CORRESPONDENCE.

Centreville.

MAY 20.—Cold weather seems now to be the order of the day. People have had to put their stoves up again after having them safely stowed away for the summer.

Our new teacher is getting along nicely and seems to be liked both by parents and scholars.

S. Burtt who was injured at a barn raising a short time ago is able to be round again. He has the job of building the Baptist parsonage.

Mr. Barclay who is at present building the wall for Dr. Baker's new house is to put up the parsonage wall.

Talk about roads! But the road between Centreville and Florenceville takes the cake. It is hardly safe for a light waggon at all, and after dark a walk is the safest gait possible. One could wish the road commissioner had to drive over it just once.

While we are complaining one would like to call attention to one thing more. Just opposite the school house is a barn and the stench arising from the large manure pile is something terrible. At least so it seems to a person driving past. It is wonderful how the children and teacher stand it.

Leeland Clark spent last week visiting in northern Aroostook. It is reported that he had very pleasant company.

Rev. Mr. Morgan occupied the Baptist pulpit morning and evening. He had good congregations.

Rev. Mr. Cahill took Mr. Morgan's appointments.

There is a new pacer in town who seems to be making it for all comers.

John McLean was away all last week on account of the death of his brother who some two years ago got injured at a barn raising. He has suffered terrible ever since and death came almost as a relief. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. McLean and family.

C. M. Sherwood has a four horse team hauling from the station.

Bristol.

MAY 20.—George Gallup, a well known young man, died of consumption on Wednesday last, and was buried on Friday. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Addington Giberson and Rev. D. Brooks.

J. T. Allan Dibblee and J. N. W. Winslow came to Bristol and Gordonsville on Friday, returning the same day. We hope our representative will note the fact that Bristol stands in the same position as Hartland regarding a ferry, and possibly has as just a claim for government aid as the latter place.

Rev. G. M. Young exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Young of Hartland on Sunday last.

Percy Fitzgerald of Glassville, has opened up a harness shop in part of the building occupied by M. A. Tompkins, who is doing a good business in the boot and shoe line.

The S. A. inspector passed through Bristol one day last week, and since then one of our citizens has been taking a vacation in the upper county. Our barber has also closed his shop and left for parts unknown.

Archie Rogers has gone to Fort Fairfield where he has obtained a situation for the summer.

John Mead is home from Sunbury county where he has been for the past year.

A. W. Phillips' new house, which has just been completed, presents a very fine appearance, standing as it does on an elevation in the rear of the village.

Erlon Bell is building a new house.

J. T. G. Carr, of Hartland, was here on Friday looking over the goods in Bell's store.

James Staten, who has been ill for some months died early on Sunday morning. He leaves a wife and three small children. He was a brother of Wm. Staten of Foreston.

Bath.

MAY 20.—M. A. Smith, Esq. representing Balm Bros., Woodstock, has on hand a large stock of farming machinery, wagons, carriages, and at prices hard to beat. One carload of machinery arrived this week and more daily expected. Smith is a hustler and a favorite with all classes.

Mr. Jarvis Tracey is about to erect a large hotel, he has already commenced operations.

Mrs. Nelson Drost is quite low with pneumonia.

Miss Boyd who has been laid up with the same disease is now quite well.

Misses Jesse Hooper and Mary Everett have about concluded the series of meetings and will go to Aroostook to continue the same. Much good has been done it is not good to see them go. Five have already been baptized and many have been greatly helped.

Mrs. Giberson has been quite sick for some time.

We take pleasure in congratulating Mr. E. W. Seely of the birth of a daughter. Would not the cigars be in order?

Grand Falls.

MAY 20.—There will be a grand ball in Victoria hall on Friday, the 24th. This will be the last of Victoria hall as a scene of the gay and festive dance, for Mr. McClusky is having it fitted up as a dry goods department. He had not room enough down stairs.

The post office was entered last Wednesday night by some enterprising burglars, who walked off with the enormous load of nine cents lawful coin of the realm.

There was quite an excitement in town on Wednesday last, caused by a runaway. Miss Ulie Langen was driving her father's horse, Billie, when he became frightened and started on the run. Ulie did her best to hold him, but all she could do was to keep him on the road. When he got home he noticed the bars were up just in time to jump, so over he went wagon and all, throwing Ulie out in the yard. She was not hurt at all, not even a scratch on her, but the wagon was badly wrecked.

K. D. C. Pills tone and regulate the bowels.
