

LOCAL TOPICS.

J. J. GALLAGHER is doing a good law business at Centerville.

Rev. G. W. MACDONALD will preach a temperance sermon in the Reformed Baptist church next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock.

THE annual meeting of the People's Union Agricultural Society will be held in Mathe-son's Hall, Hartland, on Friday evening of this week.

THE ABERDEEN COMING.—According to the Fredericton Gleaner the steamer Aberdeen will come up to Woodstock today and continue her trips as long as water permits.

A BOARD OF TRADE is an influential body. A recent resolution passed by the Woodstock Board on coal oil duties, is reprinted in the Chicago Journal of Commerce of the 9th, inst.

SEWERS.—It is not likely that much more work on the sewers will be done this season. Crews of men are now engaged in laying pipe on St. Gertrude, Connell and Green streets.

"To make a long story short, the drive is three miles above Martland." The above is quoted from an address delivered on the steps of the Wilbur House by a "misbeliever."

A BASKET SOCIAL will be held at the residence of Mr. Robt. Haines Monday evening, Nov. 25. The proceeds for the benefit of Rev. Mr. Bleakney. All are cordially invited to attend.

A 10c. CIGAR FOR 5c.—The Famous Stonewall Jackson cigar Havana filled and strictly hand made has by far the largest sale of any cigar in the Dominion for sale by Garden Bros. Druggists.

GUS TAYLOR, formerly a Woodstock horseman, now of St. Stephen has recently purchased in Aroostook county Trident, Jr., 5.27½; Jerome, a three-year-old, and a fine brood mare by Manbrino Charter.

DANCE ON FRIDAY NIGHT.—On Friday night of this week Jim Montgomery and Bruce Vanwart will hold another dance in Cole's hall. Prof. Barry's orchestra will furnish music as usual. A good crowd should turn out.

PREJUDICED smokers who are under the impression that they cannot get a good cigar for 5c., should try the famous Stonewall Jackson Cigar and will be convinced they are superior to many so-called 10c. cigars. For sale by Garden Bros., druggists.

HARRY W. PLUMMER of Fort Fairfield, son of G. F. Plummer formerly of Waterville, N. B., has sold out his interest in the starch factory at Fort Fairfield, and has gone to Trenton, N. J., to resume his old position in the Trenton Watch Factory.

PROF. WHITE's singing class will meet in the Albert street Baptist church next Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock, standard. A large attendance is requested. Prof. White's rates are low, and our young people should take advantage of this opportunity to cultivate their talents in the vocal line.

A SUDDEN death occurred in town yesterday morning. Jas. Cunningham a boy of between 18 and 19 years of age, passed away very unexpectedly, although he had been suffering from heart disease for some time. Deceased belonged to North Newburg and has worked for Dr. Colter, M. P., for several years past.

A REAL musical treat was given in the F. C. B. church on Saturday evening last by the Harper's Ferry Jubilee singers. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, but those who attended came away delighted. The singers are using their talent to collect funds for Storer College, Harper's Ferry.

MISS LOUIE TAYLOR's concert in the Opera House this evening will commence at 8.30 o'clock in order not to interfere with the prayer meetings. If the public misses a good musical treat it will be their own fault. Miss Taylor has appeared before audiences in Maine, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and has the reputation of an artist.

NEW STORE AT KNOXFORD.—George E. Chase, who opened a store at Somerville, this fall, has now taken the store at Knoxford recently occupied by J. C. Greene, and has put a good stock of goods on his shelves. Mr. Chase is at present at St. Louis Station, P. Q., clerking for Guy McCollom, and his wife is taking charge of the store.

ACCORDING to the report of the Fredericton Health Inspector to the board of health of that city, there were 66 cases of typhoid fever, 20 of diphtheria and 7 of scarlet fever, during the past year. Allowing Fredericton a population of 6000, or something over, and Woodstock a population of 4000, we stand much better with our 26 cases of infectious diseases, as against Fredericton's 93 cases.

WM. GOULD of Sprague's Mill, Me., and G. Fred Plummer, came to Woodstock on Monday. Mr. Gould, who conducted the races at Presque Isle last season, which were such a grand success, is negotiating for the Woodstock and Bristol trotting tracks, for a circuit of races. The celebrated horse Nelson 2.9½ will give an exhibition mile, if Mr. Gould succeeds in getting the track. Messrs. Gould and Plummer start for home on Wednesday.

THE executive committee of the Carleton County Teachers' Institute met in the grammar school building, Woodstock, on Saturday, to make arrangements for the meeting of the Institute next month. There were present: G. C. Crawford, president; A. A. Rideout, secretary; Miss Bessie Good, and Miss Helena Mulhern. They decided to hold the Institute in Woodstock on the 19th and 20th of December. A programme has been prepared which will be submitted for Inspector Meagher's approval. It will be published in this paper at a later date. A conversation will be held on the evening of the 19th, at which all the local dignitaries will be present.

