WAS IT A HORSE THIEF?—A horse mysteriously disappeared from the barn of R. W. Richardson, Hartland, on Thursday night. As yet there is no clue to the gentleman who "carried one end of the halter strap."

THE DISPATCH had a pleasant letter from John Lyons, carriage manufacturer of Macon, Georgia, last week. Mr. Lyons lived in Woodstock about 35 years ago and hopes to get up here this summer to visit his old home.

PATRONIZE IT.—Miss Effie Elaine Hext, entertainer, will be well worth patronizing, at Graham's Opera House tomorrow evening. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Young People's Guild of the Presbyterian church.

TELEPHONE.—A good many complaints are being made that the telephone system is not working satisfactorily these times. Wires are continually getting crossed, and from what can be learned the blame does not lie with the local agent here.

BROKE DOWN.—While the firemen were practising on Monday evening, a quite serious accident occurred. One of the wheels on the hand hose cart smashed up as they were turning a corner. Had there been a fire the result would have been disastrous.

TEMPERANCE.—On Sunday evening a gospel temperance meeting was held at Benton. The chair was occupied by C. A. Lewin, and good music was rendered by an efficient choir. There will be another meeting next Sunday when Mayor Saunders will preside.

The board of trade of Woodstock has been criticized for taking a too lively interest in town affairs, particularly with regard to the sewage question. Maine papers say that the Fort Fairfield board had a long discussion on the advisability of having a sprinkler for its streets.

FIRE.—The fire brigade was called out at twelve o'clock on Sunday to take charge of a small blaze in the ruins of D. A. Grant & Co's old factory. It didn't prove very serious. It is impossible to learn whether it caught from a cigar stump, or from coals left where men had been heating wagon tires.

IN MOURNING.—The United States consular agency in this town is in deep mourning over the death of Mr. Gresham, the American secretary of state. Mr. James has his flag at half mast for ten days, according to instructions, and mourning emblems are displayed on the outside of the building.

SPEEDY TRIAL.—It will be remembered that some time ago two Fredericton constables came to Woodstock in search of a man charged with breaking into J. S. Neill's hardware store. His name was Lee Lint and he was arrested at Pokok. At time of going to press, he was being tried under the Speedy Trials Act by Judge Steadman.

GETTING BETTER.—Everyone who heard of the sad news of the accident to George T. Holyoke, on a train in Wyoming, will be glad to hear that the result is not likely to be as disastrous as at first reported. The young man's left arm has been amputated, and he is said to be doing very well. It was at first thought that he could not recover.

JAMES CONNORS' BODY FOUND.—A body which was found in the river at Fredericton on Thursday 30 inst., was at first thought to be that of the German who was drowned after robbing a store at Perth, but such was not the case. It proved to be the body of James Connors who drove over an embankment and was drowned in the Tobique three weeks ago.

Smith, of the Woodstock Field Battery, passed through the city yesterday en route to their homes in Woodstock from Quebec, where they have been taking a course at the Royal School of Artillery. Elder A. H. Kearney has received and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Second Advent church at Dover, Me. He commences on his duties Sunday, June 16.

THE REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH at Canterbury extended a call to Samuel Greenlaw who accepted and was ordained and inducted on Tuesday evening of last week. Rev. G. W. MacDonald from St. John was present and preached the ordination sermon. Rev. A. H. Trafton put to Mr. Greenlaw the questions required by the constitution. Rev. B. Colpitts offered prayer. The right hand of fellowship was extended by Rev. G. W. MacDonald. Rev. Aaron Kinney delivered charge to Mr. Greenlaw, Rev. A. H. Trafton delivered the charge to the church.

SNEAK THEIVING.—Saturday of last week, Eugene Smith, the potato buyer, was having some potatoes sprouted and taken out of William Doran's cellar. Mr. Smith was assisting his men and by so doing was compelled to take off his coat, hanging it in another part of the cellar, which was partitioned from the room he was working in. When he went for his coat he discovered it was minus his pocket-book which contained fifty dollars in bills and six hundred dollars worth of notes. The thief or thieves entered from the outside cellar door, which gave them easy access, as well as a hidden view from the owner. —Ft. Fairfield Leader.

FIRE IN THE NEW BRIDGE.—Woodstock came within an ace of having no bridge across the river, on Friday. Some fellow travelling over it, must have knocked the fire out of his pipe, allowing it to fall into a crack between the planks, for at ten o'clock it was discovered that the planks were on fire, and with the wind so strong the whole flooring would in a few moments have been in a blaze. Fred O. Smith and P. McLaughlan and Norman Loane happened along in time got several pails of water and put the fire out. It would be a good plan to have some barrels of water on the bridge always, in case of such an accident occurring again.

WE DON'T WANT TO FIGHT.—The county of Aroostook was largely and beautifully represented in Woodstock last Wednesday in the persons of Mrs. S. Houlton, Houlton; Mrs. S. B. Merritt, Grindstone; Mrs. C. D. Merritt, Oakfield; Mrs. R. W. Shaw, Paddy's Hollow; Mrs. V. Wilson, Shawmut; Mrs. Moses Burpee, Houlton; Mrs. G. W. Richards, Trotting Park; and Miss Hattie Merritt, Snorksqualling Falls, who registered at the Wilbur House. Miss Merritt the only unmarried lady in the party, officiated as chaperon. They just filled four single carriages nicely, and as they drove about town it must have occurred to every reasonable person that a war between Canada and the United States could never be a popular affair.

