-Nettie J. Hawkes died very is quite ill. auddenly at her home in Curryville on March 24th aged 19 years and three months. Her parents are comforted as she died trusting in the Lord and entreating her friends to meet her in heaven. A great number of friends and neighbors were in attendance at the funeral, showing their kindly sympathy for the bereaved. A sermon was preached on the occasion by Rev. S. H. Cornwall, subject, "The way to Heaven."

-Miss May L. Steeves, who has taught very successfully the primary department of the Hillsboro' school during the last five years, has severed disc her connection with the school. Last Friday alternoon at the close of the school she was presented with an address, and a very neat jewel case and ink stand, also a very nice pin by a number of little girls. It is much to be regretted that Miss Steeves has left the school, which in the meantime will be taught by Miss Rebecca Baird of Queeus Co., who assumed charge on Monday morning. Miss Baird comes highly recommended by Inspector Steeves.
