CHICKEN SUPPER.

REMEMBER the chicken supper in Cole's Hall next Tuesday, given by the young ladies of the Baptist church.

JOHN GIBERSON of Grand Falls has taken a crew of men up the Tobique, to work in the lumber woods, for McNair.

A CREW of men are at work on the C. P. R. at Birmingham Bluff repairing a wall. Next spring a first class job will be done there.

POTATOES are coming in very slowly the roads are so bad and the price so small that hauling them is no object.—Fort Fairfield Paper.

STAFF CAPTAIN GAGE of St. John will be in Woodstock today and tomorrow and will hold special meetings in the Salvation Army Barracks.

THE DIRECTORS of A. A. S. will meet in Love's Hall, Glassville, on Saturday, Nov. 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m., to finish up the past year's business.

T. S. DENT & SON, Bakers, announce that the loaf of bread that has been selling for 7 cents will hereafter sell for 8 cents on account of the rise in flour.

AMONG the new provincial appointments made is the following:—In the County of Carleton, Joseph Lee to be a Labor Act Commissioner for the parish of Kent.

THE Aberdeen Farmers' and Dairymen's association will meet at the hall, Glassville, on Saturday, November 28 at 7 o'clock p. m., to wind up the business of the last year.

A PARAGRAPH in the St. John papers credits the Tobique with a cut of 30,000,000 of lumber. With due deference to the papers, the cut will be, if a favorable winter, nearer 40,000,000 ft.—Corr. in Sentinel.

THERE was quite a baby snow storm on Sunday morning, supplemented by a further addition on Monday. It has had the effect of filling up some of the ruts in the roads which are desperately bad for travelling.

THE annual meeting of the Woodstock dairy association will be held at Cedar Hill school house on Monday evening 23rd inst. for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Members are especially requested to attend.

SUNDAY LAST was the anniversary of St. Gertrude, after whom the Roman Catholic church in Woodstock is called. Rev. Father Chapman referred to the event in his discourse pointing out that St. Gertrude was a Saxon Saint.

MR CHARLES McLean, correspondent of the Telegraph, was taken ill quite suddenly last week and has been confined to the house ever since. He was seriously ill for a few days, but THE DISPATCH is glad to say, he is now on the mend.

THE weather is worthy of special mention. The rainy season held up for a bit, and on Sunday it snowed and was cold. On Monday more snow put in an appearance. Yesterday the old order returned and rain and slush was the bill of fare.

THANKSGIVING EXCURSION VIA C. P. R.—The public will be able to procure Excursion tickets at single fare to points in Quebec and Ontario on Nov. 24 and 25 and to points on the Atlantic division on Nov. 25 and 26, and all will be good for return until Monday Nov. 30th.

WHEN IN TOWN don't fail to call at the warehouse of Chestnut & Hipwell, opposite the Small & Fisher Co., Main St., and see the finest stock of Pungs in Carleton County. Nothing but the best stock is used in our goods and as regards workmanship there is none better.

THE first of a series of illustrated lectures on Church History will be given in the Parish Hall this evening by Rev. W. B. Belliss, curate of Woodstock. A Magic Lantern will be used to show the scenes plainly to all present. It will be a free lecture and a good attendance is anticipated.

THE Chicken supper to be give by the Young Ladies of the Albert St. Baptist church will be on Tuesday evening next, the 24th, instead of Thursday evening as previously announced. It will be in Coles Hall. A good time guaranteed. If you don't have it you may sue the young ladies for damages.

WE SURPRISE even the natives in our very low prices as well as our stock of handsome Vase Lamps, China and Glass sets 6 and 7 pieces, five o'clock Tea sets, China Comb and Brush trays, Rose Bowls, China Fruit dishes Fancy Cups and Saucers Plates & c. C. M. Sherwood & Bro. 2 & 4 Main Street.

THE NEWS, of Yarmouth, comes to THE DISPATCH as a welcome exchange. It is a five column folio, well printed and with lively news matter. Mr. H. Macdonald, son of Rev. G. W. Macdonald, well known in Woodstock, is editor, and Mr. Sanders is manager. The News looks as if it had come to stay.

NEXT Sunday Mr. Rautenberg, a converted Jew, will preach in the Methodist church and on Monday he will give a lecture. He was converted at a meeting held by Crossley & Hunter in Fredericton. His little son, who accompanies him, is a beautiful singer. Mr. Rautenberg's wife is a niece of Gerkie, the well known author of a popular "Life of Christ."

