Prof. Powers of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Fredericton, was here last week soliciting subscriptions in aid of the institute.
Mr. LePage, Upper Kent, delivered an excellent address on missionary labor in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening.
On this date several marriages are on the tapis. A prominent teacher and a medical student will, it is rumored, shortly slip his head into the matrimonial noose.
Miss L. E. Fitzgerald held her millinery opening on Saturday. Many admired the artistic arrangement of the windows and interior which were superbly decorated for the occasion.
The annual school meeting for Centreville district was held on Thursday. E. L. West was elected trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of L. B. Clark.
Dr. Cody, Lewiston, Me., arrived here on Thursday and is the guest of G. W. White. His son Master Clinton Cody, is slowly recovering from his severe illness.
A bear has been seen on several occasions prowling in the vicinity of Long's swamp on the road from Centreville to Florenceville. Several local nimrods propose to hunt and collar bruin next week.
Centreville will soon enjoy telephonic communication with Woodstock and Arcootook County. The N. B. Telephone Co. intend to extend the line already constructed from Centreville to East Florenceville to Hartland without further delay.
Our popular lawyer J. J. Gallagher, went to Woodstock Thursday to attend a session of the Probate Court and obtained letters of administration on the estate of Joseph Kilpatrick late of Greenfield. The estate was appraised at $500.00 and J. H. Kilpatrick appointed administrator.
Robert Parkins, Walter Williams, Mrs. Horace Dayton, A. Wilnot Hay and others from Woodstock passed Sunday here.

North Richmond.

Oct. 14.—Rev. F. Frizzle of Debec, and Mr. Harrison, Canterbury Station, held a missionary meeting on Thursday night of last week, in the Methodist church here. Mr. Frizzle made a short introductory address on Methodist missionary work, after which Mr. Harrison addressed the meeting. Miss Mabel Campbell presided at the organ. $470 was collected from the audience and the further amount of $18.00 was subscribed for missionary work.
John Watson and his son Bertman returned on Thursday from Montana where they have been for six years. They will probably remain here.
There was a pleasant party at the residence of George Wilson last Thursday evening. About 35 ladies and gentlemen were present. Music was supplied by three violinists Lee McBride, Will Gray and George Wilson.
Misses Jennie and Ella Gartley and Messrs. Ernest and James Gartley drove to Presque Isle last Wednesday to spend a few days with friends there.
Potato digging is finished and farmers are not particularly jubilant over the crop.
Last Thursday was school meeting day. Alex. Bell retired from the board of trustees, and F. I. Wilnot Watson was elected to fill the vacancy.
James Watson was re-elected councillor for this parish, leading the pole. This will be his 18th year at the council.
I heard a young man remark last evening that if the Cavville correspondent of THE DISPATCH didn't get onto himself he would get his visage injured.

Florenceville.

Oct. 14.—The anniversary concert and supper on Wednesday evening last was a grand success, the proceeds amounted to over $50.00 they were both well worth prices asked, the supper was something long to be remembered, the waiters were very attentive to the wants of everybody and what they gave us to eat was the best that could be got. I am sorry editor of THE DISPATCH couldn't have been with us, he is so fond of pumpkin pie. The concert consisted of recitations, dialogues, and instrumental music. The songs rendered by Mrs. T. McCain and S. D. Hamilton were good, and the one entitled "You can't Play in our Yard," sung by Miss Jennie Jewett and Miss Grace Peters was worth price of admission alone. It is rumored that the concert with some additional pieces will be taken to Centreville during Xmas holidays if satisfactory arrangements can be made. No doubt it would pay.
Our blacksmiths Scott and Steve are doing a rushing business.
A number of our boys have gone to the woods and I suppose there will be more to follow later on.

Perth Centre.

Oct. 14.—Alex. Dervey of Red Rapids, cut his throat with an axe on Wednesday morning (ninth) at Chas. Roberts' of same place. The cut reaches from ear to ear and deeper at places, the wind pipe was almost cut off, but the axe did not touch the jugular vein. Mr. Roberts had just sharpened the axe the night before. Wednesday night Dewey went to bed seemingly all right, in the same room with the teamster. In the morning after the teamster had gone to the barn, Dewey got up and dressed himself went down stairs and came across this sharp axe by which he did the deed. After doing so he went in the kitchen and got behind the stove. Mrs. Roberts came in a few minutes later and found him there with his throat cut. She at once made the alarm and Mr. Roberts was soon on the spot, and found nothing could be done but to take him to Perth where he could receive surgical aid. The team was quickly in readiness, the distance of 14 miles from Red Rapids to Perth was soon covered, and on arrival Drs. Welling and King were summoned. On examination it was found necessary to take several stitches in the wind pipe after which they sewed up the cut by putting the patient under influence of ether. He was then put under the care of a nurse for several days and found he was doing very well and feeling better. He was taken to his home at Red Rapids. The doctors say he cannot live only a short time they also claim he is insane. It has been noticed previous to this affair that he acted very strange, but was not considered dangerous. Dewey is an old man some seventy odd years, and has a wife in Albert county whom he left about 16 years ago and settled on Tobique river. He also has two daughters married at Dorchester, N. B. He has a farm at or near Red Rapids which he decided to Frenchman to maintain him the rest of his days. Dewey claims he was not used well and would not stay at home on the farm.

