home of John Russell, Sr., on Peters street. Besides his sons, James V. Russell and John Russell, Jr., of this city, and his daughters, Mrs. Barnes and Miss Russell, there were present David Russell of Montreal, and W. H. K. Russell of Vancouver. Nine grandchildren of Mr. Russell were also around him. Messrs. David and W. H. K. Russell left for the west on the C. P. R. express last evening.

Among those who came in on the steamer Lake Manitoba yesterday were R. C. Dunbar, of Hansard staff, Ottawa, Mrs. Dunbar and their two children. They had been in England over three months. Mr. Dunbar was for ten years on the staff of the Toronto Globe. The party left for Ottawa last evening.

C. E. Laechler of the Eastern S. S. Co., returned to Boston by last night's train.

Stanley Elkin, who spent Christmas at home, left for Boston last evening. He is travelling in New England, with headquarters in Boston.

Mrs. E. P. Logan will be at home to her friends on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 28th, at 171 Bridge St.

20TH CENTURY OVERCOATS

Are Very Different from Ordinary Overcoats.

It seems as if the majority of Overcoats were made simply to cover the body without any thought of HOW they cover it.

That's just where 20th Century Overcoats are different.

Their first purpose is to protect the body from exposure.

They accomplish that purpose admirably, because the fabrics are all wool, and at the same time they have a style, grace and individuality that are distinctly theirs.

Examine them and you will see how well 20th Century Overcoats are tailored. Note how neatly the collar fits; see how gracefully the coat hangs from the shoulders, giving ample room at the knee.

The whole garment seems a part of the man.

Only faultless clothing fits that way.

Wear a 20th Century-Overcoat and You'll be Properly Attired.

We Can Supply You at $10.00 to $22.00.
