THANKSGIVING SERVICE in the F. Baptist church tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

It is reported that Woodstock is to have a new photographer in the near future.

NEW POST OFFICE.—Among the new post offices opened on Nov. 1st, was one at Daigle, Victoria Co.

TOMORROW is Thanksgiving Day, throughout the Dominion. Services will be held in most of the churches.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE held their regular weekly meeting Monday evening, when a very enjoyable programme was rendered.

JOHN T. G. CARR who has been established in Hartland for 20 years, attributes his success in business largely to printers ink and square dealing.

LENGTH OF THE BRIDGE.—The new bridge is 2,077 feet in length. There are 2,640 feet in half a mile so that the bridge is a good deal nearer half a mile than a third of a mile in length.

THE CROW INDUSTRY.—A shipment of one black crow left Woodstock yesterday on the Express for Halifax. The exports of this country are becoming numerous and widely varied.

THE WOODSTOCK WOODWORKING FACTORY has been so rushed with business lately that it has been running day and night. What's the good of growing about hard times when we see this state of things.

SHIPPED FROM FLORENCEVILLE.—J. N. Sloat of Tracy's Mills shipped from Florenceville on Friday last a car containing six and a quarter tons of cheese and five tons and three hundred pounds of pork.

THANKSGIVING SALE.—The Women's Aid Association in connection with St. Luke's church intend having a supper and sale, on or about Dec. 5th, towards lessening the debt on the Parish Hall. Due notices will follow.

THE TEACHERS INSTITUTE of Carleton county will meet Dec. 20th, and 21st, in Graham's Opera House in this town. It is expected that Dr. Inch the Chief Superintendent of education will be present during the sessions.

R. T. OF T.—Carleton District Council Royal Templars of Temperance meets tomorrow at 10 o'clock a. m. A public temperance meeting will be held in the evening. Speakers will be present from different sections of the county.

LATE FLOWERS.—F. W. Nevers, Woodstock, picked a fine large bouquet of pansies in his flower garden on the 15th of November. If the climate of this country continues to ameliorate it will not be long before bananas will be an article of export.

ANDOVER.—Woodstock might properly feel slighted on the snow question. Allen Perley enjoyed a sleigh ride from Andover to Grand Falls on Friday last. And, by the way, Mr. Perley has a fine new coach in connection with his Hotel at Andover.

OF INTEREST TO SCHOOL TEACHERS.—Teachers who not knowing that Labor Day was a proclaimed holiday worked on that day are allowed by special indulgence of the Board of Education to take any other day as a holiday and need have no scruples in taking the usual oath.

SCHOOL TEACHERS.—If a railroad man slept for a week and awoke on Friday he could always be sure of the day, because he would be called upon to stop his train at every flag station on his route to pick up a school teacher who would be going home to spend Sunday.

TOO DARK.—Saturday morning last it was dark, especially dark, even for this dark season of the year. The electric light was not turned on in the post office soon enough to enable the employees to sort the mail. And the employees and public were much inconvenienced.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.—A number of the free masons of Woodstock, received invitations to attend a meeting of the chapter to have been held last evening in Houlton, and be present at the working of the royal arch degree. Several masons accepted the invitations and were present.

ABOUT COMPLETED.—It will only be a few days now before the bridge will be fully completed and open for traffic. Now there only remains the flooring and placing of the girders across the last span. As this work is so nearly completed we may very properly make it a subject for thanksgiving tomorrow.

MRS. SARGENT of Knowlesville, who was stabbed last week is recovering rapidly. It should have been stated in the last issue of THE DISPATCH that Dr. Ross of Florenceville assisted by Dr. Estey of Hartland, performed the operation that will undoubtedly result in the recovery of the woman.

SOME CONSOLATION.—A gentleman from Richmond way, who calls to see THE DISPATCH once in a while, was asked the other day how the roads were out his way. "Well, there none too good, he replied, but as long as they are better than the streets in Woodstock we should not complain I suppose."

THE HARVEST THANKSGIVING service which was to have been held in the Parish church, on Thursday, will be postponed until Sunday next, 25th, at 11 a. m. There will be a celebration of the holy communion. The offertory will be given to the society for the propagation of the gospel in foreign parts.

COLD WEATHER.—There was a sudden change in the weather on Monday night. That afternoon it was raining, but towards night the weather turned very cold, and the wind blew almost a gale. Early yesterday morning it was desperately cold, although the thermometer stood a few degrees above zero. The wind blew during the day.

TO CONNECT WITH B. & A.—A delegation consisting of American capitalists and Restigouche people met a committee of the local government consisting of Hons. A. G. Blair, H. R. Emmerson, Jas. Mitchell, and A. T. Dunn, at St. John, Thursday, relative to the construction of the Restigouche Railway, and a link to connect with the Bangor & Aroostook road.—Ft. Herald.

BIDDING FOR THE TELEPHONE.—Hartland merchants are all alive in competition, and they prove the truth of the saying that "competition is the life of trade." Now that tel. phone connection is being made with that town, each merchant is doing his level best to have the telephone in his place of business. Indeed it is said premiums are offered, and the highest bid yet is $50.00.

A SMASH UP.—On last Thursday afternoon Fred. H. Hale's black horse, harnessed to a concord carriage was tied in front of John Arnold's blacksmith shop. It broke away from its mooring and running around the corner dashed into James Harvey's coach. The spring of the heavy coach was broken, the horse was badly cut, and Mr. Hale's carriage converted into a total wreck.

