JOHN PICKARD, ESQ, RETURNED BY ACCLA

Country. Mr. Pickard was nominated by Chas. Macpherson, Esq., M. P. P., seconded by John McDonald, Jeremiah Staples, Jos. Mysherall. A. G. Blair, T. W. Longstaff, Thos. F. Barker and J. P. McLaughlin, Esqs.

Mr. Pickard stated that he had been taken te some extent by surprise by the recent day evening by W. G. Gaunce, Esq., on action of the Government in dissolving Parliament. He believed that as a dissolution He treated his subject mainly by illustra had not immediately followed the downfall of the Macdonald ministry, it would have Grecian and Roman Civilizations, viewing been better to have called the house together, ascertained the policy of the new Premier, lastas a heartless despotism. He would have far sooner seen the late ministry come out with clean hands, for the good name of every man woman and child in the Dominion, but by their own testimeny they were convicted of wrong. Mr. Pickard next referred to the two New Brunswick members of the late government the weather there to be very mild, so to bear a share of the odium.

The late minister of Marine and Fisheries, the Hon. Peter Mitchell had been a most active and efficient worker, and if he, Pickard, had a vote in Northumberland he would go over and deposit it for him.

It had been said that he had done wrong in voting against the late Government on several occasions as he had done-he had been taken to task for it by one of the members of the local Executive, and the Reporter had said a representative of a County could not expect to secure the same favors for it, porting it.

For his part he scouted such an idea. No Government could or ought to live that would be influenced by such a policy. Whatever DR. J. BALL & CO., (P. O.
