It is understood that at the meeting of the freight agent at Montreal, to be held today and tomorrow, a statement of the winter port business for St. John will not be submitted. It is further learned that owing to the press of business at this port it was deemed advisable to make a general return at the end of the season.

In connection with the appointment of the Commissioners on city assessment made by the Common Council last night, the Times to-day consulted Messrs. J. H. McRobbie, W. E. Stavert and T. H. Estabrooks. Mr. McRobbie stated that he would accept and had no doubt whatever but that the other gentlemen would do likewise. Messrs Stavert and Estabrooks said they could not give an immediate answer as they had not given the matter any particular consideration.

The annual meeting of Germain St. Baptist church will be held this evening. According to the report to be submitted by the treasurer, the church has had an exceedingly prosperous year, and there will be a substantial balance.

There are now on the church roll 435 members, 332 resident and 105 non resident. Seven new members were received during the year, three died, seven were dismissed to other churches and two were placed on the retired list.

One of the leading city livery stable owners told the Times this morning, that never since he had been in the business was there such a slack season as this for sleighing parties. At this date last year, there were many demands for the large sleighs, but as yet none have been seen this winter. "It is not on account of the prices," said the livery man, "as we are charging no more for the sleighs than previous years, but the interest in this amusement has died out. "Snow shoeing and skating parties are now the go, and we must now depend upon what we make on single turnouts."

ST. LUKE'S Y. M. A.

A Fine Entertainment Last Evening--It Will Be Repeated.

St. Luke's church Y. M. C. A. arranged a real treat for the people of north end last night in the story of Christie's Old Organ, which was made very life-like by the means of 53 colored lantern illustrations.

The Young Men's quartette also added to the beauty of the production by singing at appropriate places required by the story.

The young men appear to have got the tickets pretty well distributed, as the Sunday School room was filled with such an audience as north end knows how to muster.

The entertainment was entirely free and judging by the attention given and the contented expression of the departing guests everyone thoroughly enjoyed it. It was a pity that owing to the limited capacity of the hall many had to be turned away from the door, but there will be a repetition of the story on Wednesday evening when the disappointed ones may be satisfied.

The Y. M. A. meets for physical drill next Monday.

THE SALVAGE CORPS

Ask For Better Quarters and Resent Recent Action of Officials.

The members of No. 3 Hose company, and No. 1 Salvage Corps held meetings last night, and discussed the action of Chief Kerr in changing the drivers of No's. 1 and 3 companies. No action was taken by No. 3 company as it was recognized that the chief has control over that driver, but the Salvage Corps are very indignant over some charges which it is alleged were made against their driver Wm. Donahue. It is said that District Engineer Blake received an anonymous letter in which very severe charges were made against the drivers. The letter went into the hands of Chief Kerr, Director Wisely and Ald. Maxwell, chairman of the safety board. A few days ago Chief Kerr had an altercation with Driver Donahue regarding the harboring of a pet dog at the station, and the chief was referred to Capt. G. Herbert Green, of the Salvage Corps, through whom any complaints should be made regarding the company's driver. The next action was the removal of Driver Alward from No. 3 to No. 1 station. Alderman Maxwell was asked by the drivers yesterday regarding the charges made in the letter, and were answered that no weight was attached to the matter, as the letter had not been signed, but the change of drivers was to get the men used to different sections of the city, though it is a fact that all drivers are not changed about.

It was pointed out at the Salvage Corps meeting that under certain rules and regulations and the lack of room that other quarters should be given them, and a motion was carried to that effect.

It was also resolved that it be made public through the press that No. 1, S. C. & F. P. have every confidence in the honesty and capability of the company's driver, Wm. Donahue.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the rooms, and No. 3 hose men and the permanent men in the station were guests. Songs were sung by James Alexander Winchester, Frederick McKean, and others, while G. Davidson gave a number of banjo selections.

WINTER PORT NOTES.

