To ensure insertion Advertisers and Contributors must have their copy in this office before SIX O'CLOCK on MONDAY EVENING. No matter of any kind can be inserted after TEN O'CLOCK on TUESDAY MORNING, excepting outside correspondence. "The Dispatch" goes to press immediately after noon on Tuesday.

LOCAL TOPICS.

THE trees are beginning to bud.

THIS is the day to get a "move" on.

THE town council will meet on Monday.

FALLING.—The water in the river is falling rapidly.

CLEANED UP.—The streets around town are being well cleaned up.

SUCH an April was never known in the experience of the "oldest."

MAY DAY.—This is May day, but their will be no May pole on the ice this spring.

IT NEVER FAILS.—The watering cart was out on Monday and the rain came early on Tuesday.

THE ABERDEEN left the wharf at Woodstock at six o'clock this morning, two hours earlier than usual.

NO QUORUM.—A meeting of the Agricultural Society was called for Saturday, but there was not a quorum present.

OWING to the advance in the price of flour, local bakers have been compelled to raise the price of the 2 lb. loaf to 7 cents.

AT the regular meeting of the St. Gertrude's Temperance society on Monday evening, a paper on Dean Swift was read by T. C. L. Ketchum.

A TRUE CASE.—Jacksonstown is not much of a place for the growth of law suits, but when they do get into the courts, they look for a true verdict.

IN THE RING.—The new bicyclists, of which there are many have nearly all had their first experiences by way of "headers" and broken machines.

GOING TO ASHLAND.—Aroostook County, Me., has voted by a large majority in favor of raising money to extend the Bangor & Aroostook to Ashland.

NAMING THE STREETS.—The chairman of the street committee expects to have the names placed on the corners of the streets, if the council will approve. It will not cost much, and progress is the word.

CRICKET.—The cricket club held its first meeting last week, the president Rev. Canon Neales presiding. A committee was appointed to look after a ground. It is probable that the park will be secured.

THE regular annual meeting of the Woodstock Tennis Club will be held at the residence of Mr. W. P. Jones, on Thursday evening, 2nd inst., at 8 o'clock. All members of the club are requested to be present.

MORE LIGHT.—Two new lights have been placed by the electric light committee in much needed localities. One is on the corner of Main and Queen Streets, the other across the bridge opposite G. F. Smith's store.

WEDDING.—Mr. Geo. Upham and Miss Isabella Hale, daughter of J. J. Hale, and neice of F. H. Hale were married at Fredericton on Tuesday of last week. The groom is receiving the congratulation of his many friends.

FAINTED IN CHURCH.—Rev. W. O. Raymond fainted at the morning service in St. Mary's church yesterday. He was all right however last night, and occupied the pulpit of St. John's (Stone) church.—St. John Telegraph, Monday.

A NEW RESIDENCE.—Harry Faulkner has moved into his large new house on South Main St. The old house in which he has lived with his father is being torn down. This is one more improvement to this rapidly improving section of Woodstock.

DR. ATKINSON M. P. P., is now in Los Angeles, Cal., under the care of a doctor. Letters from him state that his health is a good deal better than when he left the county. Everyone will wish him a speedy recovery and a safe return to Carleton.

ACCIDENT TO THE BOAT.—The steamer Aberdeen met with quite an accident while going down river the other day. A log caught in her wheel, near Eel river, and it being impossible to steer her, she ran into a ferry wire, and broke her smokestack.

DEATH OF MISS CLEMENTS.—Word was received on Friday of the death in St. John of Miss Elizabeth Clements, daughter of the late Peter Clements, and sister of Mrs. Wm. F. Dibblee of Woodstock. The remains were brought to Woodstock and buried in the parish churchyard.

THE ABERDEEN is making regular trips between Woodstock and Fredericton and is carrying a large amount of freight. As the water is high she is landing below the bridge. When it becomes lower, as it will, soon enough, she will land at the old place above the Queen street station.

BRADFORD H. PALMER has bought G. F. Plummer's farm at Waterville. Mr. Plummer who recently moved to Fort Fairfield was down last week completing the conveyance. The farm is one of the finest in the county and lies next to Mr. Palmer's old homestead the whole of which make about 550 acres.

GETTING AROUND.—It will be remembered that Andrew Currie, of Richmond, met with a serious accident several months ago. He was driving out of town and fell from his wagon, thereby fracturing his skull. Dr. Hand who was attending him says that he is getting along well and is now able to do a little light work.

ALL IN BLUE.—Our old friend the watering cart, who meet with a serious accident the other day is on deck again and was busy sprinkling the streets on Monday. She has been painted a heavenly blue, and looks quite aesthetic. She wears her new feathers modestly and gracefully, and is still chums with the snow plough.

THE Wicklow and Simonds Parish S. School Convention will meet at Middle Simonds on Tuesday, May 7th. There will be an all day Convention beginning at 10 a. m. An interesting programme has been prepared and if nothing happens to prevent, the friends of Sunday schools will feel repaid for their time and trouble in attending.

ADVENT CHAPEL.—"How to be made free from sin," will be the subject of discourse at the Advent Chapel next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All seats are free, and a welcome to all. Elder J. Denton will preach at the Advent Chapel, Jacksonville, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject, "The rock, the keys, and the gates."

