St. Andrews Excited.

Says a dispatch of the 1st instant to the St. John Globe: St. Andrews was up in arms last night. Yesterday morning John A. Hewitt, of Rolling Dam, whose wife and children deserted him because of his brutality, came into town and made an attempt to kidnap his oldest child, a girl of fourteen years. He seized her as she was going to school and took her to the house of his sister. The child's mother and a number of friends surrounded the house and kept him a prisoner all day. In the evening almost the entire population of the town turned out, determined to have the child or wreck the house in which she was confined.

The Sheriff was appealed to to protect property; he could do little. He urged the father to give up the child and seek to obtain her by process of the law, but Hewitt declared he would yield up his life before he would do that.

As the crowd was equally determined and bloodshed was feared, a warrant was procured for Hewitt's arrest for assault committed on his wife a few months ago. The sheriff's posse took him to jail. Then the crowd burst into the house and amid great excitement seized the imprisoned child and bore her to her mother's arms.

A Case of Murder.

Another case of murder has come to light near Peterboro, Ont. David Scollie, an old farmer, contracted with a couple named Gray, lately from Ireland, to run his farm, he to board with them, and at his death the Grays were to get the property in payment for his keep. On the 22nd of February, 1894, a fire occurred in the house and Scollie was burned to death. The trunk of the old man's body was found intact, but his head was missing. The Grays sold out and left for the states. Suspicion was aroused and on Saturday the government sent doctors to exhume the body. Their report has not yet been sent in, but it will show that murder was done.

To Burn the Sawdust.

Mr. Alex. Gibson has decided to make some improvements in the furnaces at his mills at Marysville so that he will be able to use for fuel the large quantity of sawdust that now goes to waste. Mr. Michael Mooney has been engaged to do the work. The changes will effect a large saving and will prove a benefit besides, as much of the waste sawdust has heretofore gone into the Nashua stream.—St. John Globe.

New Suits for 10 Cents.

"There are Mrs Brown's boys all out in new suits again. I never saw such a woman! They are the best dressed family in town, and anybody would think her extravagant if they didn't know that she did it all

With Diamond Dyes

The boys' clothes are made from her husband's old ones dyed over, while her own and the girls' dresses are dyed over, and many of the suits and gowns do not cost her over a dime, the price of a package of Diamond Dyes."

No experience is needed to do good work with Diamond Dyes. They make beautiful colors that are non-fading, and are prepared for all kinds of goods. Their three special Black dyes for different goods, make the blackest and fastest color known. Direction book and 40 samples colored cloth free.

To The Band's Friend.

The Band wishes to thank the enterprising individual who so kindly informed Mr. Smith (chairman of the celebration committee at Presque Isle) that we were no good and are not in fit shape to play for their celebration. In our correspondence with Mr. Smith we told him that we would take fifteen members. In doing this we intended to take twelve of our best performers and three outside men, which would make a good band for the occasion. We have a little more pride for our town and ourselves than to go anywhere with a poor band to represent Woodstock. If we had many such men here like our friend to encourage and help us along we would no doubt at the end of the season number about 600 members. In fact if all our citizens were like him our streets would be beautifully grown up with grass and there would be no need for screen doors or windows as cobwebs would soon answer the purpose. Then our sidewalks would be coated with nice soft downy moss equal to the best brussels carpet. In closing I would say that we have a pretty good idea who this friend is and we will try and remember him with gratitude. If he would kindly send his photo we would hang it in a prominent place in the band room—to drown dishords.

Hose Company Report.

The following report of Wellington Hose Co., No. 2, has been handed in to THE DISPATCH office.

WELLINGTON HOSE CO. NO. 2.

Gentlemen,—In submitting my semi-annual report, I find by the records that we have been called together since Nov. 1st, 1894, 14 times; 7 times for regular and special meetings, 7 times for alarms of fire. Nov. 12, Dec. 10, 1894; Jan. 5, Feb. 12, Mar. 11, 1895, regular meetings; April 3, 1895, a special meeting to take care of hose; April 8, 1894, a regular meeting. Dec. 27, 1894, alarm of fire at J. C. Marsten's; no hose wet. Jan. 11, 1895, alarm of fire at Geo. Green's, Main street; no hose wet. Feb. 27th, 1895, alarm of fire at Geo. Green's; 300 feet of hose laid, water on. Apr. 13, 1895, alarm of fire at foot of Queen street, fire in rubbish on river bank; no hose laid. Apr. 26, 1895, alarm of fire Almond Tabor's house, Houlton road; no hose laid. May 6, 1895, alarm of fire at J. D. Dickinson's, Main street; 300 ft. hose laid, water passed through. May 13, 1895, officers for Wellington Co., No. 2, for the next six months, Geo. E. True, foreman; Mitchell McKinley, asst. foreman; C. W. Hutchins, recording secretary; Marsallies Ryan, treasurer, were elected, after which the chief appointed Michael Gillespie, first pipeman; Geo. Green, second pipeman; Frank Ogden, axeman.

Armenian Situation.

The special correspondent of the Associated Press who is investigating the situation in Armenia has furnished the following correspondence, dated Djulfa, Russia, April 29:—"Many well informed persons in Western Persia believe that Asia Minor is on the verge of a great religious war, which the Sultan of Turkey is forcing upon the world in order to retain his prestige among the Mohammedans.

"As eight months have passed since the Sassoun and Moosh massacres, and nothing has been done in consequence by the Turkish Government, the Moslems of Persia are beginning to believe that nothing will be done and that Europe's protests count for nothing. As a result the Persians are beginning to talk of having a massacre of the Christians on their own account. I have been very frankly told in Persia that if nothing is done to punish the Turks for the Sassoun affair the zealous Moslems of Persia will seek to win the favour of their God by scourging and driving out the Christians. Since the facts of the Sassoun massacre were made known the Moslems have grown even more intolerant and resentful of the presence of the Christians among them, and especially of Christian missionaries, and the hatred of the Moslem priests has apparently grown more virulent and out-spoken. Beyond the occasional sacking of a Christian village along the western border of Persia, however, no violence has been attempted, but the more bitter of the Moslems make no concealment of their intentions. Were it not for the strong hand of the Persian Government and the good-will and protection of the Shah the Christian population of Persia would be murdered within a week.

"The missionaries themselves are not disposed to say much about these things, but keep working away with their schools and hospitals as though no danger menaced them; but if the Mohurrum season next June and July, passes over with no unpleasant result to them, it will be little short of the miraculous. This year's Mohurrum is of unusual menace to the missionaries, owing to the persecution of the Armenians and the open threats of the Persians.

"The news which I have just received of impending trouble in Bitlis, as well as in Van, is not reassuring.

"The situation in Armenia has grown no better for the presence of the Commission of Inquiry; and the Christian population of Eastern Turkey is at the present moment in greater peril than it was the week before the Sassoun massacre. Not only that, but the peril to Christian people has spread eastward into Persia."

The Reason Why.

—You'd scarce expect one of my age in merchandizing to engage, and hope to get a paying trade, without the leading paper's aid. And yet I did that very thing. I opened up my store last spring—this month the sheriff took my stock and sold it from the auction block. Don't view me with a scornful eye, but simply say as I pass by, there goes a man who seems to think he has no use for printers' ink.