ALBERT STREET CHURCH.—Rev. J. H. McDonald the new pastor of the Albert street Baptist church has arrived and taken a house on Victoria street. He occupied his pulpit on Sunday. In the evening he took as his text Job 22-2 "Can a man be profitable unto God?" He made it clear that a man could be profitable unto God. He said man had been exhorted to come to God, to escape hell, and for gain in this world, and he quoted Burns.

"The fear of Hell's the hangman's whip
To haul the wretch in order,
But where ye feel your honour grip,
Let that aye be your border."
But he, for his part, would exhort men to come to God because they could be profitable to him in his work of improving the whole human family. The house was as full as it could very well endure to be, and the sermon was listened to with every attention. Mr. McDonald is at a disadvantage in succeeding so popular a preacher as Mr. Baker but he is a young man and shows every evidence of being able to not suffer by the comparison.

A UNION TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATION, composed of St. Gertrudes Temperance Society, the Royal Templars of Temperance and the Sons of Temperance, is flourishing in Woodstock. The organization meets each month, and has officers of its own, distinct from the officers of the component societies. These officers are H. S. Allingham, Sec; Miss Lulu Boyer Asst. Sec; and Guy Saunders, Treas. There was a meeting on Monday evening in St. Gertrudes Hall at which Thomas Fewer presided. Prof. Berry's orchestra furnished the music for the evening. Other features of the programme were, a reading by Mr. Crawford, a black face specialty by A. L. Trenlet, an instrumental solo by Wm. Kennedy, a recitation by Miss Lulu Boyer, a recitation by Miss Smiley. The whole audience joined in God save the Queen. A large audience was present. The next meeting will be held in R. T. of T. Hall, King st., on Thursday the 11th of July. These gatherings are public.

Kidney Facts.

In Jan., 1892, my son was taken with Kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate he grew worse and by '93 had fallen from 195 lbs. to 93 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In four months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of this medicine. Jno. S. Hastings, St. Paul St., Montreal.

A Remarkable Cure.—J. W. Jennison, Gilford, spent between $200 and $300 in consulting Doctors; tried Dixons and all other treatments but got no benefit. One box of Chase's Catarrh Cure did me more good than all other remedies, and in fact I consider myself cured with a 25 cent box at that.

Hands and Ankles raw.

For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt-rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment allowed the burning, itching sensation. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

THE STORY

SUIT

Of those Grey Woolen Suits that we are having such a sale on would prove interesting if it could be told from beginning to end. The beginning would be in some peaceful pasture, where some kindly old farmer with a shepherd dog and gray whiskerettes, herded his sheep while the sheep let the wool grow. The wool could be traced from the time it was sheared from the sheep, washed, bundled, sold to the wool buyer, taken to the woolen mill, picked, carded, spun, woven, pulled and finished into "bolts" or pieces.

beautiful Grey Wool. The cloth could be traced to the clothing manufactory, where it was sponged, cut, lined, trimmed, sewed, pressed, had its tickets sewed on telling the size of each garment; how our Montreal buyer contracted for the entire production; how the goods were packed, shipped to Woodstock; how many "hands" have "had a finger" in getting them ready up to the man that tells you about it in THE DISPATCH, but you can imagine all that.

the PRICE of the suits, is no indication of their actual value. They are fully as good as any eight dollar woolen you can buy of anybody, and few sell them for less than TEN DOLLARS. They are cut in style, perfectly made, well trimmed throughout, and the best summer.

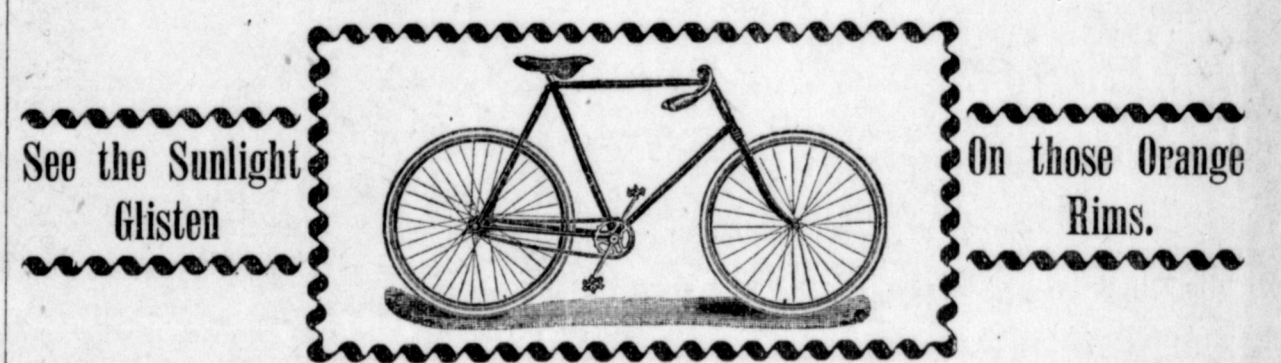

that a man can possibly buy for the money. We have only a limited amount of these and YOU are cordially invited to inspect them.
