HARTLAND.

FEB. 3.—Wm. E. Thistle has moved into his new drug store in Taylor's brick building and is just getting set to rights. The shop is new and clean, and though rather small is very attractive. The floor is of hardwood, oiled. The counter is of polished maple. The appointments are all good, and Mr. Thistle is to be congratulated on having so pleasant a location.

David Keswick says that two men working at the head waters of the Restigouche, cut down with a saw, recently, in one day, 145 logs scaling 17,500 feet. D. Richards scaled the logs. This a good day's work.

The Commercial hotel, run by A. W. Rideout, is in full swing, and a good place it is. It is newly fitted up, finished in hardwood, with hardwood floors, heated by a furnace, and made generally comfortable. The rooms are light and those on the front of the house give a fine view of the village, and of the river and hills beyond. The kitchen is commodious and is furnished with every facility for doing good cooking. The range is a fine one which Mr. Rideout went to considerable expense to put up. Hartland has a good water works system, and Mr. Rideout has taken advantage of it to convey the water through the hotel.

Mr. Rideout's son, Allen, who is well known in Woodstock, where he has many friends, teaches the school here with good success.

JACKSONTOWN.

FEB. 3.—We have plenty of snow now to make good roads and the people are taking advantage of it, as can be seen by noting the string of teams on the road loaded with hay and other produce.

Everything is very quiet here at present with the exception of the Patrons who seem to show signs of life, and even prosperity. The Patrons intend having a concert in the near future of which due notice will be given. The young folk of Jacksontown are noted for giving good entertainments, so be on the watch.

H. S. Pierce and wife of Blaine, Me., spent the Sabbath with Mrs. Pierce's sister, Mrs. W. A. Connolly.

Mrs. J. W. Connolly is visiting friends at Hartland.

Our school is rapidly progressing under the skillful management of W. Long of Keswick Ridge.

OAKVILLE.

FEB. 1.—Almost all our farmers are taking advantage of the last snow squall, and are hauling wood, bark, hay, etc., to market.

Rev. Elder Denton of Woodstock held a three night's service in the Methodist church here with a goodly number each night. Mr. Denton spoke in his usual brilliant manner striking sledge hammer blows at hypocrisy.

Perhaps not many of your readers are aware that we have a horse trot every Saturday, sport in which large numbers indulge, many of our horses showing good speed.

Miss Mary Low has returned from Houlton where she has been for some time past.

Our blacksmith has to hustle to keep up with his work, proof that he must be a good workman.

Did I hear someone say that Mr. Carter was boarding in town now?

I understand that this place has a very talented poet, I should like to see some of the writing.

People are always talking about the north pole, wonder if we have not been quite near it the last few days.

By-the-by this is leap year and I see by the paper we will not have another for eight years. Boys, you had better be careful for no doubt the fair one will make vigorous use of this opportunity.

RICHMOND.

FEB. 1.—A number of young people from Lower Woodstock spent Friday evening at Mr. Andrew McIntyre's.

The many friends of Clifford Campbell are glad to hear that he is improving in health.

William Stokes lies in a rather critical state. But hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Miss Ethel McIntyre spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Ethel Bourne.

Miss Kennedy, Kirkland, made a short visit in Richmond, last week.

Mrs. Smith Adams, Calais, spent a week in Plymouth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hand.

A number of young people from Campbell District spent a very pleasant evening at the residence of James Dalting, Belleville.

J. T. Allen Dibblee and Mr. Wetmore were in Plymouth blocking out a road around the McQuarrie hill. Mr. Dibblee was out on Monday and I surveyed the road.

Miss Ethel Wilson spent Sunday in Lindsay.

Mrs. Miles Dickinson, Woodstock, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Blackmore.

Mrs. Joseph Blackmore has a slight attack of congestion.

SOMERVILLE.

