Most of our young men spent last Sunday in Houlton where they took part in the Orange parade.

Fort Fairfield, Me.

SEPT. 27.—News from the Fort again! Digging has begun. Some of the farmers are nearly done, while others are waiting to see if prices wont come up. Potatoes are very low. At time of writing, they are only 60 cents for Boston market. The factories are paying 50 cents as they are dug while the little ones are 30 cents a barrel. I learn that the Bank of Fort Fairfield holds notes to the amount of $12000.00 payable in Oct. Some of the farmers are complaining of rot among their potatoes. Most of the farmers has diggers which do away with two thirds of the help formerly employed. Harvesting is all done. Oats are a very good crop with wheat and buckwheat only the average.
Mr. Babuar's barn on the West road was destroyed by fire recently. He lost nearly every thing and had only $200 insurance.

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY OPENING, OCT. 5.
MRS. W. D. GAMBER,
First Store Below Post Office.

Hang Clothing That Doesn't Fit.

That's what every man says, yet some keep right on patronizing the same tailor. No excuse for it whatever, when a man knows about this store. Bad fit is a capital offence, and a man that tolerates it aids and abets in the crime. Learn to say "no" when a tailor tries to wrap you up a suit that makes you look like the wild man of Borneo. Just take a walk around to our store and get exactly what you want, at a lower price. Latest New York Fashion Reports regularly received.
