A MOVEMENT is now actively in progress looking to the securing of lower freight on potatoes. If the movement is successful, and to whatever extent relief in this direction is afforded, it will be chiefly due, as we understand the situation, to the efforts of General Manager Cram, who has, for some time been making active efforts in the interest of securing lower rates on potatoes in co-operation with other lines.—Star Herald Paeque Isle.

SERVICES in the Albert St. Baptist church next Sunday will be as follows:—morning subject: "The Lord's Supper." The evening missionary service will be under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Aid Society. A good program is provided, on which beside local talent, is the name of Mrs. J. B. Morgan of Jacksonville. It is expected also that Mrs. Hale of Grafton will give an address on mission work in Africa, in which for several years she participated.

They have been working at Middle Southampton and Greenbush, York County, and this week they will go to Royaltown and where the Reformed Baptists have a very nice little church. Mr. Macdonald was present at the dedication of the Union Church at Connell on the 20th where he preached at the service.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN SERIOUS.—On Monday evening Mrs. Frank R. Slipp and Miss Pennington were sitting in their carriage in front of the Grocery store of G. W. Slipp waiting for Frank R. Slipp who had entered the store for a moment. Something frightened their horse and he turned quickly, tipping up the carriage and throwing Mrs. Slipp to the ground. Miss Pennington held to the seat until some one caught the horses head. The reins were twisted around the whip so that the ladies were perfectly helpless. Fortunately no one was injured.

SEWERS.—During the past week the work on the sewers has been going on famously. Pipe, on the north side of the bridge has been laid from the rink to Graham's corner, and on Main street from Cross almost to Albert. On the south side pipe has been laid along Water to Connor, and part of the way up Connor, and in the other direction along Water and up Bull, almost to the railway

Holyoke, and Dr. Rankine were appointed a committee to draw up a scheme of organization. The next meeting of the association will be held on the 15th of November.

THE POLICE magistrate had a case before him on Monday which caused considerable interest. Frank McClements was charged with interfering with Rev. B. B. Colpitts, a constable while in the discharge of his duty. It appears that Mr. Colpitts had reason to think that a brother of the defendant Jack McClements was violating the Canada Temperance Act. Armed with a warrant he went to Jack's quarters, for the purpose of making an arrest. He states that the defendant, seized him, and prevented him serving the paper on the party he was after. However this may be Jack McClements was not caught. A. B. Connell appeared for Mr. Colpitts and D. B. Gallagher for the defendant. After hearing the evidence McClements was ordered to stand his trial at the next county court. He furnished bail.

LAST WEEK this paper noted the death of Mrs. Joseph Phillips which occurred suddenly in Brookline, Mass. The deceased had just stepped from a street car and was going to her son's house when she fell down dead. The remains arrived in Woodstock on Wednesday, in charge of Mr. H. W. Phillips, and were placed in St. Luke's church over night. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, Archdeacon Neales, officiating. Several relatives of the deceased had arrived from a distance to attend the obsequies. Among them were Mrs. G. S. Grimmer, Messrs. Durell and F. H. Grimmer, St. Andrews, Mrs. Frank Grimmer and Mr. Hazen Grimmer of St. Stephen, and Dr. and Mrs. Nevers of Houlton. A service was held in the church the choir singing two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," and "Nearer, my God to Thee." The remains were then taken to the parish graveyard, and interred in the Phillips family lot. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. C. Winslow, W. M. Connell, G. L. Holyoke and B. H. Smith.

A LARGE number of Mr. H. H. McCain's friends convened at the R. T. of T. hall on Thursday evening to congratulate him on his success in the recent election campaign, J. T. Allen Dibblee and C. L. Smith were present. Rev. A. H. Hayward who occupied the chair, made a clever address by way of opening the meeting referring to a possible mixture of gospel and politics. The Wicklow Brass Band had come down for the occasion, and they looked well in their new caps. They played several selections for which the audience gave much thanks and three cheers. Addresses were made by J. T. A. Dibblee, M. P. P., C. L. Smith, M. P. P., H. H. McCain, M. P. P., J. R. Tompkins, Charles Appleby, John Farley, Rev. D. Fiske, Dr. Ross and Dr. Hazerman. Everyone was in a good frame of mind. Whatever bitterness that may have been in the contest was forgotten and all hands devoted themselves to reconciliation. The three members impressed the audience favorably and made it clear that they intended to work together for the good of them that loved Carleton county.

THE KIRNESS.—One hundred and twenty-two of our home talent are being drilled for this grand spectacular performance, and still more are desired. Twelve ladies and gentlemen are desired for representing Canada, and considering the fact that the training is free, and for a good cause there should not be any trouble in securing the requisite number. In a "Glimpse of Fairyland" forty tiny children are taking part and a crowd of small boys are wished for frogs, grasshoppers, etc. It promises to be a carnival of beauty and art, and doubtless the most moral and gorgeous combination ever put on the theatrical boards here before. The Kirness has delighted all Europe and America for years, and cannot fail to please all Woodstock and surrounding country. "A Dream of Ancient Greece" which will be presented by nine of our handsomest young ladies, will be the gem of the program. The Boston Herald says:—"A Dream of Ancient Greece," presenting as it does the most aesthetic repertoire of Greece, was a vivid lesson in "Frozen Art." It was like taking a glance backward into real prehistoric and mythologic times to see old Grecian Art brought out with such grace, and presented in full view of the audience while melting slowly into groups and friezes. was positively thrilling, and a scene never to be forgotten. The costumes of the performance harmonize exactly with the part presented. The Spanish Fandango, to be given by sixteen dark eyed Senoritas, and led by Manola, Queen of the van, and the Spanish Cavalier, is all life and glitter and motion, and the merry jingle of the tambourines will set many feet to accenting the time and rhythm of this beautiful drill. The costumes are to represent those seen by Miss Hudson while in Mexico. A quaint minuet, as presented in France in the 17th century will be given by twelve tiny lords and ladies of ye olden time and promises to take the audience by storm. Other features are equally attractive.

EVERETT'S BOOKSTORE

Rosseau says it requires much philosophy to accurately observe our surroundings. The young ladies have become so accustomed to the fine Paper we have sold for years we sometimes think they do not properly appreciate it, but just give one sheet of inferior paper. There is nothing so distinctive as our Bond Paper. It's not low priced, but it bears the impress of the select.
