THE GROWING TIMES.

The Times is glad to be able to province. When will the people of say to its, friends that its daily circulation continues to increase. The increase is a natural result of the outcry when an epidemic breaks out lution also of many other difficulties excellent news service given by this and spreads, and yet an insidious of the time. A church with at least a paper, and the attractive manner host of victims, and which science more vigorous, with clergy of greatn which that news is presented. A new paper has to make itself tells us can be successfully combated or strength and character, and a Christianity of firmer purpose and by proper treatment, is permitted to Christianity of firmer purpose and cover. There are shundard evidences known, remove prejudices, and win destroy valuable lives without any that the church is trying harder now friends. If it prove, itself worthy concerted effort made to save them. the the church is trying harder now ago and is watching from afar to see to reach the men than she ever did them run? It is a preposterous misof support, the support is not with- The fact is not to the credit of the before, and the effort is bound held, for the public is not slow to province or its people. Provincial time, to bring results. The difficulty make comparisons and judge the and municipal authorities are alike heretofore has been that nothing was merits of a newspaper.

Many complimentary things have been said about the very full and excellent reports of the storm which appeared in the Times yesterday and Thursday, the best reterday and Thursday, the best re-ports that appeared in any St.John paper.
