now aware that British interests have been directly attacked, and that they will adopt measures for their defence."

The Daily Telegraph says:—"According to the latest information from Constantinople the Russian forces, despite the completion of the preliminaries for peace, are hastily pushing into Gallipoli and Constantinople. These circumstances are serious and menacing in the extreme, and will have to be considered by the Ministers in Cabinet Council to-day. The issue of other deliberations will, in all probability, be this evening communicated to Parliament." The Telegroph is furious in its comments on the course of Russia.

The Times says: "We are not altogether. confident that Prince Gortschakoff has renounced the entrance of any Russian troops into Constantinople. Rumors were affoat last night that some such entrance has been made, or was on the point of being made. At the utmost such occupation could be only of such a nmional charcater as the German entrance into Paris. There is in short every apparent ground for confidence in the pros-pect before us, and no solid reason for alarm."

A special from Perth announces that the Turkish men-of-war on the Danube have surrendered to the Russians. A London special says it is thought that, had prompt action been taken on the credit vote, Austria would have joined England and prevented the occupation of Constantinople. The rage of the people against Glad-stone and his following is unbounded. Minister Layard has telegraphed to Lord Derby from Constontinople, via India, that the Russians have arrived near to and are out entering Constantinople, and are also taking up a position near Gallipoli.

The excitement in London amounts almost to a war fever on account of the wires being cut, which prevents prompt communication between London and Constantinople. In consequence of the representations of the Powers, Greece seems disposed to stop the further advance of her troops, referring the question of their withdrawal to the Conference. She also demands that, pending such decision, hostilities against the insur-received information that the Russians had entered Constantinople. The same paper states that a telegram from Bucharest received in London says: "In addition to the transfer of men-of-war on the Danube, Russia is negotiating for the acquisiation of the entire Turkish iron-clad fleet."

In the Commons Stafford Northcote, in reply to the inquiry of John Whitewel (Liberal), said England assents to Austria's proposal of Conference. The News gives statements of several members of Plenipotentarie, suit declaring in strong terms that Beaconsfield and Layard were responsible for the Turkish persistence, and that Layard uniformally de-clared that England would intervene.

Northcote has just announced in the House that Schouvaloff, the Russian ambassador, received a telegram from Gortschakoff, stating that the Russian commanders were ordered to stop the advance at all points, and that there is no truth in the rumors of an advance on Constantinople.
