

Want Ads. inserted in The TIMES, yield results. Try one and be convinced.

WEATHER--North to north-west gales, clearing by night, tomorrow.

VOL. I., NO. 99.

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1905.

ONE CENT.

THE GREYS IN MONTREAL.

Various Institutions Visited by Governor General Today--His Time Well Taken Up.

Montreal, Jan. 25.--(Special)--Their Excellencies had clear, cold weather for their second day in Montreal, which was filled with a round of visits to public institutions that kept them busy all the morning, starting at ten o'clock and will not leave them time to rest till ten o'clock tonight.

The afternoon will be occupied with visits to the Grey Nunnery, the Church Home, Victorian Order of Nurses, and Y. W. C. A. concluding with dinner at the Windsor at eight o'clock.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

Candidates for Civic Elections --Mrs. Magee's Funeral-- Government Meeting.

Fredricton, N. B., Jan. 25.--(Special)--The remains of the late Mrs. J. Valentine Magee were taken to Memramook by this morning's train for interment.

The local government will hold a meeting here early next week and will probably fix the date of the meeting of the legislature.

The thermometer registered thirty below zero here last night.

ONTARIO ELECTIONS.

Heavy Vote and Much Interest the Features of Today's Contest.

Toronto, Jan. 25.--(Special)--The provincial elections are being held throughout Ontario today.

The review case of Morris Scovill against Chas. L. Slipp came up for argument before Chief Justice Tuck, in Supreme Court chambers this afternoon.

Mr. Scovill has a large farm at Gagetown on which he pastures his own and other cattle.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Wm. Vaughan took place this morning at 11 o'clock.

The funeral of Michael Matthews who died in Carleton, yesterday morning, will probably take place on Friday afternoon.

BOLD THIEVES WERE ABROAD LAST NIGHT.

One of the most daring robberies that has ever taken place in St. John, was perpetrated last night under the very eyes of the police.

Louis Green, the King street tobacconist mourns the loss of a pung sleigh, a horse a set of harness and a pair of fur gloves, which were taken from his barn on Peter's street.

Mr. Green told the Times today that the horse and other missing articles were placed in the barn at six o'clock last night.

ROYALTY IN AUTO SMASH.

King Alfonso's Choo-choo Car Proves Unruly and Dumps Party Out.

New York, Jan. 25.--A Madrid despatch to the Herald says--Queen Christina went out driving with her son King Alfonso in an automobile today (Tuesday) on the Prado and met with an accident.

THE GLOBE TROTTERS.

They Will Call on Mayor White This Afternoon--Not Permitted to Work.

Lampriere and Gerolim, the French globe trotters are located at the Cumberland house. They appear to be favorably impressed with this city and will remain here until Saturday morning.

Asked today as to their mode of sustenance Gerolim said, "one particular proviso is that we do no work except on steamers, when on an ocean voyage. Then we have to work. While we are on land we are not allowed to do any work."

On their tour, the two young men present their cards, and you can give as you like for the souvenirs. The cards present on one side pictures of the two adventures and are about the size of a private postal card.

The two young men will call on Mayor White this afternoon and secure the mayor's certificate of their visit to this city.

A BURNS NIGHT.

Clan Mackenzie Will Celebrate Poet's Memory in York Theatre Tonight.

Tonight in York Theatre assembly rooms, Clan Mackenzie, No. 96 will celebrate the one hundred and forty-sixth anniversary of Robert Burns.

The programme is as follows:-- The Pipes. The Chief. Kindred Societies. Mr. Lanyon. Gae bring to me a pint o' wine.

Mr. Arnott. There was a lad was born in Kyle. Address. Mrs. D'Lang. The Immortal Memory of Robert Burns.

The dance list consists of 16 numbers with 2 supper extras, the whole to conclude with a grand march.

MR. HOWARD TALKS.

In talking with the Times, Mr. Howard of the Neptune hockey team this morning, said that the charge made against him of backing out of the team was unfair, as he had informed the members of the team that he would not be able to play this season, but he consented to play the first game simply to help them out.

CHATHAM NEWS.

Chatham, Jan. 25.--(Special)--The friends of Mrs. Richards, wife of J. Howard Richards secretary of the Williams Richards Company, were shocked to hear of her sad death which occurred at her home at Boiestown last night.

