A. G. BAKER, PROPRIETOR.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Hartland.

AUG. 12.—Last week THE DISPATCH correspondent chanced to be from his duties, and some person was kind enough to send the usual amount of "items." The writer of these shows marked literary talent, but lacks ability as a newspaper correspondent. He handles his subjects without gloves, and quite openly infers that whiskey selling goes on in our village to such an extent as to afford quite a lucrative trade. Beside this the new reporter states that there is a new mill at the Boagumac. This was recorded in the Hartland correspondence of THE DISPATCH over a year ago, and also, from time to time, the progress it has been making. And the amount of lumber shipped has several times been given. That A. G. Baker has started a variety store was recorded two months ago. Items regarding the establishment of a tin shop, new hotel, etc., in fact nearly all of last week's "items" have appeared in THE DISPATCH during the past twelve months. The Hartland correspondence in last week's paper is not from the same pen that has been contributing for the past six weeks; it is only his intention to pen items of a slanderous or gossip nature.

The little girls gave a very interesting concert in Burt's hall last Friday evening. The entire management was carried on by the little ones, and this is the programme that was presented: Instrumental duet; chorus; recitation. Edna Thistle; instrumental solo, Clara Matheson; reading, Lulu Richardson; solo, Edna Benson; duet, Clara Matheson and Dora Thornton; solo, May Shaw; reading, Edna Thistle; recitation, Nettie Bearstoe; duet, Edna Bearstoe and Lulu Richardson; chorus; instrumental. Myrtle McFarlan; solo, Lulu Richardson; reading, Madeline Connell; instrumental solo, Edna Thistle; recitation, Edna Benson; closing chorus. The admission fee was 10 cents, and over a hundred people were present, netting the sum of $10.80, which goes to the British and Foreign Missions.

Ed. Alexander's family have been spending a few days at Lower Woodstock. Mr. Alexander will start for a six weeks' trip to the Pacific Coast this week.

The water is so low that a couple of teams forded the river last week.

The firm of Goodwin & Ross, doing a butcher business here has been dissolved. Wallace W. Ross will carry on the business at the old stand.

D. H. Pyne, who formerly kept store in the shop occupied by Richardson & Keith, is visiting friends here.

Miss Madeline Connell, of Woodstock, has been visiting Miss Edna Thistle.

Mrs. James Bearstoe, of Lakeville, has been visiting friends in the village.

Miss May Stevens, of Somerville, is visiting Miss Simonson, at Presque Isle.

Dr. Stevens spent Sunday in town.

The children of Somerville Sunday school had a picnic one day last week, and spent an enjoyable time.

Manzer Thornton is dealing out cigars on account of his being lately blessed with a son and heir.

The waterworks have been progressing admirably during the past week. The six inch pipe is all on hand, so are the hydrants, hose, etc. In just a short time the system will be completed.

The schools open today. Allan Rideout, of Upper Brighton, is principal. Miss Upham has charge of the primary.

The ferry road on the other side of the river, has been receiving much needed repairs.

Rev. T. L. Williams, of Jacksonville, occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sunday night.

Fort Fairfield, Me.

AUG. 10.—Potatoes never looked better in the history of Aroostook. The farmers are hopeful of a large crop if the rust don't set in. Haying is all done, farmers complain of only half a crop. The threshing machine can be heard and so far oats have turned out 18 from one. We look for an early fall and signs go to point that way.

Mr. Charlie Knight has a wind mill on his farm which for beauty and usefulness cannot be excelled in Northern Aroostook. The job was done by Smith & Co., Presque Isle.

Mr. Varney has a steam drill at work on his place.

One can see as large potatoe fields here as anywhere in the United States. We were not troubled as much with the bug as in former years and many dealers in Paris Green have got badly left with their 30c. per pound racket.

Mrs. Frank Kimball and her two children, Dora and Lawrence are visiting her parents Mr. Jos McGee at Somerville.

Miss Maud Kimball, of Ashland, Car. Co., is visiting her friends of this place.

Miss Carrie Kimball paid a flying visit to Waterville her old home. She also took in the I. O. E. picnic.

William Gregor, of Somerville, Car. Co., N. B. late of Scotland, passed through here for Ashland looking for a contract for grading on the Ashland branch.

