BOARD OF TRADE.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Monday evening next.

FAMILY REUNION.—The annual reunion of the Rideout family will take place in Wicklow, N. B., at John Barrett's grove, July 9th. — Ex.

THE HIGH COURT OF FORESTERS met at Fredericton on Monday. J. A. Lindsay went from Woodstock and Elmer Stokoe from Bloomfield, to attend.

JOSHUA CORKERY is booming the beef business. He is purchasing large quantities of cattle and sheep for shipment to St. John, for which he gives good prices.

THE FREE BAPTISTS expect to have a very successful excursion to Presque Isle tomorrow. The best of order will be kept. Everyone attending will have a good time.

DEBEC PICNIC.—The Foresters Picnic at Debec which came off on Monday instead of Saturday on account of the rain, was a decided success, $70, being realized.

HAY COMING.—Since the late heavy rain the grass has grown and thickened immensely, and there is now the prospect of a fair, and in some sections an average crop.

THE GRAND LODGE OF I. O. G. T. will meet in annual session in St. John on Tuesday 9th, at 2 p. m. Arrangements have been made with the different R. R. companies to carry delegates at reduced rates.

FOR TRIAL.—Elisha J. Collins was committed by police magistrate Dibblee to stand trial for sending a threatening letter to Lemuel A. Vanwart. Her case will come before the county court, which meets next Tuesday.

A UNION TEMPERANCE MEETING will be held in the R. T. of T. Hall, King st., Thursday evening the 11th of July. The union is composed of the R. T. of T., St. Gertrude's Society and the S. O. T. These meetings are public.

Do you ever laugh or do you care to laugh? Do you believe in genuine humor or in a concert of the highest order? E. Pauline Johnston, the gifted Indian girl, and Owen E. Smiley, a humorist of rare talent, will suit you perfectly on Friday evening.

DEATH OF MR. PARKS.—Mr. A. H. Parks, died at the residence of his son-in-law Mr. F. B. Carvell on Wednesday night last. He was 70 years old, and in earlier life had been a prominent business man in this county. The remains were taken to Lakeville for burial.

SEWERAGE.—Mayor Saunders received a telegram on Friday from Hendinberg & Kinsey engineers of New York saying that Mr. Kinsey had left for Woodstock to survey the town for the introduction of sewers. Mr. Kinsey had not reached town yesterday morning.

J. FRED DICKINSON has taken possession of the store on Payson's corner, cleaned and painted it, and filled it with an excellent stock of boots and shoes and shoemakers' findings. He is now open for business and his store is one of the best looking establishments in Woodstock.

JOHN LOANE has distinguished himself in building a fine delivery wagon for Carr & Gibson, the Express Agents and one for Noble & Trafton, Grocers. They are a couple of dandy vehicles and reflect credit on the manufacturer and denote a first rate enterprise in the purchasers.

FIRE.—There was an alarm of fire on Saturday afternoon nearly at tea time. It was found that Paxton Baird's store on the corner of Main and King streets was in danger. One of the hands had dropped a lighted match on the floor which was soaked with turpentine. The firemen were on hand in good time and short application with the hose put the fire out.

SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Lower Brighton school taught by Miss Sadie Hammond and the Newburg school taught by Miss Delia McKinney joined in a picnic in Robinson's grove near Newburg junction on Tuesday afternoon of last week. A large number of children and their parents were present. Tea was served at half past five. Everyone declared it a pleasant affair.

MUCH damage was done by hail and lightning at Mars Hill, on Thursday, week. Lightning struck the barn of P. L. Herrick, and it was burned with all its contents, four horses, two cows and all the farming tools, wagons, harnesses, jumpers, mower and reaper, with hay and grain. The insurance was light. The lightning struck William Ladner's barn, killing the cow and some young stock. The barn was saved. — Ex.

12TH JULY.—The county lodge of the L. O. A. will celebrate the glorious 12th, at Middle Simonds. A grand parade will take place in the morning and all the lodges of the county will have a place in the procession. There will be games and amusements of various kinds also a boat race on the river. Dinner and tea will be served in a large tent by the members of Hipwell Lodge, and the proceeds will go towards building an Orange hall at Simonds.

THE MAINE CENTRAL has been gradually finding out, ever since the Bangor & Aroostook road went into operation, that it was destined to become its largest feeder. The business has been gradually assuming phenomenal proportions. The success of the Bangor & Aroostook has astonished its warmest friends. The half year ending June 30th will show a very handsome net income and the future prospect for business is remarkably bright. — Aroostook Times.