The Steamship Corinthian of the Allan line, arrived in port last night from Liverpool via Halifax. The steamer left Liverpool on December 29th, and had a fair winter passage, until she reached the Nova Scotia coast, when she encountered a heavy, south east storm. The wind blew with hurricane force and the sea ran high, but the ship came through it without much damage. Some of the seas broke over the vessel and caused part of the deck fixtures to break loose. On Sunday morning the wind abated, but the seas outside of Halifax was very rough. The big steamer ploughed her way through it in good shape reaching Halifax at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Corinthian landed at Halifax 275 passengers. The steerage passengers consisted principally of Scandinavians, Russian Finns, English and Scotch, and a few Russians. The majority of them were English-speaking people, the percentage of Russians being very small.

The Russian Finns are nearly all bound for points in Ontario, some of them going to Sudbury to work in the copper mines, while others are going lumbering. Fifty of the passengers are bound to points in the United States.

The daily runs of the steamer were as follows:

Friday 214, Saturday 221, Sunday 270, Monday 264, Tuesday 263, Wednesday 250, Thursday 253, Friday 239, Saturday 271.

The run around to this port was made in good time, it was smooth all the way. The vessel is now at No. 2 berth discharging her large cargo, for this city and the west.

The steamer brought around from Halifax, 1 cabin, 11 second cabin, and 32 steerage passengers.

She was in charge of Capt. Fairfull.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Cairns took place at one o'clock today, from her residence, Prince of Wales, Musquash. Interment was in the family lot at Musquash, Rev. Mr. Baker, rector of Musquash, conducted the service at the house and grave.

The funeral of Mrs. Angus Macdonald took place at 2.30 this afternoon, from her residence, Waterloo street. Interment was at Cedarhill. Rev. Angus Graham officiated. Relatives acted as pall bearers.

WARNING TO BOYS.

The case of Roy Spencer and Geo. Lawson, who were reported for throwing snow balls at a lady at the corner of St. James and Carmarthen streets came up before Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

His honor warned the lads that they were liable to a penalty of $8; and after giving them some good advice, told them to lose no time in getting to school. He observed also that he had rather such cases would not be dealt with in school hours.

THE C. P. R. ACCIDENT.

A passenger on the C. P. R. yesterday in conversation with a Times reporter said that it was a miracle that the collision was not followed by fatal results. The Boston was running at a rapid gait when the crash came the locomotive actually climbed up on the freight engine which was stationary, leaving the former engine standing almost perpendicular. Considering the serious situation the absence of a fatality surprised all.

Rev. D. Hutchinson of Moncton, who has received a call to the pastorate of Main St. Baptist church of this city, was in the city last night. He has not yet decided whether he will accept the call, and the matter is now under consideration.

AN OLD TIME RAILWAY MAN

Ran Last Broad Gauge Train From Truro to Moncton.

CONDUCTOR DICKSON.

Friends Congratulate Him on His Birthday---Forty-Four Years in the Service.

W. B. Dickson, the well known I. C. R. conductor running on C. P. R. trains No. 25 and 26, is receiving congratulations today. He claims he is 61, but he does not look it within a decade. His many friends in St. John are extending to him the glad hand, and as he left on his train for the neighboring seaport town this afternoon he carried with him their best wishes.

Conductor Dickson is among the oldest men in the employ of the I. C. R. having seen service in various capacities for the past forty-four years. He is a native of Carleton, St. John but the greater part of his life has been spent in the neighboring province. He was in the railway employ when the road was opened up from Halifax to Windsor Junction, and saw the first sod turned on the I. C. R. at St. John, and he also ran the last broad gauge train from Truro to Moncton.

A Times reporter called on conductor Dickson this morning. He was somewhat averse to talking on the subject as proposed by the scribe, but said:

"Well, yes, I took the last broad gauge train from Truro to Moncton. That was in 1876. The train was a double header. W. D. Martin, now a prosperous business man in Moncton, and John MacDowell, shunter in the Truro yard, had charge of the engines. This particular train conveyed the broad gauge rolling stock to Moncton from Truro."

When Conductor Dickson first went on the road, the only lines laid were from Halifax to Truro and the branch from Windsor junction to Windsor. In 1897 the line from Truro to Pictou was opened up. Since that time the shortline was built from Oxford junction to Pictou. The Eastern extension from New Glasgow to Mulgrave, the I. C. R. from Truro to Riviere du Loup, the road from Point Tupper to the Sydney, also the D. A. R. from Windsor to Annapolis, have been constructed and are in operation.

