The new structure is about completed, it would take about a week to finish it.

A CLOSE CALL.—Woodstock came within an ace of losing its mayor on Monday. He was walking up Main St., and had reached a position in front of T. H. Nason's fruit store, when a ladder standing against the bow window on the McLean building, fell. Some one called to his worship to fly and he accordingly flew. He fell down in his flight and the ladder struck him on the head and shoulder, but as it did not strike him square he escaped with no further injuries than a broken tyle. THE DISPATCH disclaims having had anything to do with setting this death trap for his worship.

TO show the advantage of advertising it might be mentioned that Holloway's Red Blood Syrup, which was only introduced into this country within the last few months, has had such a wonderful sale as to make it almost impossible to supply the demand, and this all on account of bringing it before the public through such a splendid advertising medium as "THE DISPATCH." Of course to have large sales any article must have virtue. We can safely say no proprietary preparation has more virtue than Holloway's Syrup, and for pale, weak, nervous people cannot be excelled.

A VERY HAPPY event took place at Clear View, Car. Co., on the 15th inst. It was the marriage of Miss Annie M. Crain, one of Clear View's most popular young ladies, and youngest daughter of Mr. William Crain, to John P. Valley of Easton, Me. The happy pair were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in St. Bartholomew's church, the Rev. Francis Bradley being the officiating clergyman. Mr. William Valley, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Nellie Mahan of Mars Hill, Me., attended as maid to the bride. The bride looked very pretty in her wedding outfit and was the recipient of many compliments. After the nuptial mass and ceremony, the bridal party with a few of their immediate friends and relatives drove to the residence of the bride's parents where a sumptuous dejeuner was served, and a few very happy hours spent. The bride presents, while not numerous, were in excellent taste, and in a very happy manner combined the elegant with the useful. At 3.30 p. m. the happy pair left for Easton, Me., their future home amid a shower of rice, and with the best wishes of their many friends.

MRS. CHAS. DIBBLEE received a telegram from St. John on Saturday morning last, announcing the death of her eldest brother, Geo. H. Miles. He lived in St. John, and leaves a wife and two children. For some years past Mr. Miles had been poorly, and his death was the result of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Dibblee went to St. John on Monday. The Globe of Saturday speaking of Mr. Miles says:—The community was shocked this morning to hear of the death of Mr. George H. Miles, which occurred shortly after seven o'clock. The deceased had been around on Friday attending to his business as usual and on Friday evening had visited some of the Indian stores to purchase supplies for the tug Hero, which left for Fredericton this morning. He retired for the night quite as well as usual and got up this morning apparently in good health. He breakfasted about seven o'clock and was lying on the sofa reading a morning paper when he suddenly breathed, made a slight movement and died. His wife who heard the noise hastened to his side, but was powerless to help him. Dr. McInerney was summoned, but was unable to do anything, as death had come almost instantly. Mr. Miles was in the 57th year of his age. For some time past he has had medical assistance, as it was known that his heart was weak, the result of some other ailment, but as he was a man of fine physique and the picture of health few thought of the probability of his early demise. He leaves a wife, the daughter of the late Duncan Glasier, and two children, a son aged 19 and a girl 12 years old. For a number of years he has been in the employ of D. D. Glasier & Son and was their agent here. He was a native of Mauderville, Sunbury Co., and a brother of Mr. H. S. Miles, fishery inspector. Chas. LeB. Miles of Andover is a brother of deceased. He went to St. John on Monday.

He has gone largely into the business of glasses and spectacles and is devoting some time to the scientific study of them so that he may be able to sell them intelligently. He has left a competent man in charge of his business.

Hartland Woodworking Factory.

R. W. Richardson, Hartland, has his wood working factory so nearly completed as to be able to announce that after May 1st he will be able to supply all kinds of interior and exterior House Finish, including Doors, Sashes, Blinds, Casings, Mouldings, Sash Finish etc., and planed and Malched Flooring, Sheathing and Wainscoting in hard or soft kiln-dried wood. The factory will also possess facilities for manufacturing Wire Rod Springs. This department which forms not the least important branch of the industry, is in charge of a competent workman who thoroughly understands his business. Mr. Richardson wishes it to be understood that the products of his factory will be offered at much lower prices than such materials have usually been sold at. Every possible care and attention will be paid to every detail of the business. Another item worthy of consideration is the saving in hauling to and from other towns or the cost of railway transportation. It requires little thought for one to definitely conclude that a wood-working factory at Hartland means a grand thing for the public in and for miles around the village. Consideration made on orders from a distance involving more than ordinary expense.

Our Sole Purpose

In advertising is to attract your attention—to make you think of "Oak Hall" so much, that when you think of anything to wear your thoughts will turn to "Oak Hall" as naturally as a woman's thoughts turn to Sapolio when she wants to scour a tin pan, or you think of Pear's Soap when anybody says Good Morning. We want you to think I can do better at "Oak Hall" whenever you see anybody advertising anything. Our business to sell hats—to sell overclothes—underclothes—anything and everything a man or boy wants (except shoes) and to sell it less than anybody else does, in every instance, and we do it. You can buy a suit of us for $2.99, an all wool one for $5.00, a better one for $6, $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12, $13, $14.50, and for every dollar you go up in price you get a dollar's worth more in value, and a guarantee that it's better than anybody else will do for you, or your money back.