The carpenters who are working on Mr. Lev Kimball's new building struck last Saturday for 9 hours. Mr. Kimball with the generous heart for which he is so noted granted them their request with advance of fifty cents per day.

The Babie Sunday school gave a picnic Saturday last to the Falls. There were 8 team loads and they looked so happy. Mr. Eddie Knight, sup. was the promoter and great credit is due him for his cheerful part.

The farmers will begin to dig here about the 8th. Men are very plentiful here and the out look for wages is 10c. They are getting so many diggers which will do away with nearly two thirds of the men.

I have this to say, if prohibition in N.B. will be the same as we have here in Maine you will be better without it. It looks as if we will have a great Republican victory in 96. The Democrats are deserting their craft by the hundred, I mean in Maine, and no doubt it is the same all over U. S. Rats always leave a sinking ship. We want a wall around the U. S. heaven high, and air-tight. We might as well try to catch doves when the heavens fall, as to look for good times under a free trade government. That is my way of thinking and see if I am right in 96.

We learn with regret of the death of Dr. Atkinson. His wife and family have our sympathy.

We must say that we like THE DISPATCH, and think it is the right paper in the right place.

Northampton.

AUG. 9.—The weather continues to be cool and dry, and the universal wish is for a good rain.

Everybody has finished haying and some are commencing to harvest. The hay on an average was light but the prospects are good for a fine harvest.

Miss Fannie Ives who has been absent to Nova Scotia for two years is home visiting her parents, accompanied by Miss Clara Rosborough of the same place.

Mr. Fred Bailey, of Boston, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Joseph Wolverton.

Burnett Cluff, after a sojourn of 15 years in the west, is visiting his parents.

Win. Monteith is improving slowly, being able to sit up for a short time. Fred Cronkite was injured during a charivari, is doing as well as can be expected.

The basket picnic held on Alfred Dixon's flat last Thursday, under the auspices of Miss Marion Dublee terminated very pleasantly. A large number of young people were present from Richmond, Woodstock, and elsewhere, and left in the evening expressing the opinion that they had spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Perth.

AUG. 12.—Rev. Mr. Young and Rev. Mr. Morse have been holding special meetings for the last two weeks here resulting in the conversion of a number of young folks.

Mr. A. J. Beveridge has changed the plans of the new store house he is building here and is now finishing a large hall on second flat, which will much improve the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Phail are off on a two weeks vacation visiting friends.

Miss Ray Dougherty, of Boston is the guest of Mrs. A. B. Street.

Mrs. and Miss Dougherty, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. B. Kilburn, of Kilburn.

The wonderful recovery of Mrs. E. W. Harman of this place who has been very low for some five or six weeks with heart trouble, is much talked of. She had been bedfast, not able to lift her hand off the pillow, and at times there was little or no hopes of recovery. Doctors had been attending her, but she received very little benefit and at the last extremity Rev. Dr. Barker of Ft. Fairfield was sent for to try the faith cure. On Monday 5th Rev. Dr. Barker, Rev. Mr. Pepper of Andover and friends of Mrs. Harman gathered at the house and engaged in prayers after which Mrs. Harman got out of her bed, dressed herself and went down stairs and enjoyed a cup of tea, and two slices of bread, after which Mr. and Mrs. Harman took a drive to Andover and back to tell her many friends of her wonderful recovery by faith and prayer. She has been remarkable well since. Many doubted this and called on her, finding she was enjoying excellent health.

Mrs. Vina Baird, has friends from Boston visiting her.