SENT TO THE REFORMATORY.—In the circuit court on Monday Judge Vanwart sentenced young Taylor and Nason, found guilty of breaking into the Bazaar some time ago. Taylor was given four years and Nason three years and nine months in the provincial reformatory. Deputy Sheriff Foster will take the boys down tomorrow.

THE DAIRY SCHOOL at Sussex appears to be progressing favorably. The Record of that place says that at a recent meeting of the cheesemaker's association A. D. Alton of Bloomfield read a paper on "The most Essential points to be Observed about a Factory, and its surroundings," and J. F. Tilley a paper on "The Handling of Over-ripe milk."

ON THE DRIVE.—News from the drives is that the work is progressing favorably, though the rapidly falling water is likely to cause delay. Nixon & Tedlie, who are driving on Green river and Baker brook have one of their drives out. Driving on the Tobique has been slow on account of low water. Several rafts have passed by Woodstock within the past few days.

RETIRED.—John McFarlane has sold his property on Queen street to D. B. Gallagher Barrister at Law, who will have it fitted up for a law office. Mr. McFarlane who is going out of business has purchased a building lot on the corner of South Queen and Court street from D. F. Merritt, on which he will build a cottage at once. Mr. McFarlane's license to keep a bonded warehouse expires on the 30th of June and he will not apply to the government for a renewal.

LIVED IN WOODSTOCK.—Mr. George F. Atherton who died in Fredericton last week came to Woodstock about twelve years ago and went into the carriage business with D. A. Grant. For several years this partnership continued, and after the dissolution Mr. Atherton opened a grocery shop which he carried on for some time. Mr. Atherton was alderman for Fredericton for several years and was school trustee as well. In Fredericton, where he spent the most of his life and was best known, he was honored and esteemed by hosts of friends.

A TRAVELLER'S DILEMMA.—A commercial traveller who was in town last week had a distinct grievance to relate. He did not know of the regulations closing up the Queen street station after the arrival of the 1 p. m. express. So he was in no rush to get his trunks. When he sent for them after a couple of hours they could not be got, and he claims that he lost a day thereby. It is a decidedly inconvenient arrangement, and Woodstock should be accorded better treatment. Here is something for the Board of Trade to take vigorously in hand.

VICTORIA CORNER FIRE.—A spectator of the recent fire at Victoria Corner says it was one of the most terrifying scenes imaginable. The wind was blowing a hurricane, and when once the fire got a hold, there was no stopping it. Under such circumstances a city fire brigade would have been well-nigh powerless. Some ten buildings were burned to the ground in an hour and a half. Everything was so dry that wherever a spark fell it set fire. Mr. Oscar Thistle lost three head of stock, which it was found impossible to rescue. Late reports from Mr. Thistle are that his injuries are very severe. His palate was badly burned, and there is much doubt as to his recovery.

THE BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLES UNION connected with the Albert street church of Woodstock, celebrated Founder's day on last Friday evening, with an entertainment each feature of which had some connection with the work of the union. After song service and the Lords Prayer, Charles Atherton, president of the union addressed to the audience some words of salutation, after which he explained the purpose and method of the programme. Miss Lizzie Horseman, president of the junior union, spoke on behalf of the society, she represented, gave a summary of its history and explained its purpose. Mrs. W. S. Saunders conducted a question drill of the junior union, the questions covering the sacred literature and missionary course of 94 and 95. Charles Atherton made an address giving the history, the aims, and the work of the senior society. F. A. Good's paper "The Hope of Our Society" was an excellent one. A recitation "Our Youthful Army," was by Miss Alma Smith; an address "The Federation of Baptist Young People," was by Rev. A. F. Baker; Miss Kate Saunders read a paper "Our Sufferings," Miss Carrie Scribner a paper "Our Gifts," and Miss Kate Sutton a paper "Our Songs." A collection of $5.75 was taken up. Rev. A. F. Baker pronounced the benediction. The singing throughout was good, and the meeting was voted instructive and enjoyable.

2 Neglects and the Result.

Neglect cold in the head and you will surely have catarrh. Neglect nasal catarrh and you will surely induce pulmonary diseases or catarrh of the stomach with its disgusting attendants, foul breath, hawking, spitting, blowing, &c. Stop it all by using Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, 25 cents a box cures.

Orilla's Prominent Furniture Dealer Gives Facts.

Orilla, Feb. 10th, 1794. EDMANSON, BATES & CO. Gentlemen,—About three or four weeks ago I had an attack of Itching Piles. I tried two or three different remedies recommended by druggists as "the best and only cure" etc., etc., but got no relief. About the time I was beginning to despair of finding any relief, with some slight misgivings I bought a box of your pile cure, which I am pleased to say gave me almost instant relief and permanent cure. I consider your Ointment a God-send. ALF. J. DEAN.

Norwegian Crisis.

CHRISTIANIA, April 30.—Premier Stang today informed all the parties in the Shorthring that he cannot accept office again, and that he is urging the King to come to a decision on the proffered resignation of the Cabinet. The Premier also declared that all Parliamentary action must be postponed until it is possible to form a new Ministry, as circumstances make it impossible for the present Ministry to continue in office.