FEB. 1.—Miss Mary E. Shaw died at her home in Somerville, Carleton County, Jan. 16th, aged 27 years. She was the daughter of Ruben and Julia Shaw. She was confined to her bed about three months from pleurisy. It was the privilege of the writer to visit her a short time before her death, in company with Brother Coy, we found her much concerned about her spiritual condition. She was directed to Jesus the only possible way to the Father of Mercies, and the blessed light of God came to her troubled mind, and she found rest to her soul, and in a few days passed peacefully away to be with her Saviour in glory. The funeral service was held at the hall at Victoria Corner, conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. A. G. Downey, Mr. Coy and Mr. Benson. She leaves an aged father (who has been very sick for a length of time, and now confined to his room), a loving mother, two brothers and one sister to mourn their loss. We deeply sympathize with the afflicted family. May the God of all comfort be with them in our prayer.

FLORENCEVILLE.

FEB. 3.—A. Porter and family have moved into the Parlane house. Mr. Porter is kept busy night and day in his tailor shop. Florenceville people know a good thing when they see it. If you are in need of a suit of clothes that will fit you give him a call, he carries a good line of cloth in stock and his prices are right.

Edward Ross is sick with pneumonia.

Wilfred Birmingham is also very sick with lung trouble.

Mrs. William Peters is slowly recovering.

Evangelist Corbett is conducting special meetings in the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. A. Hayward and D. Fiske. Mr. Corbett has been very successful with his work in other places, and is we are glad to learn drawing good congregations here, we have no doubt but that he will do good for Florenceville people are very intelligent and if there are better things in waiting for us we will of course gladly accept.

Freeman Haughn the foille nightingale has again made his appearance among us.

Some of our Orangemen will go to Hartland tomorrow to attend the meeting of the county lodge, which meets at that place on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

About six inches of snow fell yesterday and it makes good sleighing for the first time this winter. Waggoners were going here all through the month of January, the like of which cannot be remembered to have occurred before. Yesterday was Candelmas, and snow fell all day, if there is any truth in "old sayings" we have had the hardest part of the winter already.

Rev. G. A. Giberson had meetings in the Free Baptist church yesterday, and after the service baptized one candidate. Rev. M. P. Orser preached in the evening.

Guy Dyer intends starting for Georgia tomorrow, to take up his residence there.

CENTREVILLE.

FEB. 3.—About six inches of snow fell Saturday night and Sunday morning, and now every one is happy. Quite a number of men and teams will now start for the woods.

Mock Parliament was slimly attended last Wednesday night. The address in reply to the speech from the throne was further discussed. Able speeches were made on both sides of the house. The address was passed by the house without division about 10 p. m. I noticed Charles Appleby B. A. among the government supporters. The business of the house was slightly retarded owing to the illness of the premier's typewriter.

The premier however promised that the bill would be forthcoming next night.

The Baptist congregation were genuinely surprised Sunday morning when Freehand McKenzie walked in with his bride. Mr. McKenzie and Miss Maggie Churchill of Woodstock were quietly married at the mill Saturday evening by Mr. Currie. The bride looked lovely in a very becoming brown costume. From the groom's appearance I should judge that he was extremely happy.

Miss Boyer who spent a week visiting at her home in Woodstock has returned looking much improved in health. We noticed one of Centreville's clerks looking extremely pleased on her return.

The Centreville Dramatic club expect to have a grand concert about the first of March. It promises to be a splendid affair.

Interest is still kept up in the council. Now I believe Rising Star is the largest council in the province. The side captained by Miss West gave a splendid entertainment last Monday evening. Tonight Mrs. Harold's side perform and we expect a literary treat.

Lots of pressed hay going to the station. We have the fastest pacer in the county without doubt.

UPPER WOODSTOCK.

