THE BYCICLE fiend is on the war path. The new bridge is the only scene for his operations just yet, but he devotes his attentions to it religiously. Every fine afternoon he may be seen rushing to and fro across the structure. It won't be more than two weeks till the streets will be ready for him.

PALM SUNDAY.—Interesting services were held in St. Gertrude's church on Sunday last, which was Palm Sunday. Sprigs of cedar, to represent palms were blessed by the priest, and after mass each of the congregation knelt at the altar and received a palm which was taken home. This is an ancient and touching ceremony.

Gallagher will undoubtedly have his request granted.

ST. JOHN RIVER DRIVE.—On Wednesday the 3rd of April at Fredericton, Fred Moore got the contract for the corporation drive of the lower St. John, from the Grand Falls to the mouth of the Macnequac. Tompkins coroner was called, he thought an inquest unnecessary.

AN OLD WOODSTOCKER.—The Caribou Republican of a recent date had quite a lengthy obituary on the death of Mr. Wm. Cunliffe, of Fort Kent, who the Republican says, was one of the most influential and respected citizens of that place. Many persons in this county will remember the Cunliffe family. The subject of the obituary was born at Richmond in 1820. When a mere lad he went to Houlton, and later moved to Fort Kent. Until 1857, when he went into the lumber business for himself, he continued with Mr. Cary, taking part in and for some time having exclusive control of his lumber operations on the upper St. John.