Conductor Dickson's many friends will wish him many years to review old time reminiscences.

THAT SUSSEX TRAIN.

To the Editor of the Times, Sir. Seeing by your paper of the 9th that you had a chat with a train man of the Sussex express, in which he sets forth his grievance as to delay at this station, and in which he reflects on me as being remiss in my duty. I wish to state a few facts in self defence. In the first place he says the Sussex train reached here on time, when in fact she was fourteen minutes late. She arrived here at 18.13. At 18.10 the despatcher called up Hampton and asked for No. 1, and the operator said she was there which gave her three minutes before No. 8 arrived here. I asked the despatcher if he wanted to advance No. 8, he said no, but to tell her to pull out and turn. The switch No. 1 could run in. This I did as told, and returned to my office, where I remained ready if needed. The despatcher could not raise Hampton again until about twenty-four minutes after six, when he found out No. 1 was just leaving there. This, you see, was fourteen minutes after she arrived there. Now I think you and all reasonable people will see that I was not responsible for the delay as represented by "train man," who no doubt, is the main kicker on the train.

Yours truly,
G. W. Dodge,
Agent, I. C. R.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

The Guild Was Reorganized Last Evening---The Officers.

At a well attended meeting held in St. Stephen's church school room, last evening, and presided over by Rev. E. A. Wicher, the St. Stephen's Church Guild was re-organized. It was agreed to adopt the old constitution and to commence work at once.

The following officers and conveners were elected:—President, Rev. E. A. Wicher, vice-presidents, Mrs. Robt. Thomson, R. I. Leavitt and Henry Page; Treasurer, Miss Leavitt; Secretary, Miss Sutherland; Conveners: Social Committee, Mrs. Frank Peters; Missionary Committee, Mrs. Struan Robertson; Literary Committee, A. Gordon Leavitt; Musical Committee, Mrs. Wm. Gilchrist and Miss Wilson; Decorative Committee, Mrs. E. Phillips; Biblical Committee, Wm. Patterson; Historical Committee, Wm. Kerr; Seamen's Mission Committee, The Graham; Reception Committee, William Campbell.

The committees stand the same as last year, each convener having power to add to his or her respective committee. The opening meeting will be held on Monday evening, 16th., inst., when Rev. Mr. Wicher will deliver a lecture and musical selections will be rendered.

All seem to have missed the Guild, and were quite enthusiastic over its being resumed. Several excellent lectures have been promised, including one from A. Gordon Leavitt, and the good record of the guild is likely to be sustained.

CURRENT CASH.

The Dailey Stock company presented the melo-drama, "Current Cash," at the Opera House last evening, before a fairly large audience.

The drama is not an exceedingly bright one but if the performers had known their parts better, the production would have been much improved.

The tableau at the end of the prologue was excellent.

Charles Barringer and Major Chellis did by far the best work, and he became the favorite of the audience and Homer Mullaney, as Bowles, was given a fine opportunity to create laughter, but owing to the fact that he was not up in his lines, he did not get the full effect of his part. George C. Robinson, as Colonel Charrington, was good, as were also Meredith Brown and Richard Labor, Mr. Booth suffered from the same complaint as Mr. Mullaney and consequently his work was poor. The ladies were better cast than the gentlemen, and all did well, except Miss Blake who was also shy on her lines. Current Cash will be repeated this evening and at two performances tomorrow.

JANUARY CLEAN-UP SALE

In Successful Progress.

Every man should be as good as his word, but it isn't always the case. Every store should be as good as its advertisements represent it to be, but it's sometimes the reverse.

It doesn't take any of us a great while to learn "which is which." If we had no higher motive, policy would teach us that exaggerated and misleading statements would create distrust sooner or later. But we have a higher ambition. We want to chisel into our business these four words:

"OUR WORD IS GOOD"

By that we mean exactly what we say---that whenever we give you our word for anything, you may rest assured it is the truth.

For INSTANCE, when we say that we are offering OVERCOATS, good wearing Overcoats, that sold at $10, $12, and $13.50, for $6.90 and $7.90, we mean exactly what we say.

Other OVERCOATS, $8.90, $9.90, $12---very much under regular prices.
