TO CORRESPONDENTS—The DISPATCH respectfully begs its regular correspondents to try and send some news in so as to reach the office Monday of each week.

KINGS WARD—The election of a town councillor to fill John Sutton's place in Kings ward, will take place on Monday next. John Arnold is the only candidate at present in the field.

QUEEN STREET—The sidewalk on Queen street has settled some, and the iron fixtures of the water system are projecting above it two or three inches. They are very dangerous pedestrians.

A HARTLAND ITEM—The water carried out one of Mr. Sawyer's piers in the mouth of the Becaguine on Monday morning, broke the boom, and as a result Mr. Sawyer has lost some of his logs. It is believed the loss is not serious.

FAST DAY IN MAINE—The governor of the State of Maine has issued a proclamation making Thursday, the 25th inst., a day of fasting and prayer, and to "perpetuate the sacred and honored custom of the Pilgrim Fathers, who so firmly and securely planted on our shores the christian faith."

The subject of incorporation will be discussed at a future meeting. The St. Stephen board is also not incorporated.

THE WIND STORM—The wind blew a regular gale on Monday, all day long, and up to midnight. There was no particular damage done in town, but as was expected reports from St. John, Halifax and other places on the coast, are to the effect that the gale was one of the worst in a decade. Fortunately it came from the east, and St. John harbor being well protected from an easterly storm, the damage to shipping was not heavy.

A DOG'S FALL—John Tattersall was on the early train on his way to Houlton on Tuesday. His dog accompanied him. As he passed from one car to another the dog in his zeal to follow his master fell off the train. He followed the train for some time and then gave up the chase. He has not been heard from since.

A NEW FIRM IN HARTLAND—R. W. Richardson and W. D. Keith of Hartland, have formed a partnership under the name of Richardson & Keith. They will keep a general store, buy farm produce, and generally do such a business as will suit the needs of the place. They will occupy the store now run by Mr. Richardson which has been fitted up in good shape.

BEARS DEAD—The celebrated Haggerty bears of McAdam are deceased. They were found dead in their quarters one morning last week. A boy was left in charge of them by Mr. Haggerty, but he does not appear to have given the bears the attention they were used to. According to the informant of THE DISPATCH, one of the elder bears had been playing the cannibal trick on a younger member of the family.

HERR JOSEF HEINE, will perform on Tuesday the 23 inst., in Graham's Opera House the March and Prayer from the opera of Moses in Egypt with all the original variations on a violin valued at $3000, with only one string on it. IMMIGRANT BOYS—One day last week no less than 122 young English boys arrived at McAdam Junction, en route for Brockville, Ont. They were in charge of a clergyman and were well behaved and orderly. In fact they appeared to be trained like a little army. They are spoken of as a fine looking lot of lads. After they get to Brockville they will be sent to farmers around the country. The first year they are to work for board and clothes, and afterwards be paid what they are worth.

The district secretary, J. G. Calkin was elected delegate to the next grand council which will meet in Amherst N. S., next July. The next district meeting will be at Hartland on July 1st.

EASTER DAY was very fine and spring like, and large congregations attended the various churches. At St. Gertrude's the attendance was, as usual very good, and special music was rendered. In St. Luke's the floral decoration though not profuse were beautiful. Service was held at 8 o'clock in the morning at the Parish church and at the usual hours in St. Luke's. The pulpit in the Methodist church was decorated with flowers and the service partook especially of an Easter character. In the Presbyterian, Free Baptist and other churches the day was observed.

A GOOD POINT—According to the Beacon Fort Fairfield's debt for the C. P. R. and the B. & A. is about $45,000. The Beacon is not favorable to having Arrostook county vote $228,000 towards the proposed extension of the B. & A. to Ashland. It makes a good point when it says:—"If the Ashland branch will be as profitable an investment as is said, capitalists will build it alone if they find they can not get more aid from the taxpayers. In this world there does not long remain a chance to make a dollar without having someone come in to make it. We must all come to this view of railway building sooner or later."

C. OF E. MEETING—The annual meeting of the corporation of the Parish of Woodstock was held in the parish hall on Monday morning. The finances of the parish was shown to be in a satisfactory state from the reports of the church wardens Messrs. B. H. Smith and F. Byron Bull. Gallagher had obtained rules nisi for certiorari, which put into English so that it can be understood by the common herd, means that the Scott Act people have to show case why the convictions made by the police magistrate be not quashed, and quashed in English or to be correct, "United States" language means, "set aside". Mr. A. B. Connell, Q. C., appeared last week to show why the convictions should not be laid aside. Mr. G. F. Gregory, Q. C., and Mr. Gallagher appeared for the Kavanagh and Waugh cases. Mr. D. U., of which the deceased was an active member, formed in procession at their hall and marched to the house for the funeral service, after which they walked at the head of the procession to the hall, where they broke ranks and the remainder of the procession passed through. The chief mourners were the husband Mr. Wallace Hay, the four sons, two brothers, and Mr. Hugh Hay, father-in-law. The funeral was one of the largest seen in the town for years, and the general turnout evidenced the high opinion held of Mrs. Hay by all classes in the community.
