THE LEGISLATURE.

The Debate on the Bathurst School Question Concluded.

The Government Appoint a Judge to Investigate and take Sworn Evidence.

All Possible Charges and Grievances will now have the fullest opportunity of being ventilated.

Hon. Mr. Blair said that as he had already said, if the committee thought further inquiry was necessary as to the difficulty at Bathurst the government were prepared to accede to that feeling.
He believed that all evidence needed had already been given, but to meet the view so generally expressed for a further investigation of the Bathurst troubles he would move a resolution to that effect, which he thought would give the most complete answer to the prayer of the petitioners:—

Resolved, That the petitioners in the petition referred to this committee in reference to the public schools having practiced that the legislative assembly may please to give instructions to the board of education as follows:—

1. To rescind orders or regulations which may have been made and modified in the interest of religious orders.

2. Not to use for school purposes any conventional buildings or religious houses so long as the said buildings or houses are occupied in whole or in part by the members of any religious orders.

3. To take the necessary and immediate steps towards securing justice to the Protestant minority in Bathurst and Bathurst village.

4. To see that the free school law in this province shall hereafter be honestly and impartially administered in the interests of all our citizens and irrespective of either church or creed, and this committee, having considered of the allegations and prayers in the petition and having in answer to so much of the said petition as charges that certain regulations of the board of education contravene the non-sectarian principles of the school law come to certain resolutions which will have been concurred in by the whole house as for so much of the said petition as alleges or complains that there have been infractions and violations of the school law and regulations in the town of Bathurst and Bathurst Village, whereby injustice has been done to the Protestant minority, the committee answers, that while it is of the opinion that the petitioners should have formulated their charges to the legislative assembly stating in what respect the public schools at Bathurst town and village are improperly or illegally conducted or differ from the public schools in St. John, Fredericton and elsewhere throughout the province, so that it might be known of what specific matters the said petitioners complain, it will approve and does hereby recommend that one of the judges of the Supreme court or of the county courts be commissioned under act of assembly 49th Victoria, chapter 4, to proceed to Bathurst town and village to inquire into and fully and thoroughly investigate any alleged infractions of the law or regulations on the part of the teachers or trustees in each of the said school districts, and generally to inquire into all matters of complaint which shall be laid before the said commissioner touching the management of the said schools and take evidence upon all such matters on oath and report the evidence so taken to the board of education to be laid before the legislature at its next session.

Mr. Stockton said that substantially the same resolution as he had moved the other day

Hon. Mr. Blair said there was this difference: That the hon. member had been unwilling for the committee of the whole to take up and consider the regulations that had been impeached. He had stated at the outset that when the general charges in respect to the regulations had been looked into by the house there would be no unwillingness on the part of the government to obtain further information as to the local troubles at Bathurst if it was thought necessary. The judge selected would not be asked to express an opinion, but he would be asked to obtain evidence upon which the legislature could if it deemed right take action. He did not believe that any additional evidence of importance would be secured but the government did not propose that the opposition should accuse them of concealing any facts that should be brought to light. He believed an investigation conducted by a judge would be direct to the point and less expensive than if conducted by a committee of the house. All possible grievances and charges alleged by anybody would now have the fullest opportunity of being preferred and ventilated.

The discussion was continued by Messrs.
Alward, Stewright, Stockton, Blair, Mitchell Pitts, Pinder, Phinney, Labllois, Hill, Howe, and Gogaine.

Mr. Phinney's using the words (in answer to Mr. Labllois), "the reputation of the member for Restigouche stinks in the nostrils of the people of this country," called forth from Hon. Mr. Blair a demand for the retraction of the unparliamentary language.

After a warm cross-fire of words Mr. Phinney retracted the words used though he would not admit having used them.

The debate was resumed and continued until the clock pointed to the hour of 4 a. m. when Mr. Blair's resolution was passed, Mr.
Gogaine being the only man in the opposition who supported it.

"I have carefully examined the formula

Helpful Hints.

Cling to wool underwear while the mercury registers the freezing point.
Wearing kid gloves when sweeping tends to keep the hands soft.

The teeth require cleaning at least twice a day, and the occasional use of a good dentifice. There is little objection to a precipitant of borax and chalk.

Extraordinary Incidents Connected with the Death of Mrs. Lydia Lee McCullough

There was buried at Sheffield, Illinois, last month, the remains of the most extraordinary woman nature has ever produced on this continent, if not in the world. The name of the deceased lady was Mrs. Lydia Lee McCullough of Mineral, whose weight was seven hundred pounds. Her strict measure from side to side was thirty-three inches, the casket being forty inches wide outside measure and fully two feet deep. The undertaker at Sheffield was notified at once to order a casket from Chicago which he immediately did. The same evening the undertaker at Chicago telegraphed back there must be some mistake. The undertaker at Sheffield then drove out to Mineral, carefully taking the measure himself which resulted just the same. In order to admit the casket to the room where deceased was lying, the siding was stripped off, some studding sawed away, and a good-sized window made larger by two feet or more. Then six stout men, by the aid of three or four stout bedsteads, lowered the remains there into the casket. Then six strong men, holding to the six stout handles, and a man at each end of the casket, lifted all that remained of the late Mrs. McCullough, the kind mother and wife, to the platform on top and over the low bed or box on the heavy two hundred spring wagon. The sides of this special floor platform was one foot wider on either side than the box on the wagon. It was apparently a good weight for the team to pull.
In preparing her for the casket it took ten men, five on a side, with clean stout clothes under her to handle, lift or move her at all, the ladies being unable to do so. A lady as strong as the ordinary woman was unable to lift up or even move one of her arms, and a stout man exerted himself in so doing. She occupied a heavy strong bedstead, made especially for her without springs. She had not been out doors since last summer, when she walked out into the yard, turning sideways and barely passing through the door that way.

She was born in Mineral about forty years ago, and was married to Mr. McCullough in 1865, and at that time weighed about one hundred and forty pounds. She was the mother of four children, three of whom are still living, the youngest, Miss Manie, aged nineteen, is a teacher in the village school.
Her parents were Harrison and Mary Lee; the father only weighed one hundred and forty pounds, and mother less than one hundred and twenty pounds. Her mother is now the wife of Isaac Tompkins, of Mineral, and is the daughter of the former well known Squire Carroll—the deceased therefore being the granddaughter. Parents of her mother were ordinary size people. On her father's side there was one quite large fleshy woman.
Her great grandfather on her mother's side, came from England and weighed two hundred pounds. Mrs. McCullough has always apparently enjoyed good health, but years ago had typhoid fever. Fourteen years ago she weighed four hundred and ninety-three pounds, and has since steadily refused to be weighed. She seems to have timidly shrank
