EEL GROUND HOUSE,

BARNABY STREET,

EEL GROUND.

THE Subscriber begs to intimate to his friends and the public generally, that he has opened the above House, at an enormous cost, and trusts by strict attention to merit a share of public patronage.

He would also beg to state, that his house is conducted on the Grahamite principle—namely, Nothing for Breakfast; and what is left is warmed over for Dinner. Tea the same, only a smaller quantity served.

Liquors, &c., constantly on hand

BARNABY JULIAN,

Merchant's Row, Eel Ground.
