R. B. WATSON.

of his work. He arrived in Woodstock a couple of weeks ago on his way up the Tobique.

CHESTNUT & HIPWELL.—Two years ago this firm started business. Five months ago they were burned out, but since that time have established a factory at the head of the town, and have met with great success. Their sales have been very heavy and they have experienced a success which they scarcely had reason to expect.

D. M. KINNEAR, architect and builder, is finishing a house on Queen St. south, for W. O. Steeves and another for R. K. Jones. W. P. Jones is building a house on the same street. There have been seven new residences built on Queen St. South, within a year. Mr. Kinnear commences work on a new house in Grafton this week.

H. V. DALLING has made in his store on Main St. a very comfortable office for the C. P. R. telegraph office. He has made a sound tight room for the long distance telephone, and now one can communicate with most any part of the civilized world at his store, from Centreville to Peru. Miss Joe Watts is in charge of the C. P. R. telegraph.

MISS L. B. HUNTLEY, of St. John, has opened a class in shorthand in Fowles' Business School, Queen St., Woodstock. Miss Huntley is a shorthand expert, teaching either the Isaac Pittman system or the Beale. She taught for some time in Kerr's Business College, St. John, and comes here with the very highest recommendations. Here is an opportunity for anyone desiring to possess a thorough knowledge of shorthand.

MOVED TO THIS CITY.—Mr. A. R. Balloch and his family have moved down from Edmundston to the old Rainsford farm two or three miles above town. Mr. Balloch carries on an extensive business in Edmundston, and will still continue therein, which will necessitate his being in Edmundston most of the time. The family, however prefer living here, and besides the farm passes to Mr. Balloch at Miss Rainsford's death.—Gleaner.

MISS MAGGIE HULL of Woodstock, and Evlin Tabor, a former resident of Woodstock, and now living in Lynn, Mass., were married last night at the residence of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan, and Harry Tabor supported the groom. Rev. Mr. Payson performed the ceremony. The newly married couple left this afternoon for their future home in Lynn. They were accompanied by Miss Florence Buchanan, who will spend some time there.—Gleaner, Oct. 2.

J. FRANK TILLEY, Dairy Inspector, returned on Saturday from St. John, where he was running a travelling dairy at the Exhibition. He manufactured butter and gave instructions to large crowds in the best methods of manufacture. Mr. Tilley will operate a dairy at the Exhibition that opens at Woodstock today and will give practical instruction in the separation of cream from milk by the centrifugal method. He will demonstrate the use of the Babcock tester. Mr. Tilley will give an 8 bottle Babcock tester as a prize for the best dairy cow at the fair.

The Genuine Wilkinson Steel Plow

Can be had only from us and our agents. Other makers attempt to imitate these Plows. If, however you examine the imitation you will find the steel mould board is but little more than half the thickness of Wilkinson's, and in many other ways the imitation has been cheapened. Our agents as below have the Plows made by Wilkinson:

Geo. H. West, Grand Falls; D. B. Hopkins, Aroostook Jc't; J. F. Tweeddale, Perth; M. A. Smith, Bath; A. D. Clark, Florenceville; Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland; J. W. Ellsworth, Richmond; W. Riley Trafford, Southampton.

BALMAIN BROS., WOODSTOCK, N. B.

LECTURE LECTURE.—Rev. Mr. Gross of Woodstock will lecture on his native country, Denmark, at Tilley's Hall Jacksonville on Tuesday the 13th. He will exhibit some views of his native land and he and his wife will sing in their native tongue. On Thursday the 15th he will lecture at the Baptist church 1½ miles from Waterville. Admission 15 cents. This is a good lecture and deserves a good audience.

IT IS to be hoped the various Sunday Schools throughout the county will remember the coming Provincial S. S. Convention to be held at Woodstock on Oct. 20, 21, and 22. Every school in the county have the right to send two delegates. Remember the names of delegates must reach Mr. C. N. Scott, Woodstock, N. B., by Oct. 13, in order that homes may be provided for them. Special rates have been arranged for the accommodation of those who come by rail. There will be a committee with white badges on to meet all trains and conduct the delegates to the Methodist church where the convention is to be held.

THE A. M. E. CHURCH.—On Friday evening last, Rev. N. P. Gross delivered a lecture on Denmark, his native land, in the A. M. E. church, Woodstock. The following is the programme of the evening:—Opening prayer, Nathaniel McIntyre; singing, the choir; introduction, His worship the Mayor; lecture, Rev. Mr. Gross; recitation, Miss Annie McIntyre; singing, Mr. and Mrs. Gross in native tongue; singing, the choir; recitation, Miss Annie McIntyre; closing hymn. The singing of Mr. and Mrs. Gross in their native tongue was very pleasing and it is to be hoped the public will have other opportunities of hearing them. Despite the bad weather and the unpleasant walking a good audience was present.

W. C. T. U.—The first annual convention of the New Brunswick Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held (God willing) in Moncton, beginning the sixteenth of October at 9.30 a. m. in W. C. T. U. hall. Each Union is allowed two delegates, while County Superintendents and Superintendents of Departments are ex officio members of Convention. Unions are requested to elect their delegates and forward the names to Mrs. G. V. Forbes, Moncton, as soon as possible. The usual arrangements for reduced rates will be made by Provincial Corresponding Secretary, and Unions will be instructed as to reductions later on. The services of Mrs. J. K. Barney, of Rhode Island, have been engaged.

CARE OF A CUT.—If a child cuts his finger with glass, the place should be bathed immediately with warm water, and the same course should be pursued if the cut skin is at all dirty. When a knee is cut through a fall the part must be carefully cleaned to remove all gravel or earth before it is tied up.

Pretty Housewives

Would be still prettier if they had less work to do, they wouldn't be so tired at night if they gave up the worrying exhausting task of baking bread.

DENT'S BREAD

Is wholesome, fresh and pure, besides you can buy it cheaper than you can make it yourself actual tests have proved this.