THE DRIVE.—Messrs. Woodman and Murray two big lumbermen of St. John have been in Woodstock for some days looking after the drive. They went to Hartland on Monday where the rear end of the drive was at that time. Mr. Woodman says there are about 20 million feet of lumber to go into the boom this fall, and it can't be rafted till spring. This lumber is worth about $200,000 and the loss sustained through the failure to get this into the boom in time to be rafted and shipped may be placed at the interest on $200,000 for six months. The water is keeping up and it is expected that the last of the drive will be in the boom in ten days. The rear end passed Woodstock yesterday afternoon.

WILL THEY APPEAL?—A dispatch from Fredericton says that the bench of Judges has refused to grant a new trial, in the case of Glidden vs. town of Woodstock. A special meeting of the town council will be held on Friday night, to decide upon the question of appealing to the Supreme Court of Canada. It will be remembered, in connection with this case, that Mrs. Glidden, a widow, ran against a hydrant on Maple street, sustaining injuries. It was claimed by her that the hydrant was on the sidewalk, instead of being on the main road, where it should have been. A jury found her entitled to $1000 damages, and it is this decision which the Judges at Fredericton uphold, although Justices Tuck and Hannington dissented from the decision.

INTO THE SEWER.—Jas. Gallagher, of Gallagher Bros., has a grievance against the town, or the sewer authorities. On Saturday night, after the arrival of the late train, Mr. Gallagher was driving his passengers in a coach to J. T. Garden's house on Connell street. As Connell street is almost impassable by reason of the sewers, Mr. Gallagher was advised to drive around by Chapel and Green streets. He got his fares to their destination, but on the way back, on Green street, almost opposite Mr. McAfee's, one wheel of his coach went in the sewer, and he was thrown to the ground. Fortunately the sewer was not very deep at this point, or the horses would have suffered badly; as it was, a spring of the coach was broken, and it was only after getting help from the Wilbur house that Jim got out of the entanglement. He says there was no light on the street, and nothing to prevent anyone, no matter how careful, from driving into the trench.

THE KIRNESS.—Have you heard about it? We mean the old fashioned minuet to be given at Graham's Opera House, on the 10th of December by twelve little lords and ladies of "ye olden time." These same little people, possessed of modesty which characterized the "gentle folks" of long ago, have exacted most faithful promises from both Miss Hudson and the DISPATCH reporter not to reveal their names, but we are at liberty, however, to say that a more beautiful and stately host of children one has never seen. The Minuet of the 17th century, as presented by these little people, is one of the cutest pieces of child-work ever put on the stage. There will be a rustle of silks and velvets and old point lace, a glimpse of towering coiffure and rouge, and court plaster, a presentation of old time chivalry, dainty coquetry and court etiquette, and the gates of two centuries will glide apart, and lo! we have before us an ideal dance of long ago. It will delight the old gray heads, as well as those on the sunny side of twenty. "How grand-ma danced" will be introduced. Oh, merry will be the resurrection of the children time! for many distinguished personages will walk this stately dance. Good Queen Anne, Prince Eugene, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough of Blenheim fame, Lord and Lady Salisbury, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and many others. Don't miss it. Of course you have heard of the Gipsy "man" to be given as a faint glimpse of Bohemia. To say it is beautiful but faintly expresses it. The Kirness has so many attractions we can only say, Come one, come all.

Received this week on car "Monarch" and "Queen City" Flour for sale low at CARR'S, Hartland.

DIED.

HASTAY.—At Florenceville, Nov. 10th, of catarrh of stomach and other troubles, Leela A., aged 17 years 6 months 21 days, youngest daughter of John G. and Mrs. Hastay, leaving many relatives and friends to mourn her departure. [Courier please copy].

KIMBALL.—At Fort Fairfield Maine, Nov. 3rd, after a short illness of three days, Edith, aged 23 years, beloved wife of Leverett Kimball and daughter of William and Jane Savage of Lakeville, C. C., leaving a husband and infant twins with a large number of friends and relatives.

Received at CARR'S, Hartland, one car American Paraffine, for sale low to the trade.

Some of the old agents of the B. Laurance spectacles are advertising the balance of their old antiquated shop worn stock at 50 cents per pair. These should be good value if stamped Pebbles and B. L. All other goods advertised are out of date years ago and should not be confounded with the new styles as manufactured at the present time. The only place in Carleton county where the genuine axis cut pebble spectacles can be obtained is at W. E. Thistles, Druggist, Hartland. J. T. Collins, Woodstock, keeps the next lower grades. Thistle of Hartland, is cleaning out some of the old stock for 25 and 40 cents per pair.

Just received at CARR'S, Hartland, one car Lime and Brick.