Lumbermen are making their way to the woods again large crews of men and teams pass here daily. Hale & Murchie, Donald Fraser & Sons, Jas. McNair, Sharp & Co., Geo. W. Upham, R. Esty and Baird & Sadler, are the principle lumbermen on Tobique waters this winter.

G. W. Upham has his mill frame on the ground and will commence building at once.

The Union hall is again under headway. Senator Geo. T. Baird has contributed very liberally towards its completion he has employed carpenters to finish the outside and it is rumored that the Sunday school teachers are considering very seriously some means by which they can raise money enough to finish the inside to hold Sunday school.

Mr. A. L. Green is making good progress with his new buildings.

You can hear the hammers of blacksmiths E. W. Harmon and Peter Anderson late and early. Both are first class workmen.

Miss Ella Parker of Woodstock, has opened up a millinery shop here and just received a large stock of new goods. Miss Parker is now ready to accommodate ladies wishing hats in the latest styles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gabel and Conductor McKendrick of Woodstock spent Sunday in town. On Friday evening the 18th there will be an entertainment and basket social at Rosena. Proceeds for church affairs, all are cordially invited.

The long looked for rain came at last and will be much appreciated.

Greenville.

Oct. 12.—Cold frosty nights remind us that winter is approaching. Prepare to make your evenings pleasant by subscribing for THE DISPATCH!

Oct. 14.—The municipal election was held here last week, and were closely contested, resulting in the election of Mr. Patrick Corbett of Johnville, and Mr. George Brittain of Bristol.

Messrs. Thomas Fewer of Woodstock, and W. R. Gillen of Hartland paid a business visit to our village last week.

Miss Audrey Corcoran leaves for Emporium, Penn., next week. She will be greatly missed by her large circle of friends.

The approaching provincial election is engaging the attention of some of our oldest and most prominent merchants.

Quite a number went from here to nomination. Which of the candidates lost the bottle? and who found it?

F. B. Meagher was here last week.

Mrs. D. M. Giberson entertained a number of young people at a pound party, and all returned home well pleased.

Messrs. H. B. Miller, A. F. Crandall and Miss Nettie Crandall attended the concert in Bristol, and all pronounced it a grand affair.

C. E. Gallagher Esq., expects to occupy his new store next week.

I am glad to see Mr. Jones around again.

The corporation drive has got down as far as Bath.

There will be a basket sociable held in Johnville hall next Thursday evening where a good time may be expected.

Mrs. Alfred Giberson has gone on a visit to her home at Tracey Mills.

Messrs. Estabrooks, Quinan, Drs. Mont, Cook-stone and Merrithew spent Sunday at "The Millbury" House.

Mr. Byron Shaw has opened a blacksmith shop in the old Peters' stand, and as he is a skilled workman he should be well patronized.

Knowlesville.

Oct. 14.—The people of this place were on Wednesday shocked to hear that F. A. W. Simms was dead. On Tuesday he went to Hartland and returned home, took his tea and after tea while conversing with his family fell out of his chair and expired. Some few years ago he had the grippe, and since that time has had heart trouble. Deceased was born Oct. 17, 1838, at Plymouth, Vermont Co., N. S. He came to Carleton county in 1860. During that year he joined the surveying party of the late James R. Hartley, and helped to survey a portion of Knowlesville, Glassville and Johnville. In Knowlesville he chose a lot of land and commenced farming, and after a few years he engaged in mercantile business until 1876. When he moved to South Knowlesville he followed farming till his death. The deceased was united in marriage Dec. 8th to Ellen G. Spiney, who survives him. His family consisted of nine children, six sons and three daughters. Four sons and two daughters survive him, two sons and one daughter precede him to the spirit land. He held the offices of justice of the peace and deacon of the F. B. church, and sec'y to the board of trustees of the school district in which he resided. He was interested in the burying ground in this place Thursday afternoon. Rev. A. Giberson preached the sermon. The congregation was the largest for years, if not the largest that ever attended a funeral in this place.
Last week Wm. Dickey and James Burlock of Cornhill, Kings Co., paid a short visit to friends of this place.

Turkey Makes Promises.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Daily News will today publish a despatch from Berlin repeating the assertion that the Sultan has agreed to grant the reforms in the administration of Armenia demanded by the powers, after which, it is thought, Said Pasha, the foreign minister, will resign and other changes will be made in the government.

BOYER BROS.

I got acquainted very quick
With Teddy Brown, when he Moved in the house across the street,
The nearest one, you see.

I climbed and sat upon a post
To look, and so did he;
I stared and stared across at him,
And he stared back at me.

I s'posed he wanted me to speak;
I thought I'd try and see—
I said, "Halloo!" to Teddy Brown;
He said, "Halloo!" to me.
