A Correspondent in the issue of the Reporter of 5th Sept., under Keswick Correspondence, refers to company young men keep. I never pass myself for a young man and find enough to do to mind my own business This I positively assert, that wherever and whenever I stay over night and pay for the same, is no one's business. The Keswick correspondent, whoever or whatever he is when he undertakes to screen the scoundrels (because there was more than one engaged in the dirty, contemptible trick,) is no better than he ought to be. They are worse than would mutilate a dumb beast, and he who tries to defame people's characters, and is afraid to sign his name to the same, whoever he is, is no better than he should be.

Surveys have been made for a breakwater from the head of Thatch's Island, Oromoct: Shoals, to the Lincoln shore, near the lower line of Senator Wilmot's property, and it i said that three thousand dollars are to be expended in the work. We trust our information is not correct. Three thousand dollars is an absurdly small sum to meet the require ments of 90,000 people. We know that one is apt to be misled by the reputation of lecturers from abroad into expectations which will not be realized; but the objections which are made against Dr. Talmage's lecture are not such as would arise from this disappointment. It was of his manner of treating his subject that his hearers complained; the frivolity, and manifest labor to make frivolity pass for profoundness were not what was expected from a gentleman of such great fame. If our contemporary had paid any attention to what it presume to criticise, it would not require to be told that the Opposition did not object to the postponement, but some individual members complained that since the Exhibition grant was not required to meet the St. John donation, no good reasons had been given for putting the Exhibition off till next year.

We have received a letter from Mr. Smith the official reporter of the Assembly, com, plaining of our remark relative to his synopsis of the Attorney General's Speech. We did not write what he complains of for the purpose of finding fault : for we admit that it is impossible in a short synoptic report to be sent by telegraph to give the salient points of a speech, and we can bear testimony to the general accuracy of Mr. Smith's Parliamentary reporting. His extended reports are really excellent. This explanation will serve Mr. Smith's purpose quite as well as the publica- Railway will be changed on these days tion of his letter would.

"What's this?" said the vicar. "Please, sir," replied the man, "it's some of our very hymn and a prayer, Brigham's first wife stood propriation of $25,000 for the relief fund beside pursuing the Turks a short distance aid you should have some of them, as she with cavalry. The Russians were about heard you say in your sermon, the common aturs didn't agree with you."

Peradventure as the gentle maiden pensively extracts the lacteal from the female bovine, she thinks of fourteen cents a pound for butter and exclaims, "Quit now, you pesky brute beast, or I'll cut your tail off."

The Arabian archæologists claim that they have discovered the grave of Eve, and state that she must have been about three hundred eet tall. And yet Adam, poor man, has been blamed for eating the apple when she

A Philadelphia paper, not addicted to such things either, says the reason that the English women make such excellent mothers is because they belong to the mother country.

When a boy was asked: "Where was the text this morning?" he replied, "It was in hatchets." "In hatchets? No, it was in Acts." "Well, I knew it was something that would cut," said he triumphantly.

"What did you get?" asked a wife of her husband, on his return from a hunting excursion of several days' duration. "I got
