THOMAS MULHERRIN, from Grand Falls Portage, N. B., was up before justice Powers on Saturday last, on the charge of adultery. While the evidence was very unsatisfactory, Justice Powers found reasonable cause to hold him, and he was bound over to appear at the April term of the supreme court at Houlton. He spent the Sabbath in the lock-up Monday. Friends from New Brunswick appeared and bailed him out. The complainant was the husband of the person who would be the co-respondent if the case was prosecuted to the full extent of the law.—Fort Fairfield Leader.

Some of the old agents of the B. Laurance spectacles are advertising the balance of their old antiquated shop worn stock at 50 cents per pair. These should be good value if stamped Pebbles and B. L. All other goods advertised are out of date years ago and should not be confounded with the new styles as manufactured at the present time. The only place in Carleton county where the genuine axis cut pebble spectacles can be obtained is at W. E. Thistles, Druggist, Hartland. J. T. Collins, Woodstock, keeps the next lower grades. Thistle of Hartland, is cleaning out some of the old stock for 25 and 40 cents per pair.

Among distinguished visitors who have visited Canada recently, is Hall Caine, the novelist,—well known as the author of those celebrated and highly delightful novels, The Manxman, and The Deemster. He came in the interests of English authors, to consult with Canadian publishers on the matter of copyright. At Toronto he was tendered a dinner, where there assembled a number of literary lights. Among the speakers on the occasion was Prof. Goldwin Smith. That eminent gentleman made a remark, which was quite characteristic of his wit and ability. He said that he admired Caine's writings, for they were novels pure and simple. He did not approve of the novel which had for its mission the teaching of some political or religious cult. "For my part," he added, "I like to take my religion and politics straight."

C. M. Sherwood & Bro. who have recently opened a neat Grocery and Fruit Store on Main street, report trade good. They are already offering a quite full line of Choice Groceries, at Lowest Prices.

A somewhat bibulous commercial traveller struck St. Stephen lately. In due course of time his jag became "in linked sweetness long drawn out," and business suffered proportionately. Then the firm became anxious and wired him, "Send in your orders." The telegram reached him while he was reclining in his virtuous couch and seizing it in his trembling hands he jumped up and in somewhat negligé attire rushed to the telegraph office and wired back "What orders?"
