We hope, however, for better things in the future, and to be able at no very distant day to make such alterations in the size and character of this paper as we consider are desirable. At present we give what is equal to about 1000 pages of an ordi nary sized book for $1.00, and w believe the matter published has practical every-day value. We have avoided as much as possible dealing with subjects in which our readers feel very little actual interest, and have endeavored to discuss fairly and honestly those matters which bear upon the prosperity of our own people. In respect to news our object is to give all the current news, but to divest it as much as possible of uninteresting details. Our course in these two par ticulars has, we are glad to know, met with the approbation of our readers The Agricultural department is not as good as we would like to make it; bu until the farmers of New Brunswick determine to have it they will not be able to claim a first-class agricultura journal of their own. What we would like, and intend if possible to make the FARMER, is something after this sort :- A paper giving a large, well throw it open to the public, as nothing will ing; a fair proportion of general upon it. literature for the old as well as the young; the news in succinct readable form; occasional selections from the leading English periodicals in order that our readers may get a correct idea of the general current of thought in the ceetres of civilization; independent reviews of political mat ters and the discussion of all things of general importance calculated to ad interest. vance the prosperity of our Country There is no journal of just such a character in Canada, and we believe there is room for one: and it was such just what is required. ROE & COLBY, Topographical Engineers.

THE above advertisement appeared in last week's FARMER. As I am the "young man' mentioned, I should like to refer the citizens of York to a few items, as follows; 1st.—Reference is made to my experience. I beg to state, that, "although only fuour months' in their employ, my first knowledge of surveying and mapping was obtained over ten years ago.

2nd.—Although stating their ability to publish Maps at $3.75, they do not announce their intention of mapping York.

3rd.—In reference to price, a correct Atlas, such as York County should make, never was and never can be made at that price. As a proof of this, Roe & Colby canvassed last fall for an Atlas of Arostook. Me., a similar work to York County York to a few items, as follows;

this, Roe & Colby canvassed last fall for an Atlas of Aroostook, Me, a similar work to York County Atlas, for $8.00, and are now delivering same at that price. They also made an Atlas of St. John for which they charged $10.

4th.-Finally they accuse me of carrying off their samples, This part I most emphatically deny.

To prove that Roe & Colby have no intention of working up York County I quest the tellowing. working up York County, I quote the following advertisement from the Reporter of 9th of May:-ATLAS OF YORK COUNTY .- PRICE $3.75