DEATH OF MR. DAVIDSON.—The community was shocked to hear of the death of Mr. J. C. Davidson which occurred at his residence below town yesterday morning. Although he had been very ill for some time, it was hoped he would recover. He farmed for the past few years, on the old Griffith place, and was a son of Mr. Henry Davidson of Prince William. Death was caused by inflammation of the brain. A widow and three children survive the deceased.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.—The second session of the Mock Parliament was held last Friday evening. The debate on the address in reply to the speech was continued by Messrs. W. W. Hay, G. A. White, W. T. Drysdale, A. D. Holyoke, J. K. Flemming, Thane Jones, Wm. Dibblee, W. Balmmain, Samuel Watts, and Hon. Wm. Lindsay. A vote will probably be taken the first thing next Friday evening and the business will begin in earnest.

SUPREME COURT MOTIONS.—Among the common motions made in the Supreme court at Fredericton on Saturday last were these in which people of this county are interested. They can decipher the meaning from the lucid legal explanation given. Queen vs. Dibblee ex parte Giberson—Mr. Shipp moves to make absolute rule nisi to quash; rule absolute. Fred. H. Hale, appellant, and Porter, respondent—Mr. McLean shows cause against rule nisi to review taxation; Palmer, Q. C., supports rule. Court considers.

ROYAL TEMPLARS.—Grand Councillor Flemming visited Lower Woodstock on Saturday evening, the 17th, and organized Meductic Council with 28 charter members. Alexander Johnston is select councillor; Mrs. A. R. Hay, vice councillor; Newton Bull, past councillor; Jennie M. Bull, recording secretary; John Craig, chaplain; Gilbert Brown, financial secretary; A. R. Hay, treasurer; James Brown, herald; LeBaron Bull, guard; Herman Gilbert, deputy herald; A. W. Hay, assisstant secretary. Night of meeting will be Saturday.

NOT WELL YET.—Smith Mercereau, who was terribly injured in the railway collision at Nixon's siding, and was for many months laid up after the amputation of one leg, at the Exchange hotel, is now at his home in Fredericton Junction. He still is comparatively helpless as his ankle has not healed entirely, and probably never will. It is said that he and the family of Allan Tracy, the man who was killed will bring an action for damages against the C. P. R., and that Mr. Geo. F. Gregory Q. C. is the lawyer intrusted with the task.

Misbehavior in Church.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

SIR,—I was very much pleased to see in THE DISPATCH the attention of the public called to the conduct of some young men at the Methodist church on Sunday 11th inst. Church-goer should have noticed the young women as well. The prayer meeting last Wednesday was a complete failure because some young women sat and giggled, and giggled during the service, to the great annoyance of those who went there for the purpose of social worship. The social standing of those disturbers of religious meetings should not protect them from open rebuke by the person conducting the services. The Criminal Code, sec. 173, says:—"Everyone is guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty of fifty dollars or one month's imprisonment, who wilfully disturbs any persons assembled for religious worship, either within the place or so near as to disturb the meeting." The faces of these young women should burn with shame after such conduct. OBSERVER.

The Green Bag.

The Green Bag for November has a first article of a series by Hampton L. Carson on "Contrasts in English Criminal Law." He contrasts the noble and human theory with the barbarous and cruel practise of the early criminal law, and in a future number he will use this article as a foundation for a sketch of the great work done by "those immortal criminal law reformers—Sir Samuel Romilly, Lord Brougham, Jeremy Bentham and Rev. Sidney Smith." The leading article on Judge Charles P. Daly is full of healthy inspiration to the young lawyer. The story of Mr. Daly's career from a poor young carpenter down to the close of a life rich in noble and generous thought word and action, is as interesting as a novel and infinitely more wholesome than ninety-nine per cent of such.

Irving Browne in "The Lawyers Easy Chair" is incapable of being dull. He is particularly felicitous in this issue, in the drubbing he bestows on Ignatius Donnelly.

Heed the Warning.

The common and ever present warning of kidney trouble, back ache and weakness in back, are quickly relieved by Dr. Chase's Pills. The original and only 25 cents Kidney-Liver Pills. When all other remedies fail, they cure.

McFarvey, Alliston, livery man, to use Chase's Ointment, which he did, was cured, has had no return of them and highly recommends this Ointment as a sovereign cure for Piles.

The Proper Treatment.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Thursday night a pedlar named John Brady, attempted to assault a four-year old girl in Alice street. But her screams drew a crowd. Brady was caught and yesterday it took Magistrate Denison just eight minutes to sentence him to two years in prison and 45 lashes in three instalments, six, twelve and eighteen months from now.

Don't Forget

To visit Campbell's Photo Studio this fine weather. He is making excellent work now. Remember the place, one door above Belyea's grocery store, Main street.

Death of Albert Palmer, ex-M.P.P.

Mr. Albert Palmer, ex-M. P. P. for Queens county, died at his residence, Hampstead, on Saturday. Mr. Palmer was first elected to the house of assembly in 1882, and was again elected in 1886 and 1890. He did not offer for the present house. At the session of 1886 he was elected deputy speaker, and during two houses satisfactorily discharged the duties of that office, as he had those of warden of his county before he went to the legislature. Mr. Palmer was born at Hampstead and lived there all his life. For a long time he carried on business as a trader. In general politics he was a very hearty Liberal, and personally he was a man full of good nature and very moderate and fair in his judgment of others. He was probably on the sunny side of sixty years of age.—Globe.
