Are of many kinds and many minds. You've heard about the man that used a wart on his neck for a collar button; the fellow who stops his clock every night so the works will wear longer; the chap who eats his meals looking into a mirror that he may imagine he is eating double; the man who wouldn't walk in the sun at noon for fear his shadow might ask him to lunch. BUT the VERY meanest man is the one who says he can't "spend" the time to examine our line of
