He was a native of this town and resided on the home-stand farm, near the Boundary line. The interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.—Houlton Times.

DEATH OF FRANCIS GOOD.—Mr. Francis Good, a prominent farmer of Jacksonville, died on Thursday of last week. He had been in failing health for some time, but death came more suddenly at the last that was expected. He left a widow, two sons William and Charles, and a daughter. Service was conducted at the house and at the grave on Saturday by Revs. Messrs Morgan and Williams. The pall-bearers were Messrs. D. Dorpee, S. Harper, Fraser Burr, and George Good. Mr. Chas. HIS SPOONS AND FORKS.—Mr. J. G. McNally of Fredericton, came to Woodstock last week to investigate into the "silver mine" which was discovered on the island bar a week or so ago. He had a strong suspicion that the spoons and forks which turned up so plenty, were his property. His shop was broken into last February, and a quantity of such material was stolen. One of the suspected parties, was traced to Woodstock, and it is Mr. McNally's idea that fearing exposure, the thief threw his plunder over the bridge as he was crossing to Woodstock. It remains now for Mr. McNally to prove his property.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE COMMITTED SUICIDE.—Newspaper readers will recollect the interest created throughout the country seven or eight years ago by the tragic death of the wife of Major Howes, of Boston. The major and his wife were coming down the Tobique river in a canoe when they were fired at from the shore and Mrs. Howes was killed. Two men were tried for the shooting, and were convicted and sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary. One of these was a young fellow named Phillipin, of a Swiss-French family that had come to Canada and had not prospered. They finally settled on the Tobique. At the trial, notwithstanding the heinousness of the offence, much sympathy was felt for young Phillipin, particularly on account of the efforts made by his sister, a young woman, to save him. There were two or three Phillipin girls. One of these is now supposed to have committed suicide. She was a servant in the house of Judge Mercier, Concord, Mass., and lately showed signs of religious insanity. A few days ago she was seen to go towards the river and has not been seen since. The river has been dragged, but her remains have not been found. Miss Phillipin was about 30 years old.—St. John Globe.

Sullivan show, assisted by Paddy Ryan and fifteen first class artists in the laughable Irish comedy entitled McSorley's Courtship, which has just finished a successful season at the Columbia Theatre, Boston. The Boston Traveller says:—"It is a comedy of errors, the plot hinging upon the similarity in personal appearance of two sisters whose husbands are forever getting into trouble over their jealousy and rivalry in business. The plot is a clever one and there are so many amusing complications. The company is an excellent one. Dan Williams as a horse dealer was very funny and was ably seconded by Mr. McCart as an undertaker. John T. Craven as a policeman and a colored servant was very funny. Miss Annie Louise Tirrell was charming as an actress and sang well. Misses Florence Mack and Ellen Craven were excellent as the twin sisters. Excellent specialties of singing and dancing were introduced by the California Quintet and various members of the company. John L. Sullivan and Paddy Ryan sparred three rounds at the close of the play to the intense satisfaction of the audience. Seats are now on sale at Graham's grocery store, prices are 35, 50 and 75 cents.