The government thermometer registered twenty four below last night.

HUNGRY WOMEN ARE CRYING FOR BREAD.

Pinch of Poverty Adds to Terrors of St. Petersburg Situation -- Vladimer Says Reports are Exaggerated -- Demonstration in Kisheneff Theatre.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.--The lack of money and food is already operating against a continuance of the strike. Weeping women are returning to the cigarette factories pleading to be allowed to resume work but the managers are afraid to reopen in consequence of the threats of the strikers to sack their establishments.

Moscow, Jan. 25.--The city is quiet this morning.

Autocracy Doomed.

New York, Jan. 25.--Every despatch from Russia seems to straighten the belief of the Russian workers here that the present outbreak beginning with the labor men will mark the downfall of the autocracy, says the Tribune.

Thousands of workmen joined in a demonstration during the performance last night. A crisis in the hostility toward the government was raised in the crowded auditorium by incendiary proclamations which were showered from the gallery.

At Kishineff.

Kishineff, Jan. 25.--A seditious demonstration during the performance last night. A crisis in the hostility toward the government was raised in the crowded auditorium by incendiary proclamations which were showered from the gallery.

Finns Demonstrate.

Helsingfors, Finland, Jan. 24.--Thousands of workmen joined in a demonstration here tonight. Assembling on the huge steps of the Nicolaï Cathedral, they paraded the streets, till midnight, waving red flags.

A New Office.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.--The appointment of General Treppoff, the former Chief of police, of Moscow, to the Governor-Generalship of St. Petersburg, today, was accompanied by an imperial decree announcing the creation of the post of Governor-General.

Czarevitch Ill.

New York, Jan. 25.--According to a special cable despatch to the American dated St. Petersburg, Jan. 24, the infant Czarevitch is seriously ill of pneumonia at the Tsarskoe Selo palace.

France Scores Czar.

New York, Jan. 25.--The Tribune's Paris correspondent says: The feeling throughout France, which was slow to express itself at the first news of the Russian revolution is now assuming a strong and unmistakable shape.

Strike at Kovno.

Kovno, Russia, Jan. 25.--The governor has issued a proclamation announcing that the general strike at Kovno has been brought about by startling statement this morning that his horses were eating their heads off.

the threats of a small group of workmen whose hopes for changes in the factory regulations and an increase of wages cannot however be attained by such means.

Troops at Moscow.

Moscow, Jan. 25.--Noon.--The industrial district on the other side of the Moskva River was patrolled by troops and police all night long and paraded by bodies of workmen, but no encounters occurred.

AN EXCITING OCEAN RACE

Between C. P. R. and Great Northern Steamships on the Pacific.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 25.--(Special)--Keen interest is manifested by shipping men throughout the north-west over a trans-Pacific race which was started on Monday.

OPPOSED RECIPROCITY.

Boston, Jan. 25.--Congressman P. P. Campbell, of Kansas, and J. L. Robinson, of Arkansas were the principal speakers at the annual banquet of the New England Iron and Hardware Association last night.

LADY CURZON IS BETTER.

London, Jan. 25.--Lady Curzon of Kedleston, wife of the viceroy of India, has completely recovered from her long illness and is preparing shortly to join her husband in India with their children.

HANGED IN A BARN.

Brandon, Man., Jan. 25.--(Special)--Christopher McPhieid, a farm laborer, hanged himself in his employer's barn, yesterday.

FATAL ROW IN TRAIN.

Passenger Shoots Guard Who, He Claimed, Made Love to His Wife.

Chicago, Jan. 25.--Passengers on a metropolitan elevated train have been thrown into a panic when George H. Gould, cashier of an insurance company, shot and fatally wounded A. R. Hammond, a guard employed by the road.

There were more than twenty passengers in the car. They fled to other coaches when the shooting began. Gould accused Hammond of alienating the affections of his wife. The guard will probably die.

UNDERWRITERS ARE SATISFIED.

They Inspected the Fire Fighting Appliances This Morning.

The Board of underwriters convened in the city building this morning and at 11 o'clock left on the street car to inspect No. 3 hook and ladder Co's appliances and subsequently will make a similar trip to No. 7 fire station.

