IMPROVEMENTS.—McManus Bros. have greatly improved the appearance of their store by a new hardwood floor, and a furnace in place of the old stove. Wm McDonald is putting repairs on his shop on Queen Street.

AT THE morning service in St. Luke's church on Sunday, Archdeacon Neales made a special reference to the great loss the Church of England has sustained in the death of the Most Rev. Dr. Benson, Archbishop of Canterbury.

J. R. McCONNELL, the extensive lumber operator of Fredericton, N. B., sent 75 men and seven pairs of horses in the woods near Ashland, Me., recently, and will forward more later. He expects to get out over 4,000,000 feet this winter.

THE CARLETON PROTEST.—Upon application of Stephen B. Appleby on Thursday morning Judge Landry granted an order appointing Friday of this week as the day for fixing the time for the hearing of the preliminary objections to the petition filed against Mr. Hale.

MISSSES TOMPKINS AND WOOLVERTON have taken the shop recently occupied by Mrs. Dayton opposite the Carlisle Hotel. They have put in an entirely new stock of goods and respectfully solicit the consideration of public. Attention is directed to their ad'vt. in this issue.

THE Maritime Wrapper Factory now get their heat from the Woolen Mill. Two pipes have been laid whereby the steam is carried over from the one factory to the other, and the water returned. The Woolen Mill now furnishes power, heat and light to the Wrapper Factory.

IT IS A PLEASURE to call attention to the fine display of photographs at the door of Ben R. Watson's Studio on Queen St. He has one cabinet full of children's pictures only. The work is excellent. Many of the pictures are double mounted and have a particularly rich appearance.

REV. S. J. HANFORD, retired clergyman of the Church of England, has taken up his residence here, and is now boarding at Mr. Wm. Queens'. Mr. Hanford is well known to the older residents of Woodstock, having been the first curate in the parish. He was stationed here as early as 1845, and afterwards was a missionary at Andover.

THE AROOSTOOK Times says:—The stone broken by the prisoners at the jail is being used to excellent advantage on Court street extending from French's and the Putnam and Rice blocks as far as the Opera House. No better foundation is possible for a firm roadbed. It is the nearest approach to paving that we are apt to become acquainted with for some years.

S. C. WALLACE of the firm of Wallace and Fraser, St. John, was in Woodstock during the county exhibition. He took some pains to explain to those interested, the merits of Albert's Phosphate Powder a fertilizer that he is putting on the market. Mr. Wallace has made a thorough study of this sort of thing and he knows that he has a good article. Balmain Bros., will sell it in Woodstock.

REV. HORACE DIBBLEE, his many friends will be glad to hear, is quite recovered in health and is now hard at work in his parish of Oromoco. On his arrival at Oromoco from Fredericton he was met at the boat's landing by a large number of parishioners, who escorted him to the residence of Mr. Gerhardus Clowes. His parishioners had fitted up his rectory all ready for him to enter it.

ON MONDAY the 6th inst. two young men in the employ of G. R. Watson of Presque Isle, dug 128 bbls. of potatoes in 10 hours from one measured acre. Ground was very heavy owing to recent rains and the rows were not cultivated. The potatoes were picked by Messrs G. R. Watson and Geo. Thomas, to whom any man can refer if they doubt the truth of the above statement.—Star Herald.

FOR BICYCLISTS.—Rev. J. E. Flewelling, of Centerville, wishes THE DISPATCH to announce that he will hold a service at Centerville, on Oct. 25th 11 a. m., to which all bicyclists are cordially invited, who live within a reasonable distance, a sermon to be given especially for their benefit. The reverend gentleman requests each bicyclist who can attend to notify him by card so that seats in church may be provided for them.

MR. LOUIS E. YOUNG of the law firm of Young & Comben and Miss Lily Shea daughter of Mr. John Shea were married at Grafton on Wednesday last. Rev. Dr. Chapman was the officiating clergyman. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Colwell of Fort Fairfield. The groom's law partner, Mr. and Mrs. Young went to Boston and New York on their wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Grafton.

MR. CONNELL, Druggist, Woodstock, has just received a fresh supply of the world renowned Holloway's Red Blood Syrup. Mr. Connell can highly recommend this excellent preparation for all pale, weak, nervous persons or those whose health has been worn out by over work, disease or other causes. It is the only preparation which he is allowed to guarantee to do all that is claimed for it. Should purchasers not be satisfied with its results he will cheerfully return money paid.

D. ESTEV, of Hartland, and Miss Sadie Long of Macnaquac, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father at five o'clock on Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Howard, of Macnaquac, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sykes of Keswick Ridge. There were about sixty guests in attendance, including several from this city. The bride was the recipient of many elegant and useful presents. The happy couple left for their future home at Hartland next morning, followed by the best wishes of very many friends.—Gleaner.

CAPT CHARLES EMERY, of the Woodstock field Battery, who has been for many years past in the western states arrived home on Saturday. He is now at Victor, some few miles beyond Cripple Creek, Col. It is four years since Capt. Emery paid a visit to his home in Jacksonville. With regard to the election prospects the captain says that it is very hard to form a judgment. On the one hand you will hear that Bryan is sure of election while on the other hand, McKinley is spoken of as the man. Naturally the west is in favor of free silver. Capt. Emery will remain until after Christmas.

