CORRESPONDENCE.

Northampton.

DEC. 22.—If we do not have some snow before long the farmers will not get as much hauling done as they would like to before spring.

There is excellent skating on the river at present.

Mr. Gill of Gibson, is visiting his son Mr. Justus Gill of this place.

Misses Etta Monteith, Maria Rogers, Marion Dibblee, Eva and Allie Gill are home spending Xmas holiday.

Mr. William Patterson paid his old home a flying visit this week returning to Boston on Tuesday.

A very sad event occurred here on Wednesday last, by the sudden death of James Roulston with congestion of the lungs. Mr. Roulston, but a few days before, was in the best of health and was a type of physical manhood. Being a member of Paradise Lodge, I. O. G. T., he was interested on Friday with the ceremonies laid down in the rituals of that order.

Frederick Patchell, the adopted son of Mr. William Monteith, died last Sunday after a long illness of consumption, and was interred at Greenbank on Sunday.

Mrs. S. A. Rogers is slowly sinking. At the time of writing she is unconscious and the end of her earthly career is fast approaching.

Hartland.

DEC. 22.—They have been trying to get a bridge across the air-hole in front of the village so that a road can be built directly across to the other side of the river. It is understood the Government will pay for the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are in Woodstock for Christmas holidays.

The Christmas trade has been pretty good, yet not up to the average. There being no snow consequently not much hauling in.

Perth Centre.

DEC. 24.—Weather continues very fine. The rain of last week brought the carriages out again, and it looks very much as though we will have a green Xmas.

Geo. T. Baird has been very sick but is on the mend now.

Severnmore Trafton is sick with typhoid fever, and is still very low.

Rev. Mr. Peppers of Andover, preached here Sunday, Dec. 16, and had a large hearing.

The Tobique Valley Ry. has closed down for the winter.

Mrs. Stanley Street's little girl is very low, her recovery is doubtful.

Mrs. Bartley of the Narrows, was buried Sunday 16th. She was a very old lady.

Knowlesville.

DEC. 21.—We are losing the old men in this parish very fast this winter. In three weeks four have died. Last Friday the 14th inst., John Cotter of this place died. He was the oldest man in this parish, being nearly 90 years of age. He has lived with his son-in-law, James Rogan, for the last 15 years. He was buried in the Roman Catholic burying ground at Foreston. The funeral was last Sunday.

Mrs. William Morehouse has gone to Lowell, Mass., to spend the winter with her daughter.

H. N. Frazie has been brought home from the lumber woods sick. Dr. Welsh is attending him. Our school closed to-day. The teacher has gone home to spend the vacation. He is to teach the next term. He has taught here the two last terms and is considered an excellent teacher.

G. C. Watson will sell Furniture until Jan. 1st, '95, for 10 per cent. off usual low selling prices.

It's All Over

And we find that our stock is pretty well gone. It's all over the country too, that we sold goods cheap, and this is the reason we are nearly Sold Out. If we sold cheap then we'll sell cheaper now, because we don't want to keep the goods.

A few Albums left and we'll sell them for $1.00, they'd be cheap at $1.50, but we don't want them, do you?

Some Mirrors from 25 cts. to $1.50 before Xmas. But Now We'll Sell Them Lower. All Xmas Novelties at panic prices the balance of this year.
