NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

CENTREVILLE.

MAR. 17.—Mr. Guy Balloch is expected home from New York in a few days.

Jack Flewelling spent Sunday at his home.

Owing to a desire on the part of many to return to the bosom of their families, parliament was prorogued at the last session. Lively speeches were made by Messrs. White, Scholey, Brown, Sloat, Peppers and McKenzie, and all were agreed that the sessions had been productive of much good. The members are now preparing a grand entertainment the proceeds of which will go towards defraying the expenses of the parliament. The entertainment gives promise of eclipsing any thing of the kind ever held in town, and everyone should come and enjoy an evening's fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeland McKenzie drove to Woodstock on Sunday.

We regret to announce that Miss Ethel Parkins is still in a very precarious condition. Drs. White and Baker held a consultation over her and have very grave doubts as to her recovery.

Mrs. Harold's side gave an excellent entertainment to the members of the R. T. of T. on Monday night. The following programme was thoroughly appreciated and well rendered: song, Harry White; recitation, Jack Lee; speech, E. I. West; song, Mrs. Harold; reading, Ernest Reid; song, Herick Scholey; recitation, Nellie Cormier; song, Miss Emery; recitation, Frank Gibson; reading, Maggie Scholey; recitation, Lou Emery. The gem of the evening was Nellie Cormier's recitation. She was in excellent voice and held the audience in spite of themselves.

While Jack Lee was driving yesterday afternoon, the horse became frightened and ran away upsetting the sleigh and burying Jack in a snow bank. Mr. William Alexander very heroically came to the rescue and succeeded in catching the runaway steed not, however, before the shafts had been broken, and the sleigh otherwise damaged.

Your correspondent made a call on Mr. Fred Burtt at his harness establishment the other day. Mr. Burtt has been in the harness business for the past thirty years and by prompt attention to business has secured the patronage and confidence of the public generally. Mr. Burtt carries a fine line of goods and has in his employ, in the person of Freeland McKenzie, the best all round harness maker in the county.

A number of our young people drove to Bristol on Wednesday night to attend the quarterly meeting of the Baptist church.

D. M. KINNEAR, Woodstock, N. B., 12th March, 1896.

ROCKLAND.

MAR. 16.—On account of the recent thaw the roads have been almost impassable, but we have now a new supply of snow.

It may have been the thaw that washed away the Elder's whiskers, who can tell? But when all's said and done, we have a fine looking Elder yet.

On Mar 1st in the absence of Rev. H. D. Worden, pastor, the Baptist pulpit of Rockland, was supplied by C. T. Coombes, of Lowell, Mass. Revs. J. N. and J. J. Barnes were also present and joined in the services, they not being able to reach their own appointments owing to the bad roads.

Miss Abbie Nevers, daughter of Samuel Nevers, of this place has returned from Fort Fairfield, Maine, where she has been for some time. We are sorry to learn that she is in poor health.

Mr. John B. Craig and his crew are expected home from the lumber woods in a week. His son Coley came home about two weeks ago.

Last week as Rev. J. J. Barnes and his wife, were driving toward Hartland, their horse was suddenly taken very ill, and fell in the road. E. McIsaac, V. T. of Hartland was called, and under his skillful treatment, Harry is improving. Sickness among the horses seems very prevalent this winter. Mr. E. Foster of Lower Windsor, and C. B. Snow of Rockland, had each a sick horse last week, and we have heard of several other cases.

Well, I think my items of interest are spent, and so now, brothers and sisters with these few rambling remarks, I will take my seat.

EDMUNDSTON.

MAR. 10.—Mr. J. E. Marchand, agent Temiscouata R'y station here, came from River Du Loup yesterday. He takes charge of the station to-day. Mr. Costin, who has been filling his place while away, leaves for Fort Ingalls today to take charge of the station there.

Frank R. Tighe arrived from Boston last Saturday, after a long visit.

We have been having nothing but wind and snow for the last four or five days. Today the weather is fine.

George P. Trites with S. McDiarmid, Drugs, St. John, is in town today.

Judge Hannington is presiding at the county court here today.

MAR. 16.—The Madawaska circuit court had its March term Tuesday. There was 2 cases on the docket, both trespass, Edward Jacques vs. Vital Martin et al trespass on highway road. Jacques had previously applied for an injunction in this case before Judge Vanwart in chambers and had been refused, and the case now was up for trial.

Verdict for defendant with costs. Fred Laforest, plaintiff's attorney, Barry R. Plant for defendant.

The second case was Damas Sirois vs. Eusebe Parent, also a trespass case in lumbering, verdict also for defendant with costs. Fred Laforest for plaintiff, Stevens & Lawson for defendant. The Judge expressed his surprise that such frivolous cases should be brought in the supreme court, and stated his disapproval very strongly and thought it would be more to lawyers' credit and clients interests if the cases were tried in the courts where they belonged.

Messrs. John F. Tilton, R. M. Belyea, J. S. Eagles, St. John travellers, were in town last week.

BEDELL SETTLEMENT.

MAR. 17.—Snow in abundance.

The Montgomery boys are hauling spruce logs to Woodstock.

John Bull has erected a new ice house, all modern improvements in connection.