Harvey, York Co.,

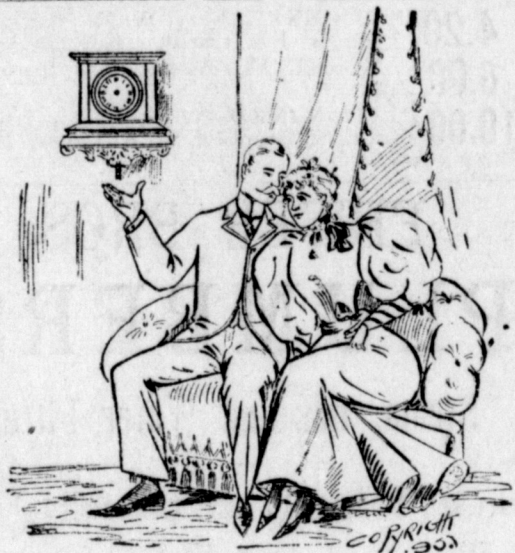

AUG. 12.—The public temperance meeting, under the auspices of Harvey Council, R. T. of T. was held on the 8th instant, in the Grange Hall, at Harvey Station, York Co. The meeting was addressed by Henry Harvey Stuart of Fredericton, who, after discussing temperance from different standpoints, urged the union of all temperance people into a solid political body pledged to support for parliament no candidate of any party who was not a trustworthy prohibitionist. At the close of the meeting the speaker was given a hearty vote of thanks.

DIED.

GALLAGHER.—At Woodstock, on the 8th inst., Wm. J. Gallagher, aged twenty years.

TAYLOR.—At Woodstock, on the 7th inst., George Carleton, youngest son of G. A. Taylor, agent Merchants' Bank, aged 1 year 6 months.

ESTABROOKS.—At Wicklow, August 4th, Arthur, infant son of Henry and Annie Estabrooks, of whooping cough.

Can't Tell the Time

Our Graduated Ties

Prove what we say.

Artistic neck adornment for gentlemen of taste. If you are up to snuff you will be wide awake enough to buy.

R. B. JONES, MANCHESTER HOUSE

The Key of our Success

Is enterprise—the enterprise that prompts us to cater to the public taste. We do not mean literally, for the taste of many of the things we have is not agreeable—but our taste in selecting and always having on hand the kind of DRUGS AND MEDICINES desired by the public, by providing the very best Drugs at the Lowest possible prices.

You will notice that on our key, profit is small, and that is the fact in regard to the goods. The larger our sales, the smaller we can afford to make our profits and that is the reason you can get many things cheaper from us than elsewhere.

Our STICKY FLY PAPER still continues to be the leader in the market. We say this because the sales are steadily increasing. Have you tried it? 4 large sheets for 5 cents.

H. H. McCain, of Florenceville, left for Boston on Monday to look after his interests in the case of the failure of C. E. & G. W. Eddy, of Boston, commission merchants. It is thought that other men in the county will lose something through the failure.

Our Modern Gladiators.

Champion James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons had an impromptu scrap on Saturday night in the barroom of Green's hotel, Philadelphia. Corbett reached the city about 11.30 from Wilmington, where he had sparred four rounds with John McNeely. He, in company with his brother Joe and some friends, went down to their hotel, where they met Fitzsimmons in the barroom.

Corbett walked up to the New Zealander and said: "Well, you're shooting off your mouth again about me flunking out of that bicycle race, and that you would pull my nose. Now I'll do the nose pulling," and with this remark the big champion gave Robert's nasal organ a smart tweak. The two men clinched but before any damage was done they were separated.

Fitzsimmons then turned upon Joe Corbett, who had grabbed the lanky fighter, and attempted to butt him in the head. Joe broke away from Fitzsimmons, at the same time saying: "You big ———, you can't whip me, to say nothing of my brother."

Fitz reached around, picked up a decanter and hurled it at Joe Corbett, but it went wide of its mark. He then grabbed a castor, and was in the act of hurling it at young Corbett when he was seized by an officer.

When the quarrel had apparently been smoothed over Jim Corbett went over to Fitzsimmons and spat in his face. The New Zealander was apparently not anxious to tackle the champion, and Fitz was taken out of the hotel by some friends.

Imperial Parliament.

The composition of the new parliament which opens on Monday will be as follows: Conservatives 338, Liberal-Unionists 73, Liberals 177, Anti-Parnellites 70, Parnellites 12.

The Queen's speech for the opening of Parliament, Aug. 12 will be a bare and formal document unless reference is made in it to foreign affairs, yet persons in position to be well informed upon the subject say the speech will not refer to Armenia or China, and if any foreign affairs are mentioned they will be those in connection with Africa. The debate on the reply to the speech from the throne will begin Aug. 15th, and the time between the opening and that date will be occupied in administering the oath to members, who will be sworn in in batches.