FEB. 3.—A grand Hiji club was organized at the "shire town" last Saturday night by the "Most Exalted High Grand Travelling Hiji" from "Monarch Mosque No. 5 Missouri." They have beautifully appointed apartments in the city hall on Court street, consist of three rooms with all the modern improvements that go to make up cozy comfortable quarters, soft carpets, frescoed ceilings, beautiful pictures, etc. The object of the of the order is to suppress vice of all kinds, define the "Munroe Doctrine," settle the "Manitoba School Question," introduce purity into politics, relieve the Armenians, repair the "City Weel," and cultivate sociability. They expect to be very busy for many moons. There will be entertainments given monthly to which the public will be invited by paying a small admission fee. Proceeds to go to "Clara Barton" in aid of the "Red Cross." Immediately after Lent the club expect to give a "Grand Hiji Masquerade Carnival." Several Hiji's will be in attendance from the United States, Chaucery M. Depew, Secretary Olmy, Senator Wolcott and others. It is expected that the carnival will outshine anything of the kind ever attempted in the maritime provinces. The splendor will be magnificent. There will be a Hiji candidate in the field at the next general election.

CENTRAL SOUTHAMPTON.

FEB. 1.—The weather here at present is cold and blustery, but taken as a whole it is this two or three weeks past has been quite mild and pleasant.

The lumberman has been greatly impeded in his operations, especially those who have to haul a long distance, on account of the lack of snow. The light fall which came lately will no doubt help out some.

On Saturday evening the 12th inst there was a grand party held at the residence of Mr. Ezekiel Farnham. There were over forty persons present.

The evening was whiled away with instrumental music and games. Also refreshments in the form of cake, wine, candy, nuts, etc. were passed around. The party broke up at a late hour, most all no doubt, left the house in a pleasant frame of mind.

Aerie Way, who resided in Canterbury, ferryman of this place, after an illness of quite long duration has passed away. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. C. T. Phillips.

KNOWLESVILLE.

JAN. 31.—Wednesday the youngest child of William Phillips died, aged 9 years, and was buried today, the service being conducted by Rev. Amos Hayward, assisted by Rev. C. Rideout.

The P. I. lodge is still flourishing.

The school is well attended, taught by Mrs. C. H. Gayton.

There seems to be some attraction here yet for the teacher who taught here for the last two years as we see him almost every Sunday.

REV. JOHN B. MORGAN

Thinks he has a Clue to the Dingee Murderer.

An exchange says: It is over a year ago since Solomon Dingee, a dealer in real estate, disappeared from his office in the Potter Building, in New York. His body was found in the North River on April 3 of the same year. It was so badly decomposed that the coroner's physician, Dr. E. P. Donion, who viewed it at the morgue made no autopsy.

The mystery of the old man's death has been dug up during the past few days by the Rev. John B. Morgan, a young Baptist minister of Jacksonville, N. B. He was sent to this city about eight weeks ago by parties in New Brunswick who believe that they are heirs to $20,000,000 estate in Westchester County.

The dead man had spent years in collecting evidence of the big claim, but lived in daily fear that some one would murder him. A few days ago Mr. Morgan was told that Geo. C. Corey, formerly of St. John, N. B., claimed to have the original Dingee will and other legal documents pertaining to the estate, and that he accounted for his possession of them by saying that they had been sealed up in a bottle, thrown from a ship by a man who expected to die, and that the bottle was picked up in the North River. Since then Mr. Morgan has been investigating and now believes he is on the track of the murderer.

Religion Cost A Woman $50,000.

OMAHA, Feb. 1.—A special from Wellfleet, Neb., says:

Mrs. Jane Houston, a bank president's wife, lost diamonds and other jewelry last night valued at $50,000.

Mort Green, whom the authorities were shadowing as a dangerous suspect, dropped into the Free Methodist revival meeting last night just in time to hear Mrs. Houston explaining in giving her "experience" that she had just discarded her diamonds and other jewelry since she thought it ungodly to wear them. She said she left all her finery on her dresser when she left her house for church.

Green, it is said, left the church, broke into the Houston residence and found that she had told the truth. He took everything in sight, and left a note saying he was glad he could remove temptation from the good woman. The authorities are after him.