FELL BETWEEN THE CARS.—The papers some days ago contained a notice of the accidental death of R. W. Tattersall, while travelling on the railway near Orangeville Junction, Ont. The deceased is remembered by many Woodstock people. He was brother to John Tattersall, of this place. It appears that the unfortunate young man was coming to his home in Fredericton from British Columbia where he had been working. It is supposed that he fell between the cars while passing from one to another. The blow is a very sad one to his relatives in the province.

NEW PAPER.—Among the newspaper ventures of the year is the Co-operative Farmer and Maritime Dairyman, a semi-monthly published in the interests of the maritime farmers, and issued from Sussex. R. D. Robinson is publisher, and W. W. Hubbard editor. Among the corresponding editors is Geo. Baxter of Perth Centre. The paper is a neat size and contains sixteen pages. Its contents are exclusively agricultural, and if it is kept up to the standard of the first issue will, no doubt, find a paying and appreciative constituency.

BIG TEMPERANCE MEETING.—On Sunday afternoon the Free Baptist, Reformed Baptist, Albert Street Baptist, Presbyterian, Advent and Methodist Sabbath schools adjourned and poured their forces into the Methodist church, where they held a mass temperance meeting. Mrs. E. J. Clarke presided. Miss Jennie Baird officiated at the pipe organ, Mrs. Charles Dickinson delivered an address, Miss Katie McLeod gave a black-board lesson, Rev. G. M. Young was the last speaker. The church was crowded even to the gallery.

CONGRATULATION.—At a meeting of the Church corporation, held last Wednesday evening, the following resolution was moved by Dr. Griffith, seconded by T. C. Ketchum, was unanimously carried.

Resolved, That we, the church wardens and vestry of the Parish of Woodstock, wish to tender to our esteemed rector our hearty congratulations on his recent deserved promotion to the office of Archdeacon of Fredericton, and trust he may long be spared to fulfill the duties and enjoy the honor and dignity of that office.

DEATH OF WALTER GREEN.—Mr and Mrs. Caleb J. Green met with a severe loss in the death of their son Walter Lee who was in his eleventh year. His death which came suddenly after a few brief days of sickness, was caused by paralysis of the stomach. Lee was a good boy manly in his ways and of a kind and benovolent disposition ever ready to help others when possible. May God bless the parents and support them by His all sufficient grace in their sorrow and affliction. The funeral was largely attended by sympathizing neighbours and friends. — Com.

THE PATRONS OF INDUSTRY it seems, are quietly but successfully getting a foot hold in the County of Carleton. Already four associations have been established in the parish of Wicklow, namely, those at Summerfield, Greenfield, Clear View and Wicklow. The officers of the association are J. W. Blackie, pres; T. H. Estey, v. pres; Chas. Estey, sec; Carey Estey, treas; Eddie Hutchinson, sentinel; and Chalmers Milbury, guide. The fee on admission to the association is 50 cents for gentlemen and 10 cents for ladies. The dues are 20 cents quarterly for gentlemen and 10 cents quarterly for ladies. The meetings are held every fortnight. The last meeting of the Wicklow association was on Wednesday June 26th. Other associations have been organized in other parishes.

THE GARDEN PARTY held last Wednesday evening on the beautiful grounds near St. Gertrude's church was an event which afforded an opportunity for an evening's healthful relaxation and amusement to the members who were present. The electric lights and Chinese lanterns were in profusion and by the arrangement of the latter, when lighted was presented a kaleidoscopic effect among the shade trees in the front of the grounds and were attractive at a long distance. Various sports were provided. A handsome music pavilion is on the grounds. This was decorated with evergreens and bunting, and here the music by Prof. Barry's orchestra deserves more than a passing notice. Their masterly rendition of choice selections from famous masters being received so favorably as to repay in a measure their industry and application in past frequent rehearsals. The satisfactory return financially give evidence that the plentiful stock and excellent quality of the viands were well appreciated.

CANDIDATES.—There are eighty-three candidates for entrance to Normal School and University from Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska counties. About seventy-five of these candidates are from Carleton county, eight more than applied last year. The examinations began yesterday, and will be continued today and to tomorrow. The results will be known about the first of August. Mr. F. B. Meagher, inspector, is supervising examiner, and Mr. F. A. Good, principal of the Broadway school, is assistant supervising examiner.