A HINDU TAMASHA will be held at the residence of Mr. John Shea, Grafton, on Monday evening the 26th inst., at 7 p. m. under the auspices of the Free Christian Baptist Y. S. C. E. A number of the young people will be dressed in native costumes and there will be singing in the Orija language. A large and interesting stock of Burmese and Indian curios will be on exhibition. Mrs. Boyer will make the necessary explanation regarding them and give other information concerning the natives of India and their habits. Admission ten cents. Refreshments fifteen cents. All are cordially invited. Those interested in India and her swarthy children should not miss this opportunity of seeing so much of India brought to their own doors, and those not now interested should not fail to attend, for to see this collection is to become interested in our dusky neighbors across the sea. A social amode promode is expected. The proceeds will be devoted to the Boys Orphanage at Balasore.

More About Cold Storage.

A recent Dispatch to the Toronto Globe says:—The Minister of Agriculture, Hon. T. A. Fisher, was in Montreal accompanied by Prof. Robertson, Dairy Commissioner, engaged in interviewing the steamship men and the exporters of dairy products in regard to the cold storage scheme which Mr. Fisher is going to put into operation next spring. It is a question whether the big dairy exporters would prefer their products to be immediately shipped to Montreal in cold storage cars or stored in cold storage warehouses for a time. The steamers plying to Great Britain are being asked to co-operate with the department and provide ample cold storage compartments.

Scalded by Hot Tea.

Harry Lutes, son of Albert V. H. Lutes, shunter in the I. C. R. yard, Moncton, was the victim of a scalding accident recently which resulted in its death. The child split a pot of hot tea over itself, badly scalding its face, chest and arms. A dish had been placed on the sink by Mrs. Lutes, who had gone to the door, leaving the child in another room. The little one was one year, five months and nine days old.

The Genuine Wilkinson Steel Plow

Can be had only from us and our agents. Other makers attempt to imitate these Plows. If, however you examine the imitation you will find the steel mould board is but little more than half the thickness of Wilkinson's, and in many other ways the imitation has been cheapened. Our agents as below have the Plows made by Wilkinson:

Geo. H. West, Grand Falls; D. B. Hopkins, Aroostook Jc't; J. F. Tweeddale, Perth; M. A. Smith, Bath; A. D. Clark, Florenceville; Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland; J. W. Ellsworth, Richmond; W. Riley Trafford, Southampton.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Criminal and Civil Cases to be Tried.

The Circuit Court opened here yesterday, Judge Landry presiding. There are two criminal cases to be tried. One is the Queen vs. Geo. Davenport of Bristol. This is the outcome of a charge laid by Holman McMullin, who alleges that when he tried to serve a paper on Davenport, the latter attacked him with his potato digger. As McMullin is a constable, Davenport stands charged with resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty. The other criminal case is the Queen vs. Lorenzo Murphy and Charles Mitchell. The circumstances in connection with this case should be fresh in the minds of Woodstock people. The charge against the prisoners is that they entered the house of Joseph Scribner near the park, and stole some money from his trousers pocket, and that Murphy knocked down Miss Lizzie Horseman, who with Miss Scribner was in the house at the time, and was attracted by the noise to go down stairs and see what was going on.

The civil docket is: Jas. H. Wilbur jr., vs. M. Caroline Doherty. Fisher & A. B. Connell for plaintiff. Hartley & Carvell for defendant. Action for damages for breach of contract for sale of land.

Geo. Stewart vs. Asa Hotham. Fisher & A. B. Connell for plaintiff. Hartley & Carvell for defendant. Action for driving against plaintiff at Bristol trotting park.

Amos E. Hartley vs. Geo. H. Hartley. Hartley & Carvell for plaintiff. S. B. Appleby for defendant. Action of trespass to land.

S. E. Campbell vs. Commercial Union Ass. Co. Hartley & Carvell for plaintiff. M. B. Dixon for defendant. Action to recover loss on Campbell's mill at Hartland, N. B.

Mr. Graham's Illness.

John Graham, of the firm of Lindow & Graham, was stricken with a severe attack on Friday evening, and for a time fears were entertained that he would not recover. He was on his way home about nine o'clock. He evidently fell and lost consciousness for a time, for about eleven o'clock he was heard at Mrs. Lindow's door. As soon as possible he was conveyed to his home, and Drs. Rankin and Saunders summoned. They were obliged to stay with him all night, and in the morning the reports were far from favorable. Later on Saturday Mr. Graham's condition began to improve, and on Monday morning, he was well enough to read the newspapers, and to take an interest in business generally.

The Question of School Suits, Reefers and Ulsters.

Is an unpleasant one—where to go for the best looking—best fitting—and best wearing Suit, Reefer and Ulster at the least possible outlay of money. To a great many people OAK HALL will suggest itself with any question of clothes—to others let us suggest this store. It's the best store in Woodstock for Boys' Clothing. Large selection—very best of styles—most dependable workmanship—lowest of prices—all point toward Oak Hall for Boys' School Suits, Reefers and Ulsters. Day after day new stock is coming. Suits, Reefers and Ulsters that we are proud to show—Suits, Reefers and Ulsters that any store may be proud to show. For they combine greater beauty, greater wearing quality, with smaller prices than any other store has yet succeeded in furnishing. Few people care to send their boys to school in old worn out togs, and we are actually selling goods so low now, that there is not a question prices have reached bottom. Come here to make investigation. We are confident to win your trade if you only examine.

We give FREE with every Suit, Reefer and Ulster, One Pen, One Penholder, One Lead Pencil, One Slate Pencil and One Ruler.