AKER'S CREEK.—The Railway Bridge at Aker's Creek which has not been particularly satisfactory to the Railway authorities for some time, will be replaced in the spring. They may build a new wooden structure around the present one or they may fill the huge cavity, leaving an archway for the stream and the road beneath, or they may build a steel truss supported on stone abutments.

Hazleton and Ketch are lumbering on Jardine Brooks on the Restigouche. They have four camps, in one of which they employ 50 men and five teams of horses. They put in from 80 to 120 logs a day to each team. The boys complain that David Thornton, their cook is the best all round cook in the Dominion. Jack Hartt, recently of Woodstock is clerking for the concern. Mr. Ketch is his uncle.

A LATE ISSUE of the Independent Press of Griggsville, Ill., contains an account of the wedding of Rev. Thos. William Todd, of New Berlin, Ill., grandson of Rev. Thomas Todd, of Woodstock, and Miss Alice McMahon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McMahon, of Griggsville. The ceremony was performed by Dr. DeBlois, president of Shutecliffe college. Mr. Todd was at one time professor of elocution and English literature in this college, and his wife was one of its former teachers. Mr. Todd is now pastor of the Baptist church at New Berlin, Ill. His acquaintances and friends in this part of the country will read this item with interest.

MEN'S FASHIONS.—The season for social functions is on us and the fellows will be looking about for something to wear. The style in evening dress does not change much from season to season, but this season the changes are greater than for a long time. The vest opening is broad with a broad U. The roll of the coat has considerably increased in length and the trousers will be narrow at the bottoms. The vest, whether single or double breasted may be made from a black figured silk. There are several other new dodges all of which may be learned on application to W. B. Nicholson, Merchant Tailor, Woodstock. Mr. Nicholson has the latest fashion plate from the Jno. J. Mitchell Co. of New York and he is prepared to make up any of the popular styles.

THE annual self-denial week of the Salvation Army takes place throughout this territory from November 22nd to November 28th inclusive. Every Salvationist is more than occupied with preparations for this event. A wonderful testimony to the Army's development and activity has been paid in past years by the large sums of money which have been raised in this way. Each member of the Army, as well as the friends of its many social institutions, are asked to abstain from all luxuries, and in many cases, officers and soldiers have actually determined to do without certain articles of food, which are ordinarily considered necessary, in order that by their acts of self-denial, they may add financial support to the Army and its many different branches of work. The social operations in this wide field have been greatly developed during the past twelve months, there being several extensions of the work. As a natural consequence, therefore, the demands upon the Army's funds have increased, and this will require still greater effort to raise a corresponding increased amount during this special self-denial week.

Thin or gray hair and bald heads, so displeasing to many people as marks of age, may be averted for a long time by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

Obituary.

This clipping is from Zion Herald, Oct. 28. The persons referred to were formerly resident at Hartland:

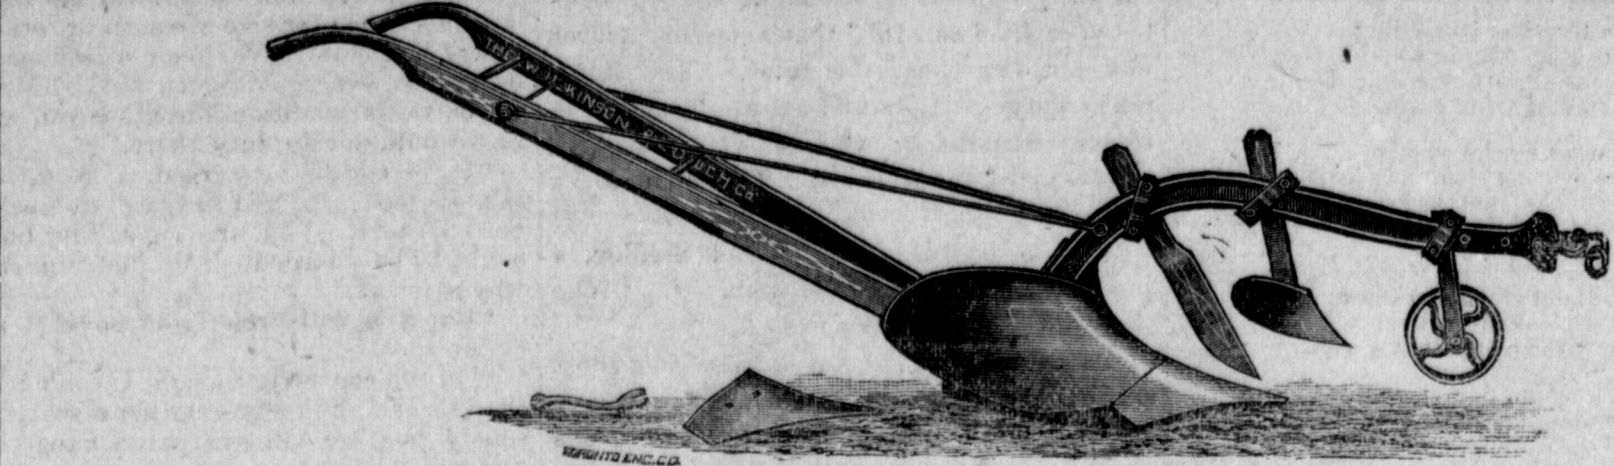

BARNETT—Fannie E. Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Barnett (all of the Bromfield M. E. church, Boston, Mass.) after an illness of many months was called home to the city of New Jerusalem, Sep. 28, 1896, aged 24 years 10 months.

From early childhood Fannie was a follower of the Saviour. She gladly did what she could for the cause of Christ. She was especially active in both the Sunday schools of her church—the American and the Chinese. Ever exerting a Christian influence over all with whom she came in contact. Her quiet yet cheerful manner won her many friends. In her home did she especially show forth the beauty of her Christian character. It was only a few months ago that a younger sister, Edith, was taken to Heaven from that home. Edith was nearly 22, but by the sweetness of her Christian spirit had won many friends. She, too, had trusted all to Him who has said, "Come unto Me and I will give you rest," and had obtained victory over death in His name. Thus in a few short months Mr. and Mrs. Barnett have been called upon to bid adieu first to one loved daughter and then to the other. The last weeks of Fannie's stay on earth were spent in the home of her uncle, Rev. J. D. Pickles, pastor of the Tremont street M. E. church. He tenderly gave to her the ministrations of the gospel of the blessed Lord. These loving sisters were not long separated. They are mingling now with the holy around the throne of our God, giving to Him the praise of their salvation. They are watching and waiting for the coming of the loved parents. The parting will not be long. May the wonderful grace of our Holy Comforter abundantly sustain the parents, the relatives and the church in such a loss.

L. B. BATES, Pastor.

The Genuine Wilkinson Steel Plow

Can be had only from us and our agents. Other makers attempt to imitate these Plows. However you examine the imitation you will find the steel mould board is but little more than half the thickness of Wilkinson's, and in many other ways the imitation has been cheapened. Our agents as below have the Plows made by Wilkinson:

Geo. H. West, Grand Falls; D. B. Hopkins, Aroostook Jc't; J. F. Tweeddale, Perth; M. A. Smith, Bath; A. D. Clark, Florenceville; Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland; J. W. Ellsworth, Richmond; W. Riley Trafford, Southampton.

You can eat cheap food and not be seriously hurt by it; but you can take cheap medicine without positive injury. If you use any substitute for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, you do so at the peril of your health, perhaps of your life. Insist on having Ayer's and no other.

A GOOD TIME TO FISH

All Varieties Fresh, Salt and Smoked on Hand.

A week or two ago THE DISPATCH contained an article on the Fish Market, which W. L. Daggett, the enterprising young man from the sea shore is so actively running. Less than a quarter of an hour after a copy of THE DISPATCH was in the hands of a certain housekeeper, Mr. Daggett received an order by telephone, for some of the goods which THE DISPATCH so appropriately eulogised.

THE DISPATCH has only to mention that a certain article is for sale, and Presto! it is sold.

The Fish Market is becoming one of the popular institutions of the town. People are beginning to wonder how they ever got along without it. Anyone, to be sure, can sell fish, but everyone does not know how and where to get good fish and to keep the fish good, so that they will taste as fresh to the consumer as if just taken from the water.

Among the varieties on hand at present are fresh haddock, fresh cod, fresh mackerel, fresh herring, finnie haddies, kippered herring. Oysters from Buctouche and clams from clam headquarters can be had in any quantity, and on a moment's notice.

Mr. Daggett is meeting with much success in his handling of the famous goods prepared by the celebrated English butchers Lilly Sons and Aldous. The hams and shoulders which have been bought from him are pronounced first class in every respect. A specialty is made of bacon, which when good is one of the choice things for a breakfast table. Sausages home made and Bologna are in stock and will be found most satisfying to the palate on application. Mr. Simon Wilson who assists Mr. Daggett in his business and has charge of the delivery cart, has made himself very popular, by his promptness in delivering orders and his readiness to oblige customers.

You'll be sorry if you have eye trouble, and don't consult the optician in time. It will save you money. W. B. Jewett, Woodstock.
