SPIRITS TAKING POSSESSION OF A YOUNG LADY'S DYING BODY-A PHRNOMENON.

[From the Spiritualist Scientist, Boston,] In Lawrence, Susie M. Smith, a young lady about seventeen years of age, daughter of Dr. Greenleaf Smith, after a short illness, died the evening, and from that time until Friday, sessed in part by other spirits.

So with the father, mother, day of April, A. D., 1870. brother and sister gathered around this bedside. The body had the unmistakeable death-damp on its face. Many minutes had elapsed, when suddenly, to the indescribable surprise of all in the room, came a deep, gruff voice, the parted SAVE YOUR EYES. and moving lips of the body in licating its whereabouts, which said: "Rub both of her arms as hard as you can." Without a second bidding, and recovering from their surprise, the command was obeyed, when came a second voice, "Raise her up in end." This being only partly understood, brought the heavy voice to say, "Raise her up in endyou're deaf, ain't you?" Up came the body, it breathed naturally, but did not speak for a few moments.

Dr. Smith sat behind the body, holding up, when it again spoke in another voice, "If I could move her legs around so that I could set her up on the foot board, she'd be all right." The doctor was preparing to carry this suggestion into effect, when he, with the body, was actually taken-lifted from their positions together-and both placed upon the foot board by some unknown power. The body was now possessed by a spirit that was cheerful, lively, and not unlike the natural occupant. The doctor was about to ask if she hadn't better be laid back, when the same force again lifted them, carried them both backward-he to his feet, and she falling to her first position in bed, apparently again as dead as could possibly be.

A few moments elapsed—the doubt was settling into a certainty--when a mild voice opened a conversation which continued three hours; during this time it acknowledged that the body had been controlled by spirits out of the flesh.

A trance sleep followed. and said to the doctor, "Please lie down on the side of the bed." He obeyed, and the voice said, "Who am I, any way?" He replied, "You are Susie Smith." It answered, "No I ain't; Susie Smith died last night,"

In heart morning the body opened its eyes Johnson Bearsto, aged 27 years.

At Oak Point, Greenwich, K. C., on the 23th loved child of Mr. Robinson E. and Ellen Jellen Jel and this opinion it maintained.

On Friday the symptoms were again worse; there were several fainting spells, but after 12 o'clock there were no indications of life. The next morning, while in a lower room, and endeavoring to decide where to lay the hody, an appiration, or Susie Smith, as the incredulous or credulous will have it, walked into the room with plain footsteps and said: "Right on the school-hill; right on the side of the road"—then disappeared.

The location indicated was selected. In Denmark, near Brighton, Me., the body lies in a new selected lot on the school house hillside.

The illness and decease occurred at the residence of her sister, corner of Cedar and Franklin streets. The young lady resided in Lawrence for a number of years, and was organist at Webster Hall, with a large circle of acquaintances. We advance no explanation or theory to cover the case; we give the DOMINION facts, easily attested, and the circumstances warrant the truthfulness of the statements.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT OROMOCTO.-Richard Bartlett, of this City met with a serious accident at the above place on Friday afternoon. He was firing at a mark, when the gun bursted, shattering his thumb and lacerating his wrist to a fearful extent. Fears are entertained that amputation will be necessary. A WIFE SAVED BY A BED-RIDDEN HUSBAND.

On Saturday last an itinerant peddler entered the house of James Tolin, living near Minot's Landing, and proceeded to display the shape of numerous testimonials from past his wares to Mrs. Tolin, dispite her assertions sufferers, is all the walks of life, and particularly Tolin was confined to his bed, and had been so confined for several years, being so crippled with rheumatism that it had been long impossible for him to leave his bed unless carried from it. After showing his goods, Diamond Rheumatic Cure. and Mrs. Tolin not buying anything, the peddler commenced a conversation, in the course of which he learned the helpless condition of Mr. Tolin. Finally he made an insulting proposal to Mrs. Tolin, and she indignantly ordered him to leave the house. Instead, he approached her and seized hold of known only to the friends and neighbors and stead, he approached her and seized hold of her, saying, with an oath, that she was in his power, as her husband was as good as her husband was as good as matism, and in this way came to the notice of dead. Mrs. Tolin, being a delicate woman, ran screaming into another room. The peddler followed her, and before she could estable expression, and its acknowledged value as a Rheumatic Remedy, the demand for it became cape by the door, caught her again. A des- so frequent and urgent as to oblige its proprietors perate struggle ensued between them, and to increase their facilities for its manufacture. Mrs. Tolin was thrown violently to the floor by the powerful villain. Mr. Tolin had been letters of enquiry, letters of thanks, and certifiall the time a witness of the struggle, lying powerless in his bed. At the sound of his tions of the United States and Canada; and in this wife falling on the floor, however, and her way on a basis of its merits alone-unaided by frantic shrieks for aid, he seemed to be endow- "tricks of the trade" or special efforts-it has ed with supernatural power. Seizing a heavy crutch that stood near the bed he rushed into the room where the struggle was going on. Mrs. Tolin had succeeded in regaining her feet, but the peddler had grasped her around the waist and was endeavoring again to throw her. brought the crutch down over the head of the peddler and felled him like an ox to the floor. The next instant the excitement and superhuman effort that had supported the husband left him. With a shriek that told of the intense agony of the relapse he clasped his hand to his forehead and dropped to the floor and almost instantly expired.

Mrs. Tolin succeeded in getting the body of her husband back in the bed, and then send for it to started for assistance. She was obliged to go over a mile before she was able to obtain any. When she returned with several neighbors the peddler was gone. He had recovered consciousness and fled, leaving his pack in the house .- Baltimore American.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Meadache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should liseased action or remove the obstructions which For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one nild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Bropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their ng and renovating effect on the diges
