HIGH TEA AND SALE.

Ladies of St. Peter's Will Hold Their Annual Sale Tonight --- List of Those in Charge.

Great preparations are being made in St. Peter's Hall, north end, for the high tea and sale, which opens this evening. The ladies are busily engaged transforming the stalls into bowers of beauty.

On entering the hall, the juvenile visitor will be attracted to the fish pond at the right. Having had sport out of this, they will cross the hall, and have a dish of ice-cream, or a refreshing drink. A doll table will also catch the eyes of the girls. Ladies will find that the fancy table will contain many things of which they stand in need. A supper booth which is enclosed in a hedge of green and white, with spiral pillars of pink and white, and decorated with Autumn leaves, is in charge of Mrs. Delaney. The idea is a most effective one, and reflects great credit on the designer Miss Ruth Stanton. On the opposite side of the hall, another supper booth is to be found, which is prettily decorated in green and white and is in charge of Miss Lynch. Mayor White will be present at the opening tonight, and the City Cornet band will furnish music. The sale will be continued each evening until Thursday. The following ladies have charge of the booths—Pink and white table, Mrs. Delaney, Mrs. Mahony, Mrs. Loyd, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Savage, Mrs. James, Mrs. Kierion, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. Covay, Miss Dever, Miss Harrison, Miss McGarrigle, Miss McPeake, Miss Corkery, Misses Gillen, Miss Delaney, Miss Gallagher, Miss McMann, Miss Stanton and Miss McQuade.

Green and white table—Miss Lynch, Miss Carlin, Miss McCluskey, Miss Louisa Harrington, Miss Burns, Miss Driscoll, Miss McMillan, Miss Murray, Miss Morgan, Miss Dimmick, Miss Ellis, Miss Quinn, Miss Gormely, Miss Maher, Miss Lang, Miss Sherman, Miss McDade, Mrs. Wm. Doherty, Mrs. Wm. Dalton, Mrs. J. McCarthy, Mrs. K. Cotter, Mrs. D. Doherty, Mrs. Thomas Hursley and Mrs. M. Quigg.

The proceeds of the tea will go towards the church funds.

AND STILL HE SLEPT.

Charlie Diggs, the well known and popular "commercial traveller," was very sleepy Saturday night. So sleepy, in fact, that he refused to leave the land of dreams even after some malicious and envious rival sought to destroy the architectural beauty of the front of Diggs' ancestral mansion by a liberal application of Kerosene, oil and matches to his front steps.

The varlet poured oil on the steps and applied his match.

Diggs slept.

The tiny spark became a flame.

Diggs slept on.

The flame grew and threatened to become a conflagration.

Still Diggs slept.

Suddenly, across the street a man appeared.

Diggs continued to sleep.

He was a dark man. His name was Jackson.

Diggs snored.

Jackson saw the fire. He got a pail of water. Police officer Totten appeared. They extinguished the fire and knocked on Diggs' door.

Diggs snored louder.

Totten used his baton on the door.

Diggs woke up.

"Wha 'fa' you wake me up dis hour ob de night eh?" ejaculated the sleepy Diggs.

The officer explained matters.

Diggs said the fire was set by other commercial travellers who were jealous of his success.

The officer said he thought so too.

Diggs went back to bed.

The policeman went away and as his bulky form disappeared in the distance there came from the rear of the Diggs' chateau the wailing plaintive strains of that popular ballad, Please Go 'Way and Let Me Sleep.

Then there was silence.

Deep silence.

Diggs was asleep again.

THE POLICE COURT.

The Usual Drunks and an Assault Case Dealt With This Morning --- Liquor Case This Afternoon.

At the police court this morning, James Boyd charged with drunkenness was sentenced to a fine of $8 or thirty days hard labor.

Abraham Beamish charged with drunkenness and resisting and assaulting and kicking Officer Crawford and tearing his coat, deposited $100. The case stands until Wednesday.

William Herriek drunk on Pond street deposited $88.

The case of Winslow Webster, a cripple, against Leonard Peters for assault came before the police magistrate this morning. It seems that on Saturday a number of small boys had gathered in front of Peter's store on City Road and were causing some trouble. As Peter's ran from the store to disperse the crowd, he stumbled over Webster, who claimed that he had been assaulted.

The magistrate thought that no further inquiry be made into the matter, and the case was allowed to stand.

The case against the Hotel Edward for selling liquor after hours came up this afternoon.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY FREE!

A big fat turkey given away at Price's drug store, Corner Union and St. Patrick streets. If you want a Thanksgiving turkey look in at Price's window.

The Polymorphous club will meet at their rooms, Haymarket Square, this evening, at 8 o'clock, to draw up bye-laws. A full attendance is requested.

ST. JOHN HAS THE FIRST BIG STORM OF THE SEASON.

Telegraph Wires Down Between Hoyt and Fredericton Junction --- Wind Blew 40 Miles an Hour and the Sleet and Rain Made it Disagreeable.

A severe storm, which has moved with great rapidity up the United States Atlantic coast, broke, in all its fury, here, this morning, from the north east.