The hunter will soon have to take his snowshoes. Remember the Orangemen intend holding a basket social in Montgomery's hall, Richmond Corner, on Tuesday night the 24th of March. Come one, come all.

JACKSONVILLE.

MAR. 14.—The Independent Association of Combed Hobos held a public meeting and installation of officers the other evening.

The following were installed for the present term: Saul Nielson, DeRonore, grand notorious Hobo; Weldon Plunee, grand foxy Hobo; Alden Godino, grand card mixer Hobo; Uncle Tom DeLong, whiskered Hobo; Stonel Baldwin, political Hobo; Clynic Gregory, grand associate (to the post mistress) without portfolio; Sir Tompson Nielson

DeSorrel, grand fakir Hobo; Waters De LaMont, Hobo boss dealer; Jacques Aleroty, Albion Burke, Harlequine Anna, L. T. Avery, Goodine McMill, Attila Burgundy, durgens on commatte. The meeting was well attended and a very profitable and enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The I. A. C. H. hold their meetings in the handsomely fitted up and commodious apartments adjoining Tilley's iron works and formerly occupied by a boot and shoe manufacturing company. Visitors to the Hobos are always welcome. Ladies desiring to see parliamentary proceedings carried on in a legal style should attend where they will find in the Hobos everything to amuse and nothing to offend. The front seats of the gallery are always reserved for ladies. Old maids desirous of having their youth restored and learning kitterny actions can do so by applying to the Hobos. Local affairs are always touched upon, and everybody in this vicinity will get his share and more too. The Hobos send fraternal greeting to the Hiji at Upper Woodstock. A delegation of Hobos will make a pilgrimage to Hard Scrabble to violate the Scott Act, discuss the Remedial Bill and smoke the pipe of peace with the Hiji. Despatches will be forwarded at once to the grand Hiji stating the number of delegates to be sent, the day and hour of their anticipated arrival, and what road they will enter the metropolis of the court house and jail. The grand notorious Hobo on taking the chair made a few well chosen remarks. He said:—Ladies and gentlemen and brother Hobos I can assure you it is with feelings of the utmost pleasure and pride that I accept the high and responsible position of presiding officer over this well known and philanthropical association. We cannot and do not claim for our brotherhood the antiquity of the Masonic Order. We know it did not originate among the builders of King Solomon's temple or among those Knights of the age of Chivalry valiant who devoted their lives to the wrestling of the Holy Sepulchre from the hands of the infidel. Nor do we have only a limited number of talented and distinguished characters like the Utopia Club, we have no distinction of caste, color or religion, all the requirements that are necessary to become a Hobo are viz a spotless character, one pair overalls, insullied reputation, two pairs socks, true moral worth and a clean shirt. It has been said by some that we meet here to gamble; now I most emphatically deny the "Alligation" and I would like to get my hands on the "Alligator" just worst! By Twist! Of course we have our quiet games for pastime only, and even then "casino" is the only one allowed. We have a by-law in the rules and regulations prohibiting "forty-fives" and I consider it a vulgar and uncultivated game decidedly unfit for Sunday school children. Before I close, to give you an idea how morality is enforced in this association I will show you in the revised constitution of Hobos here article six, section 37 where it distinctly states that any Hobo who shall in the future (past offences are all cancelled) dig out ground hogs, shoot squirrels, or visit fox snares on Sunday shall be suspended his name put on the black list and all the Hobos notified in the three provinces Jacksontown, Newburg and up river.

UPPER WOODSTOCK.

MAR. 16.—Through the enterprise and thoughtfulness of our genial postmaster, Mr. J. J. Evans, this community now enjoys the benefit of having their outgoing mail put on the mail trains at this point, instead of being taken to Woodstock as formerly, where quite often it would have to remain until the next day, being too late for the train. Now mail matter dropped at this office any time before 4 p. m., will go out the same afternoon on the 4.15 train and reach its destination as quickly as if mailed in town. Many thanks are due Mr. Evans from the general public.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloodworth, Waterville, spent part of last Thursday at the "Elms," enjoying the generous hospitality of friends, and receiving congratulations on the very important event in their lives which occurred a few days since.

The Hijos received a very unique motto from a Calcutta member the other day. It reads thus:—"We delight in family quarrels and human misery." It is a beautiful thing worked in Hiji characters, the emblem of the order, skull and cross bones being very prominent. It hangs in the lobby of the main entrance to the club room, and is receiving a great deal of attention—people come for miles to see it. A special committee consisting of W. F. Gilroy, Woodstock, Stanley Hurst and Alvan Goodhue, Jacksonville, S. Perkins and John Sandhill have been appointed to modify the qualification clause in the constitution, if possible, as it engendered hard feelings in some quarters. The K. O. K. made the statement Saturday night that if the "Upper Woodstock Iron Work" commenced operations in the spring he would issue a daily newspaper at this place to be called the Hiji Whirligig" and would guarantee to settle the Manitoba school question inside of thirty days by a compromise—do away with both free and separate schools and establish Hiji schools which are run on the European plan.

KNOXFORD.

MAR. 16.—A number of our young men who have been spending the winter in the woods have returned very much changed in appearance. One of them, Fred Stuart is quite ill, but being under