The aggregation comprised the special committee appointed by the Fire Underwriters' Association to consider the question of the reduction in fire insurance rates.

AN INSPECTION WAS MADE AS TO THE efficiency possessed by the firemen in the management of the engines and to ascertain if everything was found in a satisfactory condition.

His worship Mayor White was to attend but was unable to do so owing to press of civic business.

A LONELY DEATH BED.

Woman Dies in Ontario With Her Husband and Sole Mourner at the Funeral.

Sault Ste Marie, Ont., Jan. 25.--(Special)--While her husband was away hunting, Mrs. John Johnson died, with her children about her bed, and with no doctor within a hundred miles.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Royal--R. D. Trites, Petticoe; C. Thompson, Halifax; F. R. Rattenbury, Montreal; R. L. Shulhof and L. J. Laforte, Montreal.

Clifton--Geo. Clark, Roxton. New Victoria--Andrew M. Holmes and wife, Quebec; Joseph Wilton, Portland; David Cottam, Yarmouth.

Loncoln, Neb., Jan. 25.--Fire early today destroyed the furniture block and halter building, with their contents. Considerable damage was done to adjoining buildings.

COLD WEATHER FOR NEW YORK.

Citizens Throw Fits Because the Mercury Goes to 18--Heavy Snow Storm.

Chicago, Jan. 25.--Several trans-Atlantic and coastwise steamers due to arrive today have not reached the harbor yet. They probably rode out the gale outside of Sandy Hook last night, waiting for daylight.

The Rotterdam reported by wireless graph of Nantucket light ship at yesterday afternoon and another steamer supposed to be the Menominee from London which passed Fire Island early last evening were among these delayed arrivals.

New York, Jan. 25.--With six inches of snow on the ground, a forty mile wind from the north east blowing the snow into high drifts, and the temperature at 18 degrees and falling New York experienced today one of the worst storms of the winter.

The snow began last night and continued falling steadily today. As it became colder travel in the streets was difficult and very uncomfortable.

Boston, Jan. 25.--The snow storm which began in this city early last night assumed severe proportions before morning.

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.--The storm which began in this city last night continued today. The snow fall registered seven inches and street car travel is badly crippled.

New York, Jan. 25.--Conditions throughout the greater city steadily became more serious as the day advanced.

The big plant of the Kip Brewing company at thirty eighth street and fifth avenue caught fire while the storm was at its height.

Easton, Pa., Jan. 25.--Everything in the lower end of the Lehigh valley is tied up today by a blizzard. Trains managed to get through after several hours delay.

The following persons have been reported by the North End police for neglecting to remove the snow from the front of their premises:

Dr. McInerney, Douglas Avenue; Chas Phillips, David Cox, Henry Akerley, Edward Horncastle, Wellington Hamm and George Mullin, Main street.

Maritime--Northeast to north gales, heavy snow this evening and tonight. Thursday north to northwest gales clearing by night.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER.

There is reason to fear that the bolt on Mr. Jamesy Jones's neck is more virulent than at first supposed. A consultation may be held.

THE GREAT STRIKE. All manner of expedients are being suggested at City Hall to bring the teamsters' strike to an end.

Ald. Christie is deeply interested in the fables of Brer Fox and Brer Rabbit, especially in those where "Brer Fox, he laid low."

Should the strike continue, a special meeting of the city council will be held to see if the civic elections cannot be postponed.

When a heavy snowstorm occurs and traffic is completely blocked, snowshoes will be distributed from City Hall.

STOESSEL A QUITTER, SAYS LONDON TIMES.

London, Jan. 25.--The Times correspondent at Pekin, who has returned from a visit to Port Arthur describes the impressions he gathered there and says: "Without witnessing them nobody could form any idea of the stupendous strength of the forts of the incredible heroism displayed in their capture."

A New Squadron. Tokio, Jan. 25, 3 p. m.--The navy department announces the formation of a special service squadron. No details are given.

Russian Fleet. Seychelles Islands, Indian Ocean, Jan. 25.--The French gunboat Capucorne reports that the Russian second Pacific squadron was at Passanava Bay, North West coast of Madagascar, Jan. 20.

The following cable was received from the German strikers at Essen: "Bergerling budweiser schilt spooß Hoch der spinkelbier anhauser."