Storm signals were ordered up on Sunday morning from the lakes to the maritime provinces. Rain began falling about 6 o'clock, last evening. The heaviest fall occurred between midnight and 2 o'clock this morning, after that it turned to sleet and snow. The fall of rain and melted snow up to noon today amounted to one inch.

The gale which set in from the north east, at 2 o'clock, this morning, has since been increasing in velocity and at 11 o'clock it was blowing at the rate of 40 miles an hour. The barometer fell very rapidly and reached its lowest reading of 28.60, at 8 o'clock, this morning. The storm in the west is most severe with a heavy sleet falling.

The telegraph wires are all down between Hoyt and Fredericton Junction, and news services are accordingly crippled.

The C. P. R. trainmen report that the telegraph poles are down in a number of places along their line. At 9 o'clock this morning the reports came that a heavy north east gale is blowing with snow flurries, with the thermometer at 34.

Vehicles caught out in the gale will no doubt have a hard time of it. Quite a number are due here from

United States ports, loaded with coal. The Donaldson line steamer Tritonia which left here yesterday morning at 5.30 for Glasgow via Halifax will have it hard along the Nova Scotia coast.

No news of any marine disasters have come to hand as yet. The small fishermen along the coast took the warning put out by the meteorological department, and most of them remained in port.

Storm signal No. 2 was ordered down at one o'clock and No. 4 ordered up in its place indicating gale first from the westward.

Around the city the wind storm played havoc with trees, and a number of sign boards were blown down. Signals for a tug were hoisted on the customs house at 12.30. The tug Lord Roberts responded and went to the assistance of a small schooner in distress off Shad Rocks. She was towed safely into port.

The storm, at 2.30 showed no signs of abatement and the velocity of the wind at 3 o'clock had increased to 45 miles an hour.

The storm delayed the maritime express 40 minutes, the Atlantic express, 45 minutes; and the Boston 4 hours and 20 minutes.

In Halifax.

Halifax, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—A south east storm was very severe here last night and today it is raining hard. So far no reports of damage have been received.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

J. B. M. Baxter, one of the library commissioners, interviewed by a Times reporter today said that the commissioners of the Free Public Library have been occupying the building, but it has not been formally handed over to the library board, owing to preparatory arrangements. In connection with the institution, when Dr. Daniel was mayor, a request for a grant was sent to Andrew Carnegie. The reply was received that a donation of $50,000 would be made, contingent on the city assessing itself for $5,000 a year for maintenance. The plans of the committee of the common council and the whole question of the finishing of the building was between the contractors and the common council. The library board had nothing whatever to do with it.

A meeting of the library commission will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, to fix a date for the formal opening of the institution.

"There is considerable talk about delay," said Mr. Baxter, "but the people do not understand the amount of work entailed in properly arranging for the opening."

WILL GO TO THE FAIR.

The cheques for the winners in the student's World's fair competition are on exhibition in the windows of the International correspondence school on King street, and were awarded to the students who brought in the largest number of new students during July, August and September. Fourteen prizes were awarded to in the St. John district which includes the Maritime provinces. The only local winner was B. Ring of the west and who secured 11. Mr. Simonson of Yarmouth N. S. headed the list with 19.

A TRURO APPOINTMENT.

Truro, N. S., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Melville Cumming, son of Rev. Thomas Cumming, Salt Springs, has been appointed principal of the college at Truro, the appointment to take effect Jan. 1st.

In Fredericton.

Fredericton, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—About three inches of snow fell here early this morning and was followed later by rain. The river at this point is clogged with ice and slush. Flag pole on city hall was blown down during the storm.

Steamer Yarmouth is expected this afternoon to take the place of the Prince Rupert on the Digby route.

NOVA SCOTIA'S NEW BISHOP.

Says the War is a Disgrace to the Century.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—His Lordship Bishop Worrell preached in St. Luke's Church yesterday morning, and in St. Paul's last evening. The churches were crowded on both occasions, and his lordship's sermons were listened to with marked attention, by both congregations. At St. Paul's his lordship took occasion to refer to the situation in the far east, where two great nations are battling for supremacy. This he said, was a disgrace to the century. Think of this, in this 20th century of ours—one of the recent engagements being described as the bloodiest of battles in history. His lordship made a very favorable impression.

The total liberal majority in Nova Scotia in the recent elections was 8425.

OBITUARY.

George R. Davis.

Of the death of George R. Davis, formerly of St. John, the Mail and Empire of Friday says:—

"George R. Davis, of the Davis Speciality Company, 52 Adelaide Street east, expired suddenly at his residence, 126 Kenilworth Avenue, last night. Deceased had been in high spirits that afternoon and appeared to be in the best of health. He sat down to dinner and suddenly leaned over. His wife caught him before he fell, but he was apparently unconsciously. Dr. Fraser was immediately called and pronounced him dead through heart failure. Mr. Davis was a native of St. John N. B., and had been in the city about two years. He had a large number of friends, and is survived by his widow, three sons, Alfred, Cornelius and George Oliver, and two daughters, Mrs. George Bridges, Toronto, and Mrs. McFell, of Salisbury, N.
