Correspondence,

For the Colonial Farmer STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO.

HOW TO GET THERE, AND WHAT YOU SE WHEN THERE-THE PACKING HOUSES-THE HOGS KILLED, AND HOW THEY DO IT-THE SOUTH PARK AND WHAT IT COST-THE BOULEVARDS, WHERE FRESH AIR AND HUSIC CAN BE HAD ON TIME.

In my last I promised your readers wh were interested in provisions, to give them i this a trip to the Chicago Stock Yards.

These yards are situated about six mile south of the city, and can be reached either rail or street cars at any hour of th day. Through the courtesy of Jefferso Davis, Esq., of Tappin, McKillop & C. Agency, your correspondent was driven l that gentleman in his buggy attached to hi famous white gelding, which has a record less than 2.30, and after driving through th principal high-toned Avenues of the city and through the justly celebrated South Park an its numerous trotting and pleasure avenues which cost five and a half millions of dollar. halted for a rest at the beautiful South Parl Hotel, where we were introduced to its genia proprietor, Mr. Stevenson, a brother of the celebrated whip under Sir John A McDonald's government.

After a brief sojourn, during which we a cepted the hospitality of the proprietor, w buggied westward to the yards. The first impress the stranger is the magnificent

The temper of the Dominion Parliament does not appear to improve any as the Session over the enforcement of the Act to secure the independence of Parliament. The battle which begun over Mr. Anglin has extended right and left, until it is difficult to say whose seats will not be threatened. One member particulars of the murder that occurred at Mr. Currier, has resigned his seat. He read Dover, near Halifax, on Thursday : a letter to the House giving a history of the A man named Charles Cleaveland had had transactions with which he was connected. and although it clearly appeared that he was land, out of which much ill feeling grew. not aware that his business partners had contracts with the Government (they were not for large amounts) no course was left him but to vacate his position. He will be a candidate again. Hardly had Mr. Currier left the House when the battle began with great fury, and now we find Messrs. I. Burpee, Mitchell. Tupper, Norris, Sir John A. Macdonald. Mess. Appleby, Domville and about 20 others named as likely to be the next to find themselves in the same awkward fix. Against Sir John and Messrs. Mitchell and Tupper the charges are that the first named sold some land to the Government and the others leased property to them. There is likely nothing in the case against Sir John. Mr. Burpee is said to be connected with his brother in Government contracts. Mr. Domville's difficulty probably arises out of his interest in the Coldbrook Iron Works. Mr. Appleby is a partner of a Dominion official, but we do not know that this is the foundation of the rumoured charge against him. We cannot say that we regret the opening up of these matters, although some of them are very absurd; for it i right and proper that no violations of the very salutary law in question ought to be tolerated. Possibly no harm has resulted from any of however, a third report was heard, and the acts complained of, but if they were entering the house the neighbors found the overlooked they might lead to the inaugurawretched murderer lying on the floor dead, tion of a very vicious practice, which would beside the unfortunate victim of his insane degrade Parliament and imperil the prosperity fury. The sight was a sad 'one indeed of the Deminion. There is not much doubt that a half dozen or so members will be unseated, possibly more, and in view of this, and of the acrimonious spirit which has arisen in the fields of politics Mr. Mackenkie cannot do better than dissolve Parliament. Mr. Norris, above referred to, has also resigned his seat.
